BEAVERS ON STAND SEVERELY GRILLED BY POOLE COUNSEL

'TRAP' IS CLAIMED BY WESTMORELAND

Beavers' Lawyer Hits Mrs. Langdon's Testimony; Defense To Have Inning at Next Hearing.

Testimony of James L. Beavers, chief of police, in the trial of Chief of Detectives A. Lamar Poole, brought the prosecution to a dramatic and surprising climax Friday night as the veteran chief charged his former friend and one-time political ally with inefficiency, incompetency and insubordination.

Poole will begin his defense with 150 witnesses subpenaed, at the Monday night meeting of the police committee, before whom the case is being tried.

Beavers mounted the stand with a determined air and created the only sensation of an otherwise technical and rather uninteresting hearing.

He recounted how Poole had ignored him, how he had failed to perform his duty and how, after repeated warnings, he had failed to comply with departmental orders that daily reports of the detective bureau be filed with the chief.

Beavers Is Grilled.

W. Paul Carpenter, defense counsel, put Beavers through a grueling examination. He attempted to elicit an admission that bad feeling has existed between the chief and his former trusted lieutenant for the last several years. So heated was the cross-examination that John Westmoreland, Beavers' counsel, appealed to committee members on several occasions to prevent the merciless questioning.

Oscar H. Pendley, secretary of the police committee, was the last witness to appear before Beavers was placed on the stand.

Pendley was asked concerning the filing of reports in accordance with a demand Beavers made on April 28, 1931, and told the committee that Poole had not filed reports in many of the cases.

Denies Taking Over Department.

Beavers vigorously denied, under cross-examination by Attorney Carpenter, that he had taken control of the detective department from Poole, though he admitted in answer to a direct question that since January, 1931, he had not consulted with Poole regarding the men who were to be assigned to the detective department.

Beavers became incensed with the manner of cross-examination by Carpenter and insisted that some other lawyer question him. Attorney Branch then took up the cross-examination after Carpenter voluntarily withdrew.

"Until three years ago Poole was friendly and co-operative in his dealings with me but then he started to ignore me," Chief Beavers said. "Then I ignored him. I had my reasons for not consulting him in selecting the men who were to be assigned to the detective department."

Beavers said he did not file the charges against Poole until now because he wanted to give Poole "ample time to carry out his orders."

Investigated Prisoners' Release.

The chief of police said in answers to questions by Carpenter and his own lawyers that he discovered the re-

Dry Charlotte News Favors Referendum

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 8.—The Charlotte News, long considered one of the outstanding champions of prohibition in North Carolina, called upon the state today to take the lead in a move to have the eighteenth amendment submitted to a vote of the people.

In an editorial captioned "Let North Carolina Lead," the News demanded that candidates for the 1933 general assembly "commit themselves or permit themselves to be instructed in the will of their constituents on the matter of petitioning congress for a resubmission of the eighteenth amendment, repeal of it to bestow again upon the states their once supreme right of dealing with this matter of public welfare as they themselves see or have seen fit."

Stock Probe Opens Monday; Attack on Dollar Continues

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Aroused by the collapse of security prices and reports of foreign campaigns against the American dollar, the senate banking committee in an emergency meeting today ordered an immediate investigation of the stock market.

A subpoena was issued for Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, ordering him to appear here Monday with all records relating to short sales at the close of business today.

Further declines in stock prices today following a persistent downward drive all week prompted the emergency session of the committee. It was held an hour after the New York exchange had closed for the day.

Senator Walcott, republican, Connecticutt, an advisor of President Hoover and regarded as an administration spokesman, led the movement for the special session. There is every indication that the administration spurred the sudden inquiry and is backing it to the limit.

Began Early.

Walcott began negotiations for the meeting early in the day. Only last night the capital was aroused by a fresh outbreak of the campaign in France against the dollar in which one newspaper published a story that a prominent New York bank had suspended payments.

Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, called the banking committee together today in the absence of Chairman Norbeck. The committee with no announcement of its meeting, gathered in the republican cloak room of the senate. Its action was unanimous.

Brookhart spoke of reports of a "systematic bear raid" on the exchange and referred to complaints received against foreign attacks on the American currency. Walcott declined to comment.

New York reports of the stock exchange today told of new low levels for several prominent stocks. One story also told of the shipment today of $10,000,000 in gold abroad, of which $9,000,000 went to France and $1,000,000 to Belgium.

The banking committee includes members of all shades of political opinion in the senate and its unanimous decision was regarded significantly.

Seek Counsel.

Committee members immediately got into communication with a prospective counsel to assist it. The name of Carter Branch, of Providence, R. I., was prominently mentioned for this post.

Whitney was directed to appear Monday at 10:30 a. m. The whole committee will sit on the investigation.

While plans have been going forward for some time to make the stock market inquiry, it was intended to defer action until the Glass banking bill was out of the way. Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, who is confined to his hotel here, is understood to have assented to the sudden move.

"We are going into this stock market from top to bottom," asserted Brookhart. "We are summoning Mr. Whitney because we think he knows the facts. We aren't going to stop with the bears. We are going to find out about the bulls, too. We want to find out everything about these sales this week, whether they were liquidation sales, short sales, long sales or wash sales or whatever they were."

List of Items.

The subpoena issued for Whitney directed him to bring records "necessary to produce the following:

"1. A list of all corporations in whose stock there is a short account

TARIFF ENTERS DEBATE ON TAX

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Elimination of all new tariff duties from the tax bill was proposed in the senate today while the leaders massed their forces to secure prompt enactment of the fiscal program.

Senator Tydings, democrat, Maryland, offered a resolution to direct the finance committee to strike the import levies from the measure. He warned that a protracted tariff debate would cost the government $90,000,000 a month in collection of new excise taxes provided by the revenue measure.

He will ask a vote early next week and is confident of a majority, but a coalition is rapidly forming in opposition to his measure. The house put import duties on oil and coal in the tax measure. Proposals to include half a dozen more articles, including copper, lumber, wood pulp, manganese and jute are pending in the senate.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, who has declared for prompt action on the budget balancing legislation, stated today there was "considerable sentiment" for a general tariff ban.

There is no way of halting the tariff debate nor of barring import tax amendments to the revenue bill on the senate floor, but leaders believe if the finance committee is instructed to exclude all import taxes it will go a long way in speeding action.

Meanwhile, two other principal fighting points are emerging from the preliminary tax discussions in the senate. Senators Couzens, republican, Michigan, and Connally, democrat, Texas, both members of the finance committee, are drafting a schedule of higher surtax income rates. A battle is looming over the stock and bond sales tax.

Couzens has proposed a revival of the war time income rates on higher incomes with a maximum of 65 per cent. Connally is figuring on raising the 40 per cent maximum provided by the house bill to about 50 per cent. If a boost in the higher income rates is made it is believed Connally's has the better chance.

Hearings by the finance committee will be resumed Monday. There is much talk among both republicans and democrats of reconsidering the motion it rejected, 10 to 6, on Wednesday to ban tariff duties from the bill.

After five hours of old-fashioned tariff debate, the senate today agreed without a record vote to have the effect of depreciated foreign currencies on American trade investigated by both the tariff commission and a special senate committee.

ECONOMY AX HITS DRY OFFICE FUNDS

$1,000,000 Lopped From Enforcement Appropriation by Committee.

BY CECIL B. DICKSON.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—The sharpened congressional economy ax swung hard on prohibition enforcement for the first time today with a tentative slash of more than a million dollars off the bureau's 1933 operating allotment.

An appropriation subcommittee made the cut in carrying out senate orders for a ten per cent reduction of the $124,000,000 state, justice, commerce and labor departmental supply bill.

It come as President Hoover and the house economy committee made plans for their meeting tomorrow at the White House on retrenchment proposals aggregating about $200,000,000 that will include a proposition to reduce salaries of government employes.

Mr. Hoover is known to oppose federal wage cuts because he feels they would be a bad example to commercial employers and would result in negligible savings.

To Face Issue.

House party leaders, meanwhile, decided to bring the salary slashing proposition to an issue next week by bringing up for action the legislative supply bill carrying pay for members of congress. Chairman McDuffie, of the economy group, is expected to lead the fight for a salary cutting amendment to save $67,000,000.

Late in the day Secretary Adams announced cuts in the naval establishment that will save an amount estimated at more than $36,000. The naval stations at New Orleans and Key West, he said, will be reduced to bare operative status. The radio stations at both places will be continued as will the office of the commandant of the naval district at New Orleans. The Key West cut was estimated at $18,000 and that at New Orleans at least that much.

The reduction from more than $11,000,000 to $10,000,000 in the dry law enforcement fund will be considered tomorrow by the full senate appropriations committee. Senator Jones, republican, Washington, author of the Jones five-year and $10,000 fine prohibition law, is chairman of both the sub-group and the whole committee.

Approval Expected.

Its approval, however, along with the remainder of the $12,400,000 cut applied to the other activities is expected in view of Senator Robinson's

ROOSEVELT DRIVE GAINS MOMENTUM IN NEW VICTORIES

Many Leaders Speak of Nomination as Accomplished Fact as New Yorker Routs Rivals.

BY BYRON PRICE.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—The presidential candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt continues to sweep all obstacles aside with such spectacular regularity that many democratic leaders now speak of his nomination as an accomplished fact.

Some still hope for his defeat, but they concede that only an extraordinary reversal of form or a desperate stand in the convention can stop him.

The opposition has been surprised not only by his strength, but by their own weakness. The major reliances of the combination against him are fading one by one.

During the past week, in the New York and Wisconsin primaries, Governor Roosevelt has flattened out still further the hopes of those few leaders who felt that Alfred E. Smith might stop the procession. One more favorite son, Senator Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, has stepped aside to leave a delegation unpledged but friendly to Roosevelt. A tactical victory, at least, was won by selection of Senator Alben Barkely, of Kentucky, a Roosevelt man, as the national convention keynoter.

Both Recede.

The defeat of Smith successively in New Hampshire, Minnesota, Maine, Wisconsin and the single contested New York district, has coincided with a recession of activity on behalf of Speaker John N. Garner, the other great hope of the stop-Roosevelt movement.

Nor have the fortunes of any favorite son been benefitted materially. In fact, except for one or two delegates, no candidate but Roosevelt has won any support at all outside his home state. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, of Oklahoma, has one in North Dakota, and Smith probably has one in Wisconsin.

Of the 330 delegates chosen thus far, 174 are counted definitely for Roosevelt, Murray has 23, James A. Reed, of Missouri, 36; Smith probably 1. All the remaining 104 are in doubt, but 84 of them belong to New York, generally expected to go preponderantly to Roosevelt.

On the basis of this showing, and with other victories assured for the near future, the Roosevelt managers are sounding the band wagon call with great effect in the territory still in dispute. The opposition battles on, with its back to the wall, as its disappointments multiply.

Hoover Men Heartened.

Meantime, the republican supporters of President Hoover are heartened tremendously by the returns from their party's primary in Wisconsin. The figures still are incomplete, but there appears no doubt the administration forces have made considerable gains against the La Follette insurgents. Hoover may, in the end, have a majority of the delegation.

Of course, the president does not need Wisconsin support to get the nomination. To date he has 231 of the 269 republican delegates selected, and a renomination is assured. But the vote of confidence given him in this northwestern state, of all others, is cheering to republican hearts which have been saddened by dark prophecies of party loss in the election this fall.

The Wisconsin vote is important just in so far as it may be taken as an index to the Hoover strength elsewhere. Republican party leaders have insisted all along that however low the president's stock might go, a rally would come before election. They hope the Wisconsin upturn means that the rally is definitely on the way.

DEMOCRATIC REGISTRATION SHOWS GAIN IN CALIFORNIA

BY RALPH H. HEPPE.

(Copyright, 1932, by The Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—(AP)—Making deep inroads in heavily populated or industrial centers, the democratic party has rolled up a record registration in California for the May 3 presidential primary, with the republicans still holding a big lead but showing a decline of about 10 per cent from the 1930 registration.

Tabulation today by the Associated Press of complete and official registration returns of 54 of the state's 58 counties gave the following totals as compared to full registration for 1928 and 1930:

Republican	1,368,928	1,638,575	1,254,514
Democratic	828,210	456,696	465,793
All others	118,055	150,557	129,672

From the backwoods sections of northern California to the imperial valley in the south the democrats scored gains.

Roosevelt Cheered By Georgia Support

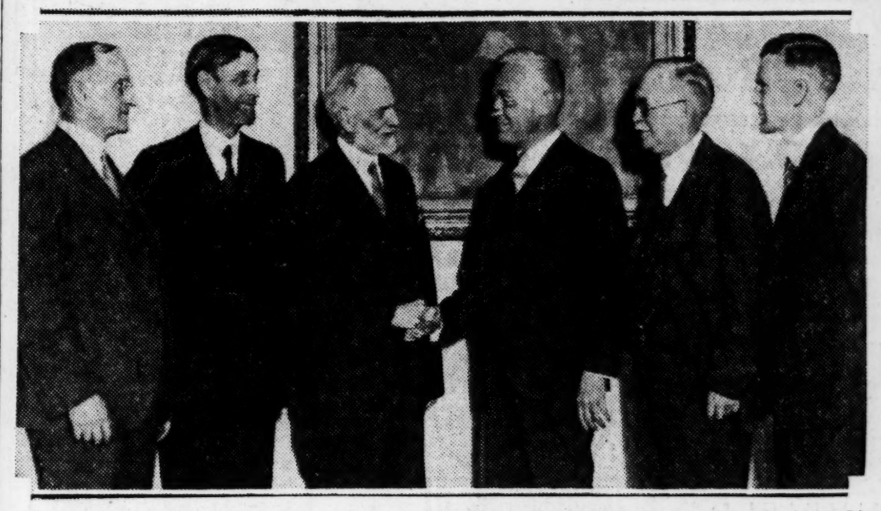

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt expressed himself as "tremendously happy" at Georgia's support of him at the recent primaries, in a telegram read at the spring supper-dance of the Georgia Society of the city of New York tonight.

The telegram, sent to Miller M. Brister, president of the society, read:

"I wish so much I could be with you all Friday evening, but, unfortunately, a previous engagement prevents it. As you know, I have been made tremendously happy by Georgia's support of me in the recent primaries. Please extend to all the members my greetings and good wishes."

The supper-dance was held in the Essex House, 160 Central Park, south.

MACON, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—The nation's great institutions of learning, Macon civic and educational leaders, and girl students of Wesleyan united in doing honor to Wesleyan College at the inauguration of Dr. Dice Robins Anderson as president this morning in a vivid academic procession that marched through the spring sunshine of downtown streets to the Macon auditorium, where inaugural ceremonies were held with pomp and solemnity.

Dr. S. L. Akers, in the black, blue-trimmed robe of the chief marshal, led the procession that began moving about 11 o'clock. Following him were two little girls, Elizabeth and Emily Walsh, the grandnieces of Mrs. C. J. Haden, president of Wesleyan alumnae. Student marshals robed in black academic gowns with red-tassseled hats led the march of Macon's distinguished men and women representing all large civic and character-building organizations here. Wesleyan's undergraduates walked next, brightly dressed in youthful spring costumes.

The parade took on more dignity with the approach of the senior classes of Greater Wesleyan and Wesleyan conservatory. These students wore severe black robes with stiff white collars and black-tasseled caps. Then came the alumnae, women young and old in dark academic robes. Here were grandmothers who as girls in their teens attended old Wesleyan in the seventies, eighties and nineties. One smiling old lady walked slowly with a cane, and was assisted up the auditorium steps by a young woman graduate of several years ago.

The faculty members of Wesleyan marched next, with bright-hued trappings on their dark robes that heralded the splendid color of the procession of colleges and learned societies and the presidential party to come. After the faculty, the board of trustees marched, followed by the imposing array of Mercer University faculty members and special student representatives.

Scores of representatives of learned societies and educational associations and college presidents and distinguished graduates representing their

SMITH REITERATES HE IS CANDIDATE

BY GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Despite Alfred E. Smith's reiteration of his availability to Connecticut mayors today and regardless of the outcome of the preferential primary in Massachusetts on April 26, it is now agreed on all sides that his presidential candidacy has suffered a complete collapse.

With it also has gone practically the last vestige of hope on the part of those associated with him in the stop-Roosevelt move that Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt can be defeated for the nomination.

Beginning with the first contest of the preconvention campaign, in New Hampshire, former Governor Smith has seen his hopes blasted in four states where his friends thought he would muster commanding strength. In each of the four states, New Hampshire, Maine, New York and finally Wisconsin, he went down before the rising tide of the man whose nomination his own candidacy was designed to block—Roosevelt.

Interest in Connecticut.

On top of this string of reverses word comes from Connecticut, one of the states where Smith sentiment is supposed to be strongest, that his former friends there are about to drop the campaign in his behalf and are preparing to question him bluntly on his plans for remaining in the race. In Pennsylvania also, where Smith leaders had hoped to pick up a sizeable block of votes, information is that interest in his candidacy is lagging sadly and that Roosevelt is now scheduled to walk away with upward of 60 of the state's 70-odd delegates.

Thus it does not seem to matter much now what happens in Massachusetts, the one state where the odds heretofore have favored the former New York executive and past nominee of his party. While it is by no means certain in view of what happened in the other four states named that Smith will carry the Bay State delegation, even his friends here admit that, as things stand today, he is destined to go to the Chicago convention without sufficient backing to make him a decisive factor.

Two-Thirds Rule.

On the other hand, the unbroken chain of victories won by Governor

Parker Dies in Chair For Murder of Child

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., April 8.—J. H. Parker, Ware county farmer, died in the electric chair here today still claiming innocence of the actual slaying of his wife and 18-months-old daughter.

He accused Cora Hazen, with whom he was living at the time of the killing. The woman has been acquitted of the slaying of the baby and is in jail at Waycross awaiting trial for the death of the mother.

Parker was condemned for the slaying of the child. He never was tried for the death of his wife. The electrocution was carried out within an hour after Governor Russell had announced a final decision not to interfere following an appeal for clemency yesterday.

Mechanical Harvester Demonstrated on Cotton

CHICAGO, April 8.—(AP)—A mechanical harvester with revolving cogs which picks cotton as the machine passes over the stalks was demonstrated yesterday by George R. Meyercord, its inventor, before members of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, of which he is a past president.

Meyercord said the machine would do the work of 60 men, but would not displace labor because it would lower the cost of raising cotton and thereby increase its consumption. He added he had been experimenting with the machine for six years.

LILY WHITES NAME HAGER DELEGATE

Action Taken Over Negroes' Warning That Party Will Be Weakened

Lily white republicans of the fifth district Friday forced election of District Attorney Clint W. Hager as a delegate to the Chicago convention against the warning of negro leaders that failure of the district to send a negro will weaken the party in tsates where the negro vote is a factor.

In the first district, at Savannah, a faction opposed to the present state central committee held a convention Friday and elected J. J. Lemon, negro lawyer, as a delegate to Chicago, thus provoking a contest before the convention. A. S. Anderson, of Millen, previously had been selected as the first district's delegate at a convention held under supervision of the state central committee.

Hager was elected by a 9-to-7 vote over A. T. Walden negro lawyer, in a meeting of the fifth district in the county commission chambers at the Fulton county courthouse. On a motion by Ben J. Davis, negro editor and former republican national committeeman, the election was made unanimous. I. M. Stark was named alternate.

Davis Denies "Selling Out."

During the discussion preceding election of a fifth district delegate, Davis said that he has been accused of "selling out" his race, but that this charge is not true. Promises had been made that the negroes would be allowed eight of the 16 delegates, and he felt that these promises had not been kept, Davis said.

FASCISTS FAVOR CANCELING DEBTS

Renunciation of Reparations, End of Conferences Urged.

ROME, April 9.—(Saturday)—(AP)—The grand council of fascism came out flatly in favor of renunciation of reparations and cancellation of war debts in a resolution adopted at a session presided over by Premier Mussolini which lasted until early this morning.

The settlement of the reparations-war debt problem is the first necessary step toward the economic recovery of the world, the resolution declared.

The council, which is the government's official advisory body, took this position after a detailed discussion of the entire international situation.

A statement handed to the press at the conclusion of the meeting said the cause of the business depression was more political and moral than economic.

The statement contained five principal recommendations. These were:

1.—Settlement of the question of reparations and war debts.

2—Removal of the shackles on international trade.

3—Solution of the economic difficulties of the Danubian and Balkan countries.

4—Revision of the peace treaties.

5—An end to too frequent international conferences.

Something must be done to restore international commerce before a condition of "total anaemia" has been reached in the trade of all countries, the council's statement said.

The communique did not go into the details of any of the recommendations. In reference to the Danubian question, concerning which Italy, Germany, France and Great Britain failed to reach an agreement at the conference in London this week, it was merely pointed out that 70,000,000 people reside in the countries affected.

The peace treaties "carry in themselves the causes of inquietude and of a new war," the council declared. It recommended that these treaties be revised through the League of Nations.

Too frequent international conferences, the statement asserted, instill false hopes in the people which are "followed by always graver disillusions."

Agitator Insures Free Speech By Shackling Self to Lamp Post

NEW YORK, April 8.—(UP)—A sandy-haired gentleman, hatless, but garbed in a rubber coat, stood at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Forty-second street late today and extracted from some mysterious recess in his garments a stout chain, with which he bound himself to a lamp post.

He padlocked the ends of the chain where they met over his thin middle, and threw the key down a convenient manhole. Thus equipped to withstand the assault of police, he proceeded to harangue the throng.

"The gov'ment and the working man," he said. "The gov'ment and taxes, my friends. Taxes and gov'ment and workers . . . taxes . . . my friends . . . and the working man . . ." and so forth.

Thousands stopped, jammed the steps of the adjacent public library, blocked traffic, and caused the appearance of six policemen. The police surrounded him and debated over some easy method of removing him.

It was suggested (a) that signs reading "Men at Work" be placed around him, while workers dug a trench beneath him, or (b) that the lamp post be uprooted and both gentleman and lamp post be carted to the station or (c) that all available locksmiths be fetched to try their keys on the padlock.

Finally, after half an hour of debate, one of the brighter policemen rushed into the public library and emerged with the janitor's cold chisel and hammer, with which the shackles were broken.

At the police station, the insistent orator said his name was Peter Schmitz, and that he was an inventor.

AGENCY'S FUNDS CUT TO $1,000,000 FROM $1,880,000

Supporters Lose by Three Ballots in Attempt To Boost Allotment Back to $1,380,000 and Then Beat Vinson Resolution.

GRAIN DEAL SOUGHT IN GERMAN MARKET

Bitterness Marks Debate Over Officials' Salaries Prior to Vote on Appropriations for Board.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Belabored and eulogized for more than three hours, the farm board today emerged from the house with an allowance of $1,000,000 for its work next year and an overwhelming expression against its abolition.

Its supporters lost by only three votes an attempt to appropriate $1,380,000 for it and then on a standing vote defeated, 152 to 23, a move to end the board's life at the close of the present fiscal year and have the agriculture department liquidate its affairs.

Meanwhile the board was dickering with Germany for the sale of 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels of its stabilization wheat. The success of its efforts depended upon the arrangement of credits.

The vehicle of today's debate was the abolition resolution offered by Representative Vinson, a Georgia farmer. Representative Buchanan, democrat, Texas, led the effort to increase the board's operating funds. The appropriations committee had recommended $1,000,000, slicing $880,000 off the budget bureau's figures.

Chairman Byrns, of the appropriations committee, and Chairman Woodrum, of the subcommittee that drafted the bill, appealed for economy and insisted the board would not need more than $1,000,000. The house refused, 123 to 120, to grant an increase.

Before the board's appropriation had been approved, however, the chairman of the agriculture committee—Representative Jones, democrat, Texas—attempted to meet criticism of salaries paid officers of co-operatives by stipulating that neither the board nor the Reconstruction Finance Corporation should make loans to groups which pay employes more than $20,000 a year in salary and bonus. His amendment was ruled out of order.

Representative Summers, democrat, Washington, also tried to remove a limitation of $8,500 on all salaries to board employes except members and the general counsel. His motion was defeated. As the bill now stands, the general counsel, Stanley F. Reed, must take a reduction from $20,000 to $12,000 annually.

Before it voted down Vinson's amendment, the house heard him arraign the board for having contributed to the depressed price of cotton and wheat.

Cotton Down.

When the farm board went to work in 1929 cotton was selling for 18 1-2 cents a pound," he said. "Now it brings 3 cents."

Turning to salaries paid officials of co-operatives, he referred to E. F. Creekmore, of the American Cotton

Atlanta Music Club Will Close Annual Membership Drive Today

Today is the last opportunity for enrollment in the Atlanta Music Club.

The annual one-week membership campaign ends this afternoon at 5 o'clock, after which time the lists of the organization will be closed for another year.

Civic and social organizations throughout the city have assisted the club leaders in the promotion of the campaign, it is stated, with the result that registration of new members has been heavy, and it is expected that the last day's rush will more than double the present registration.

Through the civic music plan great artists and organizations of the musical world are made available without financial risk. Prepaid membership dues finance the undertaking.

Artists for next season's concert series will be chosen immediately after the closing of the membership lists this afternoon, Mrs. Walter H. Bedard, president of the club, stated Friday, and will be announced Sunday.

The exact accounting of the membership and dues being first necessary, artists are engaged only after the actual funds are in hand. Besides the return of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, with Eugene Ormandy conducting, which is in compliance with general request, the series will include a preferred pianist, violinist, and singer of outstanding reputation. These will be chosen as far as possible from a consensus of requests from the membership.

DECREASE IS SHOWN IN HOARDED MONEY

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—A decrease of $146,230,826 in money in circulation during March, indicating a consequent decrease in hoarding, was shown today in the treasury's monthly circulation statement.

On March 31, there was in circulation $5,459,311,804, which gave a per capita circulation of $43.75, a drop of $1.18 for the month. Total money in the country at the end of Marc amounted to $9,265,361,820, a decrease of $65,000,000 from February 29.

Of the total money, $4,388,517,358 was in gold, an increase of approximately $35,000,000 since February 29. Of the total, the treasury held $3,453,205,796, but of this amount $1,591,798,479 was held against gold and silver certificates, $156,039,088 against United States notes and treasury notes and $1,631,369,722 held for federal reserve banks and agents.

Outside the treasury there was $935,311,562 in gold, of which $531,322,809 was held by federal reserve banks and agents and $403,988,753 was in circulation.

The per capita circulation was $6.55 greater than a year ago while the total circulation showed an increase of $852,000,000 as compared with March 31, 1931. The total money in the country also was greater than the amount held a year ago when it was $8,598,058,403.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR OBSERVANCE OF "HOSPITAL DAY"

Plans for this city's observance of National Hospital Day were discussed at a meeting at Georgia Baptist hospital Friday night of executives and nurses of various Atlanta infirmaries, at which the Atlanta Hospital Association was organized. The day will be celebrated nationally May 12, it was announced by John B. Franklin, superintendent of Grady hospital, who is Georgia chairman of the national committee.

A committee composed of George R. Burt, business manager of Piedmont hospital; Miss Jessie Candlish, of Henrietta Egleston Memorial; Miss Bessie Feebeck, Grady superintendent of nurses, and W. D. Barker, superintendent of Georgia Baptist, was formed. Mr. Barker will serve as publicity chairman, while the three others will formulate a constitution and by-laws, to be approved at a meeting to be held soon at Piedmont hospital.

In addition to perfecting plans for Atlanta's participation in National Hospital Day, the Atlanta Hospital Association will have as its objective the education of the public in the advantages of hospitalization, Mr. Barker said.

PANICKY CHILE IS PUT UNDER MARTIAL RULE

Montero Uses Mailed Fist To Suppress Activities of Political Foes.

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 8.—(UP) President Juan Esteban Montero called upon the armed forces of Chile tonight to maintain order under a decree of martial law, authorized the arrest of prominent political figures on charges of subversive activities, and promised that the new government would do all in its power to solve the nation's grave financial and economic problems.

The public remained restless but comparatively calm in the face of a panicky situation caused by a run for silver on the central bank. The police department ordered the arrest of all persons discovered speculating in silver, and heavy military guards continued on duty at strategic points.

The arrest of Carlos Davila, former ambassador to Washington; Merine Benitez, former undersecretary of aviation under the deposed Ibanez regime, and Alejandro Lazo, former cabinet minister, was ordered. Davila was arrested several months ago during a revolutionary flurry, but later released.

TENNESSEE BOND PLAN REPORTED COMPLETED

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Essential points for financing a $9,000,000 Tennessee highway note issue have been worked out by a group of New York bankers and state officials, financiers here said yesterday, and plans probably will be announced next week.

The note issue matures April 29 and the bankers said it is possible that the refunding program may contemplate a longer term issue of bonds than originally proposed.

PHILIPPINE OFFICIALS GIVEN SALARY CUTS

MANILA, April 8.—(AP)—Salary cuts of from 2 to 10 per cent for all employes of the Philippine government were ordered today in an executive decree issued by Governor General Theodore Roosevelt.

The slash, imposed in an effort to help meet an estimated deficit of $8,500,000 for the current year, will effect 25,000 persons. The decrease is effective May 1.

THE CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING FI. FAS. IN TODAY'S EDITION

The Constitution this morning is carrying the first installment of 1932 fi. fas. as authorized by council and approved by Mayor James L. Key April 4.

City Attorney James L. Mayson gave the purchasing committee of council an opinion Friday afternoon to the effect that no purchase order is needed inasmuch as council and the mayor, the supreme authority in the city government, have ordered the placing of the advertising.

He held that if council on April 4 instructed J. Ben Daniel, city marshal, that the fi. fas. should be delivered to The Constitution for publication, and if there was time for The Constitution to comply with the law requiring publication four times within the current month, that Daniel's effort to contract with The Journal of Labor for such publication was illegal. He contended that Daniel could not ignore council in placing the fi. fas., but would be forced to comply with its order in the matter.

Receiver Sought.

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Supreme Court Justice Dodd today studied a demand for a receiver for the assets of the National Bellas Hess Company, Inc., ranked as the third largest mail order house in the country. A group of preferred stockholders making the demand charged the directors have misrepresented the financial status of the company and dissipated assets.

Parade of 1,000 Veterans Demands Bonus Payment

Congressional Leaders Accept Petitions Said To Bear Signatures of Over 2,000,000 Service Men.

BY CHARLES M. McCANN.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(UP)—A thousand World War veterans, members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion, opened the fight for full cash payment of the soldiers' bonus today with a colorful parade on the capitol.

To a group of bareheaded congressional leaders, acutely conscious of the voting power of 4,000,000-odd veterans, the marchers presented petitions which they said contained 2,240,030 signatures asking for immediate payment of $2,200,000,000 in bonus certificates.

The house ways and means committee will open public hearings Monday on bills providing for payment either by a special currency issue backed by unused gold held by the government or by federal reserve currency, backed by government bonds.

Today's reception of their parade was to the veterans a happy augury for their fight, bound to be a hard one if for no other reason because of the opposition of President Hoover and the higher officers of the Legion.

With their blaring khaki uniformed band and their gaily-glad drum corps, headed by platoons bearing 40 American flags and banners of 46 veterans' posts, the marchers paraded up Capitol Hill from their assembling spot at the Peace monument a quarter of a mile around the other side of the great white building.

A few months ago 1,500 hunger marchers took the same route, hemmed in by policemen with drawn clubs, faced at the capitol steps by tear gas pistols and ugly looking riot guns, refused entrance to the capitol or an official reception.

There were but a handful of friendly policemen with the veterans, and in the cold east wind, under leaden skies, half a dozen elderly congressmen waited for nearly half an hour for the paraders, attempting to head off attacks of sniffles with their handkerchiefs.

Assistant Senate Leader Charles L. McNary, republican, Oregon; Senator Smith W. Brookhart, republican, Iowa; House Leader Henry T. Rainey, democrat, Illinois; Republican Leader Bertrand Snell, New York, and Representatives Wright Patman, democrat, Texas, and John E. Rankin, democrat, Mississippi, were among those in the waiting group.

Veterans' posts from Washington, Maryland, Pennsylvania and West Virginia were represented, and many Legion men, defiant of their leaders, were present.

Paul C. Wolman, past commander-in-chief of the V. F. W., opened proceedings, to the grinding of sound news cameras, by formally presenting to congress packages of bonus petitions, hundreds of them, each sealed with a sheet of paper demanding in big type: "Pay the Bonus and Avoid the Dole."

13,902 GEORGIANS SIGN BONUS PAPER

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Thirteen thousand nine hundred and two residents of Georgia signed the giant soldiers' bonus petition which was presented to congress today by Veterans of Foreign Wars. Senator McNary, of Oregon, assistant majority leader of the senate, and House Majority Leader Rainey received the petition on the east steps of the capitol.

FLORIDA LEGION BACKS STEVENS, ASKS REPEAL

MIAMI, Fla., April 8.—(AP)—The Florida department, American Legion, in convention here, today stood squarely behind National Commander Henry L. Stevens Jr. in his opposition to the proposed soldiers' bonus bill and advocated repeal of the national prohibition law.

Both stands were taken by adoption of resolutions, the first by a unanimous vote.

The bonus resolution declared the belief of Florida's Legionnaires that no more adjusted compensation should be asked from the federal government now. It provided that congress should be apprised of the action, declaring that Stevens, in a recent communication opposing the bonus bill, was carrying out the mandate of the Detroit convention of the national body.

Th action declaring for repeal of the prohibition law likewise was cited as being in furtherance of the attitude taken by the Legion at Detroit.

Before the resolutions were brought before the delegates the national commander delivered a ringing plea to his comrades and to assembled delegates to auxiliary conventions for a more adequate national defense, a continued fight against unemployment and a move to bring into circulation some of the $28,000,000,000 which he said now is being hoarded in small savings accounts throughout the country.

Sign Language Testimony Costs Negro Driver $25

Jeff Braswell, negro, probably is wondering just what it was the "star witness" said to the judge. Jeff, it seems, found himself in a little jam with the law and he faced Recorder John L. Cone Friday afternoon on a charge of reckless driving. And W. L. Cason, another negro, was the only witness. Jeff seemed confident as he pleaded his innocence. He assured Judge Cone that the "star witness" had seen it all; only he couldn't talk because he was deaf and dumb.

"That so?" queried the judge, brightening. Then he turned on Cason, standing virtuously in the role of "star witness," and began making rapid hieroglyphics with his judicial fingers. Presently the judge ceased and the "star witness" began. Jeff's eyes grew wider and rounder.

"Twenty-five and costs," decided the recorder, when the "star witness" had marked a period to the end of his testimony.

Henry L. Bowden, Atlanta Youth, Named Emory Student Body Head

Henry L. Bowden, of Atlanta, a freshman in the Emory law school, was elected president of the Emory University student body in the annual elections Friday by a vote of 485 to 348 over Harry Lange, of Savannah.

Bowden has been at Emory four years, having entered the law school last summer. He is a graduate of Boys' High school. At Emory he is editor of the Emory Wheel, president of the honor council, and a member of several honor societies, including D. V. S., senior honor society, and Omicron Delta Kappa. He is a Phi Delta Theta.

Lange, the defeated candidate for the presidency, is a sophomore medical student, and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Bowden was a candidate of the liberal party, whose ticket won a landslide victory over the candidates of the rival party, the democrats. The liberals won every one of the 59 offices, except editor of the Wheel, which has not been decided.

For this editorship, James May, democrat, and Welch Jordan, liberal, are in a virtual tie. After several hours of checking ballots, election officials decided to postpone decision until this morning. There are five ballots which are questionable, and must be checked with the university registrar. The count Friday night was estimated as closely as possible at 417 votes for Jordan and 416 for May. May is a Pi Kappa Alpha and Jordan is a Chi Phi. Both men will be seniors next year, and are outstanding on the campus.

Robert Candler, of Atlanta, a Kappa Alpha, was elected editor of the Campus, Emory's year-book, by a plurality of 47 votes over Jake Ward. Ben Willis, of Quincy, Fla., was named associate editor of the Campus. Russell Rogers, of Moultrie, Ga., was unopposed for associate editor of the Wheel. Jesse Grantham, of Miami, Fla., an A. T. O., was named editor of the Phoenix, literary magazine, and Frank Garrett, of Toccoa, Ga., was named associate editor. The democrats did not nominate candidates for the Phoenix editorships, having the abolition of the Phoenix as one of the main planks in their party platform.

Robert E. Vogel, of Atlanta, a member of the Campus Club, was elected vice president of the university student body, running on the same ticket with Henry Bowden. The defeated candidate was Edgar Stephens, of Columbus. The plurality was 105 votes.

The complete list of winners of the minor offices in the Emory elections will be published in Sunday's Constitution.

Partners Shot to Death Within 2-Hour Period

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—(AP)—An hour and a half after Lee Meistrell, 42, his former business partner, has found slain in a business office vault at Boonville, Mo., William W. Kingsbury, 55, real estate man and former bank president of Boonville, shot and killed himself in Valhalla cemetery here today.

The body of Meistrell, shot three times in the head and chest, was found in the vault of his office, after police at Boonville drilled a hole through the vault door.

Kingsbury and Meistrell had been partners for 15 years in banking, loan and real estate activities.

AIMEE NEGOTIATES WITH EVANGELIST FOR TEMPLE SALE

LOS ANGELES, April 8.—(AP)—The Los Angeles Times says Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton is negotiating for the sale of Angelus Temple to Paul Rader, an evangelist, with the understanding she will not appear on a religious platform in Los Angeles for two years after the deal is closed.

The newspaper says Mrs. Hutton plans a trip around the world with her husband, David Hutton, if the deal is consummated.

The property includes, in addition to the widely known temple, which Mrs. Hutton founded, a Bible school, radio station and palatial parsonage. The Times says the down payment is to be approximately $50,000.

FUNERAL RITES TODAY FOR LEON WALKER, 62

Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock this morning at Spring Hill for Leon Walker, 62, formerly one of the best known citizens of Atlanta, who died Thursday afternoon of an apoplectic stroke at this home in Palatka, Fla. Dr. Wallace Rogers, pastor of the Glenn Memorial Methist church, will officiate at the rites, and burial will be in West View cemetery.

The following well-known Atlantans will serve as pallbearers: Major R. J. Guinn, C. J. Lewis, Henry B. Troutman, Sam DuBose, O. L. Jernigan and John Malone.

Mr. Walker was formerly credit manager and vice president of Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company, and widely known in social circles here. He resigned his position with the company and removed to Palatka seven years ago to enter the automobile business.

Rate Lowered.

BERLIN, April 8.—(AP)—The reichsbank lowered its discount rate today from 6 per cent to 5 1-2 per cent. The Lombard rate was lowered from 7 per cent to 6 1-2 per cent, both effective tomorrow.

FRANK M. BOSTON LAID TO LAST REST

The funeral of Frank M. Boston, well-known rail official, who died Thursday at a private hospital after an illness of one week, was held Friday afternoon at Spring Hill. Dr. Richard Orme Flinn officiated, and burial was in West View cemetery.

The following acted as pallbearers: Edgar A. Neely, Judge Nash R. Broyles, Arnold Broyles, J. W. Setze, John A. Manget and Hugh C. Couch. Mr. Boston, who was 63 years old, has been associated with the Southern railroad for more than 20 years. He was a native of Marietta, and for many years practiced law with the old firm of Smith, Hammond & Smith. He was connected with the real estate department of the Southern at the time of his death. His residence was at 44 Peachtree place, N. W.

EGAN G. SKINNER DIES IN PHYSICIAN'S OFFICE

Widely Known Transfer and Storage Executive Suffers Heart Attack.

Stricken suddenly in the downtown office of his physician, whom he had visited for a consultation, Egan G. Skinner, well known Atlanta businessman, died of a heart attack early Friday afternoon.

Mr. Skinner, who was president of the Skinner Brothers Transfer & Storage Co., had been in ill health for several months, but had remained actively engaged in business. He was one of the best known storage and transfer executives in the city, having been in that field here for more than 20 years.

A native of Charleston, S. C., Mr. Skinner was 48 years of age. He removed to Atlanta 23 years ago, and almost immediately organized a transfer and storage company which bore his name. He resided at 1157 Briarcliff road, N. E.

Surviving Mr. Skinner are his wife, one son, Egan G. Skinner Jr.; two daughters, Elizabeth and Josephine Skinner; a brother, A. E. Skinner, of Cuthbert, Ga.; and two sisters, Mrs. Sam Veronee and Mrs. Leon Culler, both of Charleston, S. C.

Brief funeral services will be held at the residence at 10 o'clock this morning, conducted by the Rev. Dr. John Brandon Peters, pastor of Druid Hills Methodist church. At 9 o'clock tonight the body will be taken to Whitehall, S. C., where services will be conducted at the old Skinner home, and interment will follow in the family lot. Sam R. Greenberg & Co. are in charge of Atlanta services.

Harrassed Levine Is Thrice Arraigned

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—It was just one tilt with the law after another for Charles A. Levine today.

He appeared in Tombs court, heard a grand larceny charge dismissed, was rearrested and arraigned, held in $10,000 bail and then arrested and arraigned again and held in $1,000 bail on a new charge.

JAMES RIORDAN DIES IN NEW YORK HOTEL

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—James Riordan, for the past 25 years one of the best-known floor brokers on the New York Cotton Exchange, died today at the Hotel Century. He was 63 years old.

Known far and wide in New York cotton circles as an especially able broker, "Jimmy" Riordan was entrusted with the orders of some of the biggest operators who made cotton market history in the early years of the century.

He was the favorite broker of the late E. G. Scales in the gigantic bull campaign engineered by that operator in 1909-11. It is related that Scales selected Riordan to execute his huge buying and selling orders because of his keen judgment of the market and his general nimbleness in the cotton ring. He also handled the orders of many of the largest mill interests.

He joined the cotton exchange in 1892.

Forward Georgia Movement Is Making Great Progress, Say Leaders

PURCHASE GEORGIA PRODUCTS URGED BY CIVIC LEADERS

BY VICTOR BARRON.

The Forward Georgia movement, which was sponsored here in February under leadership of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of reviving the energy of farmers, business leaders, municipal authorities and others to boost Georgia's agricultural products and pave the way for a ready market for the bountiful crops, is making material progress, according to officials behind the movement.

Roy LeCraw, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Forward Georgia movement, declared Friday night that the movement is meeting with gratifying results from all sections in the state.

"There is between $60,000,000 and $70,000,000 worth of strictly agricultural products—not including the major crops—leaving the state annually that could be kept at 'home' if all Georgians should buy Georgia products, insist on such commodities from their merchants.

"As a matter of fact, this is only a start. Within a few years the sum of money that could remain within our borders would be tremendously greater than any calculation yet made.

Wonderful Opportunities.

"Already Georgia's manufactured products are valued at approximately $700,000,000 annually, and there is no reason why Georgia's farm products, including the major crops, such as cotton, corn, tobacco, fruits, potatoes, peanuts and other important commodities, should not bring the state as much as the manufactured products.

"There is a wonderful opportunity for poultrymen, live stock growers and dairymen in Georgia, and once the movement sinks deep into the hearts of Georgians, it will bring permanent prosperity and independence to not only all farmers but our business establishments."

According to Press Huddleson, who is making trips to all sections of the state as field representative for the Forward Georgia Movement, the plan to rehabilitate the rural sections of Georgia is being wholeheartedly supported by every community.

United Support.

"Municipal authorities, civic leaders, bankers, merchants and manufacturers throughout the state are loud in their praise of Atlanta for taking the leadership in the movement, feeling that the largest city in the state is better equipped to carry their message into every community.

"We have organized committees in many cities and towns in the state and assisted in organizing chambers of commerce and other civic bodies to aid in the movement."

Mr. LeCraw pointed out that there are more than 50,000 idle farms in the state and that one of the main goals in the movement is to relieve the unemployment situation by aiding long experienced and energetic farmers to return to the farms, which they were forced to abandon during the depression, and others who were attracted to the cities during the prolonged prosperity period.

He declared that the committee already has been successful in locating scores of farmers on good fertile farms and in some instances have financed them as much as possible under present conditions, granting them a long period to repay their loans.

Seven Main Objects.

LeCraw said that the committee is working along seven major lines and that the newspapers are to be congratulated for the united co-operation they have rendered the movement. The seven main objects of the movement follow:

1—Organization of chambers of commerce, boards of trade, etc.
2—Economy in city, county and state governments.
3—Relief of unemployment.
4—City and county improvements.
5—Advocating products of Georgia by Georgians.
6—Back-to-the-farm movement, becoming self sustaining, and rehabilitating the 50,000 idle farms.
7—Community co-operation.

Mr. Huddleston already has visited Cordele, Tifton, Statesboro, Vidalia, Hawkinsville, Center, Rome, Jackson, Athens, Tallapoosa and other points, being accompanied by Mr. LeCraw and others from Atlanta on many trips.

"We have opened the eyes of Georgia and with continued co-operation and hard work on the part of all, Georgia will reap a golden reward in due time," LeCraw added.

Advises Motorists

Wiley L. Moore, president of the Wofford Oil Company, Woco-Pep and Tiolene distributors in this territory, Saturday issued a statement warning motor car owners to check up on lubrication as the spring season gets under way. Mr. Moore, pioneer oil executive and one of Atlanta's outstanding business leaders, declares that proper car lubrication at this particular time will save motorists costly repair bills.

ENVELOPE FIRM HIGHLY PRAISED FOR FINE WORK

Atlanta Concern, With Daily Capacity of 1,000,000, Has Received Large Utility Contract.

The Atlanta Envelope Company, one of the largest and oldest concerns in the south of its kind, has been awarded the contract to supply all envelopes for the coming year for a large group of public utility companies throughout the south.

Recently this firm, of which S. Guthman, is president, and located at 505-11 Stewart avenue, received the following letter from one of the large seed companies in Florida:

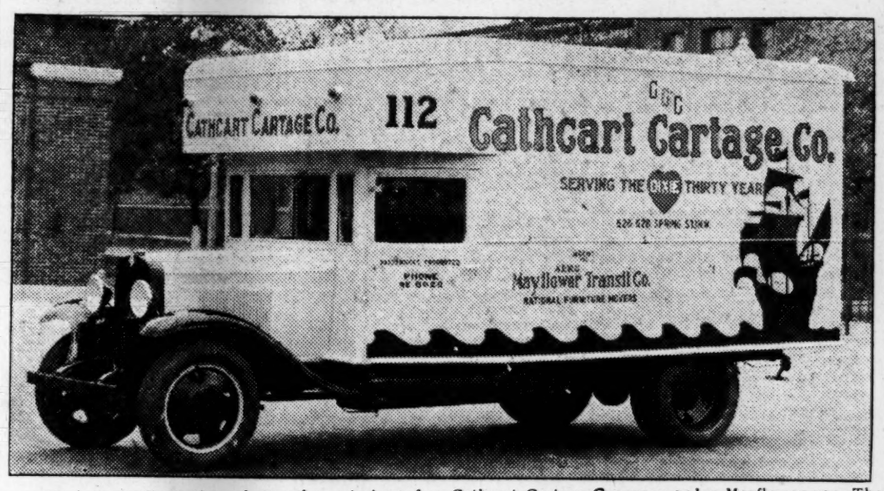

"We are just going to say a word, which will be of praise, for the fine piece of work you did in making our envelopes.

"We could not have wanted them better."

"We certainly appreciate this letter," commented Mr. Guthman, who has been president of the concern since the day of its founding, more than 39 years ago, and which now has a capacity of nearly 1,000,000 envelopes daily. "As businessmen well know," Mr. Guthman added, "It's not often that customers take time to let it be known, however, much they may like a product or service, so when they do, it makes us all feel all the better."

Whether or not customers do take time to write about it, they seem to appreciate the kind of work that this Atlanta manufacturer of commercial envelopes does. Founded back in 1893, the company has now grown to the point where they are able to produce nearly a million envelopes a day.

Cathcart Cartage Serves Nation in Moving

The above illustration shows the exterior of a Cathcart Cartage Company and a Mayflower van. The floors are of hard maple and groove. When the doors are closed the interior is weather-proof and as nearly dust-proof as possible to make any van. Goods can be moved by Mayflower from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Ore., with safety. All vans have heavily padded walls and the furniture is wrapped in heavy quilted pads as it is placed in the van. It is not necessary to wrap furniture in paper. The large, soft furniture pads protect the goods from rubbing or marring in any way. The vans are periodically disinfected and kept sterile and spotlessly clean at all times.

Cathcart Points Out Speed, Safety Via Mayflower Vans

From Atlanta to Cincinnati in a day and night!

That is the remarkable speed which America's greatest long distance motor moving system—the Aero Mayflower Transit Company—serves the north, south, east or west, according to T. F. Cathcart, president of the Cathcart Cartage Company, agents in Atlanta and this territory for the Aero Mayflower.

Mr. Cathcart, who is assisted in the operation of his company by his son—T. F. Cathcart Jr.—has just cause to feel proud of his slogan—"Serving the heart of Dixie for 30 years."

He is the pioneer moving van executive of this community. Last winter he organized his present company, which is located in a commodious fireproof concrete building at 626-28 Spring street, N. W. The company operates a large fleet of the most modern moving vans obtainable. They are operated by polite, experienced and bonded drivers, who are thoroughly familiar with packing and unpacking.

1,000 Cubic Feet Capacity.

The Aero Mayflower vans have a 1,000 cubic feet capacity and easily can move to any part of the country the contents of a six and eight-room residence, while the smaller vans used locally and for short hauls in this immediate section have a 600 cubic feet capacity, or sufficient size to adequately provide for the contents of an average size modern apartment, or home.

Mr. Cathcart is in receipt of numerous letters of high praise from prominent businessmen throughout the country, congratulating his company for the efficient manner in which they have found moving by motor, at a reasonable cost.

Mr. Cathcart mentioned one particular instance in which the headquarters of a large firm were moved from Harrison, N. J., to Cleveland, which required 11 loads of office furniture and 51 loads of household goods. Another outstanding haul was 20 loads from Kansas City to Chicago, the move being completed within 24 hours.

The Aero Mayflower Transit Company is a national organization, owning many vans and operating many branch offices, service stations and routing depots, with warehouse agents in principal cities throughout the United States.

Modern Device for Safety.

Engineers of the organization have incorporated in the vans every modern device for safe, rapid, economical moving of furniture. The bodies for the vans are built in Mayflower's own body building plant, with home offices located at Indianapolis, Ind. The chassis are the most modern, all having six wheels, oversize balloon tires, and controlled speed. The drivers are expert furniture handlers and are courteous in the home as well as on the road. The trucks average 300 miles a day, making a trip from Atlanta to Cincinnati within 24 hours.

From the moment Mr. Cathcart takes a contract for moving and his drivers and packers arrive at the home or office, his firm assumes responsibility for the equipment. They leave the old home and are delivered to the point of destination by the same drivers.

Pointers on Packing.

Mr. Cathcart pointed out that to prepare household goods for long distance moving via Mayflower vans, do just as you would for local moving. Pack dishes and kitchen utensils in barrels and boxes. Barrels or boxes can be handled with less jolting and less chance of breaking. All valuable and fragile small articles, pictures and bric-a-brac, should be put into containers so they can be handled quickly and safely by the moving men.

All loads carried in Mayflower vans are insured against loss or damage by fire, collision, overturning of truck, windstorm or flood. There is no charge for this insurance on loads of household furniture up to a valuation of $10,000, according to Mr. Cathcart.

Arcade Restaurant Invites Family To Dinner

"Satisfied customers" is the power behind the throne for the continued growth and success of the Arcade restaurant, one of the oldest and largest establishments serving the public.

The Arcade was founded about 30 years ago, and for years was located on Peachtree street—near Five Points—but three years ago officials moved the business to more commodious quarters, installing the most modern equipment known to the restaurant business at 110 Forsyth street, N. W.

"A satisfied customer is the best advertisement, and consequently we do our best to please customers by buying the very best meats and vegetables that the market offers, and preparing them in such manner as to be appetizing and heauthful," declared an official of the firm.

"We are specializing in serving two of the choicest dinners for Sunday that we can prepare. The prices are most reasonable and the variety on our menu will please any appetite. We start serving dinner on Sunday at 11:30 and continue through 8:30 in the evening.

"Should our prepared dinner not prove to the liking of a customer, they can order anything desired from our large menu. There is a steady growing tendency on the part of families to eat their Sunday dinners at restaurants and hotels, thus having the entire Sabbath for pleasures, attending Sunday school and church, without being bothered with household duties."

Arcade officials invite the entire family to have Sunday dinner with them, as well as making it their place for breakfast, lunch and dinner throughout the week.

INSURANCE IN FORCE RECORDS HUGE INCREASE

Presidents' Association Figures Show Total In Force At End of Year $109,000,000,000.

According to figures of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents the total new life insurance produced, including revivals, increases and dividend additions, during 1931 for all United States legal reserve companies approximated $16,500,000,000. The total life insurance in force in all United States companies has reached $109,000,000,000.

A tremendous development of the investment type of life insurance was predicted for the next five years by Dr. Samuel N. Stevens, professor of psychology at Northwestern University, in Chicago recently. He was the principal speaker at a special dinner meeting of the Chicago chapter, Chartered Life Underwriters, which was also attended by many underwriters.

"With increasing speed the world is coming to recognize the fact that life insurance is the hero of the late unpleasantness, for unquestionably life insurance averted a panic, declares one of the country's leading insurance authorities.

"Depression we had and still have with us, but never in the dark days since the world's great bull market broke have we had a panic. Conditions never have been comparable to the wild days of '93. The big reason is that men have been able to turn to life insurance for cash.

"There was one great stream that did not stop flowing. There was one spring that did not go dry. One great business continued to write checks in the good old-fashioned way. What would have happened had there been no life insurance, had men desperate for cash been forced to desperate measure, is best left to the imagination.

"Life insurance stayed and paid, and paid, and paid, paid according to the contracts, dollar for dollar, when and as due. So there was no panic. Write it large on the walls of history, oh you historians. Let it never be forgotten what life insurance did to help keep a sick world from the delirium of panic."

SPRING BRINGS LARGE BUSINESS TO PURA WATER

Pioneer Concern, Handles Between 2,500 and 3,000 Pounds of Ice Daily in Icing of Coolers.

The first balmy spring days have ushered in a large flow of business for the Pura Water Company, according to Mrs. Laura A. Freeman, widow of the late W. S. Freeman, of West Point, Ga., and manager of this concern, which was founded 27 years ago.

Mrs. Freeman, who succeeded in management of the pioneer water establishment the late J. E. Rasbury, is ably assisted by Mrs. J. A. Rasbury and Mrs. C. B. Palmer, firmly believes that business conditions will show definite signs of improvement before end of summer.

"Of course, this is the season of the year when our business begins to pick up," she remarked Saturday, "but our sales indicate that the tide has turned. We are serving more than 400 homes and offices daily and as weather becomes warmer our volume will increase."

The Pura Water Company specializes in icing the cooler in offices and homes. She estimates that they handle approximately 2,500 to 3,000 pounds of ice daily, with several large trucks, operated by efficient men, operating throughout the day to satisfy the demand. The company also furnishes water for electric coolers.

The firm's headquarters are located at 100 Piedmont avenue, S. E. The concern handles four different kinds of water and furnishes equipment free of charge for their customers. Their spring, located on Ormewood avenue, is considered one of the finest in the country. The company serves as distributors of the Pura Water, known as the "100 per cent pure triple distilled water," High Rock Spring lithia water and Tate Spring water.

The distilled water is also used for battery, chemical and other purposes other than for drinking. On request the company will furnish the formula of High Rock water, which includes silica, iron bicarbonate, alumina, calcium bicarbonate, lithium bicarbonate, potash carbonate, soda carbonate, sodium chloride and phosphoric acid (trace), bromides and iodides (none) and organic matter (none).

735 NEW MEMBERS SIGNED IN 'Y' DRIVE

Campaign Termed Great Success; "Mopping Up" Squad To Seek 196 More

Characterized by leaders as an overwhelming success, the Atlanta Y. M. C. A.'s drive to increase its membership to 3,000 came to a close Friday night with workers reporting 735 new members.

The goal of the campaign was 900 new members, and General Chairman Charles Marshall announced that the work of a "mopping-up" squad next week will result in signing up the remaining 196 memberships necessary to obtain the full campaign quota of 900.

The close of the campaign was marked by tremendous enthusiasm on the part of the 250 young businessmen and boys who were enrolled as membership workers. To these George Winship, general vice chairman, expressed the thanks of the Y. M. C. A. for all the efforts of those engaged in the campaign.

At the close of the race staged by 35 tiny automobiles on a miniature track in the "Y" gymnasium—each car representing a team—Captain John Oatley's team held a commanding lead with 80 new members and 2,089 miles to its credit. Captain George Gardner's team was second with 69 new members and 1,426 miles. Captain Floyd Field's team was third with 37 members and 862 miles, and Captain W. B. Roberts' team was fourth with 37 members and 852 miles.

Division D, headed by Joseph M. Tull, ran ahead of the other four divisions in the field with a grand total of 4,693 miles. Division E, the midget division, headed by Lawrence Willet, was second with 3,666 miles. Division C, headed by Lawrence McCullough, ran a close third with 3,634 miles; Division B, headed by C. F. Stone, was fourth with 3,556 miles, and Division A, headed by Fred J. Cooledge Jr., was fifth with 2,853 miles.

APARTMENTS ENGAGE TWO FAMOUS CHEFS

George Kamph, a native of Nurenberg, Barvaria, and Fritz Gierhake, a native of Hanover, Prussia, have been brought to Atlanta by Asa G. Candler to operate the cuisine and dining room at the 1050 Ponce de Leon apartment-hotel.

Mr. Kamph served his apprenticeship at the Grand hotel at Nurenberg. He was later connected with such famous places as the Suvretta House at St. Moritz, Switzerland; Hotel Eggers at Gothenburg, Sweden; the Grand hotel at Stockholm, the Palace hotel at San Francisco, Royal Hawaiian hotel at Honolulu, and the Olympic hotel at Seattle.

Mr. Gierhake served his apprenticeship at the Hotel Addon in Berlin. Later he was with the Hotel de Russe in Nice, Hotel Nationalle at Lucerne, Switzerland; Cafe de Paris at Monte Carlo, Hotel Victoria at Mentone, France; Hotel Shephard at Cairo, Egypt; Prince George hotel at New York city, the Fleetwood and the Biltmore at Miami Beach, the Broadmore and the Antlers at Colorado Springs, Kalbs at New Orleans, Royal Hawaiian hotel at Honolulu, Meadow Brook Country Club at Buffalo, Luchow's restaurant at New York city, and Harvey's restaurant at Chicago.

The management of the hotel has arranged to serve special bridge luncheons and bridge teas under the supervision of Mr. Kamph and Mr. Gierhake, and their catering services can be obtained for any form of entertainment.

RADIO-DRIVEN CAR TO THREAD TRAFFIC

Driven by radio alone, a driverless automobile twice today will thread its way through Peachtree traffic during busy hours.

The car, a Graham-Paige, furnished by Chambers-Kirby, Inc., will be directed by J. J. Lynch in another Graham-Paige running behind it. The car in front will have no driver and Mr. Lynch at some distance behind will steer, stop and start it with an electric key and radio. All traffic regulations will be observed. An escort of two city policemen will accompany the car in front.

The first exhibition will occur at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Starting at Peachtree and Baker streets the radio-driven car will proceed on Peachtree and Whitehall as far as Spring street. At 2:30 o'clock the car will leave Whitehall and Spring and proceed through Spring street to Fourteenth, thence to Peachtree and out Ponce de Leon avenue to Highland.

The car will be shown between trips all day Saturday at the Chambers-Kirby Graham-Paige agency, 399 Spring street, and at 4:30 in the afternoon there will be a standing demonstration at Sears, Roebuck & Co.'s plant at the ball park. Several students will be on hand to see the novelty.

Clear and Cooler Weather for City

Atlanta's skies will be clear today and the temperature somewhat cooler, C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist, said. A clear Saturday and a sunshiny Sunday and week-end is in view.

The rain which fell in Atlanta Friday was recorded as .15 of an inch, and had little effect on the temperature which ranged between 60 and 71 degrees. Today's mercury readings are slated to be 52 to about 70 degrees.

"LARGE NEGRO" SOUGHT IN ROBBERY, SHOOTING

Police Friday afternoon were investigating the robbery and shooting of Charles W. Baldwin, 24, of Lakewood avenue, a collector for the National Accident-Life Insurance Company, who was taken to Grady hospital for treatment shortly after noon after being shot in the foot. Baldwin told police he was robbed of $120 by his assailant, a large negro.

The robbery, Baldwin said, took place in a wooded section near Pryor road shortly after he had left his home. The robber, the collector said, accosted him in the woods and pointed a revolver at him. When he grappled with the gunman, Baldwin said, the latter shot him in the foot, took his money and a fountain pen, and fled.

County police Friday night said they had found a revolver in the woods near the scene where Baldwin said he had been robbed, and added that they were attempting to determine ownership of the weapon.

THE ROOSEVELT ADDRESS.

The address of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt Thursday night is a frank and statesmanlike discussion of the obligation of the federal government to aid in the effort to restore normalcy.

He rightly holds that the administration "has sought temporary relief from the top down rather than permanent relief from the bottom up," neglecting plans looking to restoration of the farmers' buying power, relief to the small banks and home owners and reconstruction of the tariff policy.

Pleading that the situation be viewed "not through partisan eyes for partisan purposes," Governor Roosevelt says "it is high time to admit with courage that we are in the midst of an emergency at least equal to that of war. Let us mobilize to meet it."

The government has spent billions of dollars for artificial stimulation, while measures aimed at correcting the causes of the depression have been sidetracked.

In the instance of the proposed but sidetracked federal home loan banks hundreds of thousands of families would have been relieved in a manner that would have had an immediate effect on conditions generally.

The more than 8,000 home building and loan associations in the country, with the assistance of the proposed banks, would have been able to amortize the loans of their customers, reducing payments to a point in keeping with present conditions, and thus permitting millions of dollars monthly to be diverted into commercial channels.

The plan offered gilt-edged security for the money the government would have advanced, but it, like practically all the other measures designed for the assistance of the "little fellow," was frowned on by the administration and went to the discard.

The measures enacted by congress have acted as a temporary stimulant to our ailing economics, but the country needs curative enactments rather than palliatives.

Governor Roosevelt's address points the only sound way in which the government can, and should, move toward the restoration of normalcy, and it is certain to be warmly received.

STUDENT ROWDYISM.

The recent exhibitions of radicalism and rowdyism on the part of students of several American universities are not only a serious reflection upon these institutions, but unless firmly handled by the college authorities are calculated to result in similar outbreaks in other colleges.

Such disorders are not infrequent among the institutions of higher learning in the Latin-American countries and in some of the European nations, where the universities are all too often hot beds of communistic activities, but the Anglo-Saxon countries have fortunately been practically free from them up to this time.

The students from several universities who formed the party on the recent junket to the coal fields of Kentucky should have been kept in their classrooms. No possible good could have resulted from the trip.

On the other hand, it was inaugurated solely for the purpose of creating trouble.

Following quickly came the outbreak of rowdyism at Columbia University, in which a considerable number of the student body staged a "strike" because of the expulsion of the editor of one of the college publications.

Youths of college age are still in the disciplinary period of their lives and they are sent by their parents to institutions of higher learning that they may broaden their knowledge, to fit them to meet the problems of life, and not to dictate the manner in which these institutions are to be conducted.

It is fit and proper that certain responsibilities pertaining to the conduct of the student bodies should be relegated to the students, but this certainly does not give them latitude for indulging in such activities as the Kentucky trip or defiance of college discipline as was shown in the outbreak at Columbia

TO PROTECT GEORGIA CLAYS.

The protection of Georgia clays from the fluctuating valuations of foreign currencies, with especial reference to the British pound, is sought in a bill which has been introduced by Representative Vinson.

The present tariff act contains a reasonable, although comparatively low protection for clays. Under this protection the development of ceramics in Georgia has made fine progress and is now one of the most promising of the younger industries of the state.

When Great Britain went off the gold standard the purchasing power of the pound fell to such an extent that the American dollar could buy clay cheaper in England than at home. Soon the bottom dropped out of the clay industries in Georgia.

Representative Vinson's bill does not seek to permanently raise the tariff on clays, but merely asks that the present rate be raised in the same degree as the value of the pound has fallen. In this way the protection remains the same as it was before England went off the gold standard, and the new enactment will automatically become inoperative when Great Britain returns to the gold standard.

This is no time to be raising tariffs, but since the Vinson bill is more of an adjustment than an increase, requested to protect an infant industry from being practically wiped out, it should be enacted.

A REFRESHING PROTEST.

The protest of Senator Logan, of Kentucky, against the passage of the proposed $5,000,000 relief bill for the sufferers from the recent tornadoes in the south, despite the fact that his own state was one of those to be benefited, was a patriotic exhibition of political courage, such as is seen all too seldom in this day and time.

Senator Logan predicted that his constituents would "raise considerable cain" with him for his attitude, but he took the position that "it is time to have courage to say to the states that they cannot come to the federal government every time they have a storm."

Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, in the same spirit requested that his state be eliminated from the benefits of the measure on the ground that it had suffered but little from the tornado, and was amply able to take care of the damage.

Had there been more frequent exhibitions of political courage in congress during the past few years the federal government would not be faced with as huge a deficit as now exists.

We have come to the point that when anything happens, large or small, the first thought is to tap the federal treasury instead, as formerly, of caring for all but national catastrophes through the Red Cross or through local response to appeals for help.

The position of Senators Logan and Harrison is a hopeful sign of stiffening opposition to the raiding of the federal treasury on the slightest pretext.

The president has asked Rudy Vallee to croon a song that will end the depression. Oh, well, if that's the only thing which will end the depression, never mind—we're becoming accustomed to being depressed anyway.

One good way for a woman to reduce is for her to follow her husband around the golf links, advises a health column. This would also reduce the number of husbands who play golf.

Statistics show that the nation's health was never better. In other words, we've never felt better and had less in our lives, as 10,000,000 carbon copy humorists so often have remarked.

The Literary Digest's poll on prohibition may be conclusive, and all that, but we haven't heard of the whisky interests taking out options on corner buildings.

It is charged that an alligator pear is not a pear. And we'll add to your store of useless information by asserting that it isn't an alligator either.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Broadway.

If that crazy jumble of vulgarity and garnishness represents America, as some say it does, heaven pity the U. S. A.! Has that street any character at all? Is it not a characterless jamboree, lacking taste, self-expression and even originality? Originality, too. For after all it is nothing but a magnified midway, as any small town may indulge in for a few weeks during the annual fair?

The size and dimensions may stupefy for a moment, but where is the beauty of it, or the attraction? It dazzles with its glitter, it amazes with ith stupendous, blinding, illumination.

But beyond that, what? The avenue has dignity and an imposing majesty. The financial center shows some new skyscrapers in a purely new American style. If there is style to New York, it's the skyscrapers which lend it to the city. But not Broadway. It's just a big edition of Fourteenth street, a main street jazzed up to outrageous proportions—and prices. A street for suckers!

Hitler as Chevalier.

Just a few days before the presidential election, Adolph Hitler addressed a letter to Herr Hindenburg suggesting that the campaign be conducted on a chivalrous basis. What that gentleman understands by chivalry is hard to say. In the course of his campaign he has spread more infamous lies and scurrilously unworthy statements on everybody who dared to differ with him in his philosophy of brute nationalism than any third-rate ward boss in a Chicago frontier days campaign.

Whatever is liberal or democratic in Germany has been slandered and vilified by Hitler to a degree where one wonder whether the man is really sane. He has denounced millions of his fellow-Germans as traitors and scoundrels, whose only object in life is to debauch and degrade the German nation. Yet among these liberals and democrats are men who stand in the forefront of German culture and endeavor.

Georgia Heroes Of the World War

By Sergeant L. E. Jaeckel
(All Rights Reserved.)

JOHN I. BECK, (army serial No. 541731), corporal, Company F, 7th infantry, third division, American Expeditionary Force, awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action with the enemy at Fossoy, France, July 15, 1918.

After the remainder of his platoon had become casualties, Corporal Beck, with five other soldiers, succeeded in holding his platoon position against a flank attack by the enemy in far superior numbers. He inspired his men by his dauntless courage to pour a deadly fire into the ranks of the approaching Germans. Though he was severely wounded by machine gun bullets he refused to leave his post and maintained his position against odds until the situation was well in hand and he was ordered evacuated.

PIPE LINE COMPANY TO GET U. S. RECEIVER

CHICAGO, April 8—(AP)—The Missouri Kansas Pipe Line Company, four officers of which are under government indictments charging use of the mails to defraud, is to get a federal receiver Saturday.

United States District Judge Charles E. Woodward announced last night he would appoint the receiver at that time to take over the administration of the company's affairs from a state receiver named in Delaware March 18.

Letters From a Bald-Headed Dad to a Flapper Daughter

BY ROBERT QUILLEN

My Dear Louise:

When you and your crowd were discussing the show last night, I overheard a remark that gave me a distinct pain. The young lady who made the remark belongs to our class—the class commonly called hicks—and the remark was an effort to conceal her common clay.

ROBERT QUILLEN

The show was good. Book and music were above the average, and there wasn't a ham actor in the lot. The audience applauded generously. Yet this young lady, eager to appear metropolitan and sophisticated, pretended to think it an awful bore.

There are millions like her—all of them hypocrites—and all of them advertise their provincialism by attempting to conceal it.

They have an idea that New York and London sophisticates, having seen many shows of many kinds, are pleased by none. And they think they can prove themselves worldly-wise by elevating their noses and pretending to be unmoved by any performance they witness.

It is a silly pose, peculiar to hicks, and I hope you will have enough common sense to avoid it.

People pretend to be what they aren't because they are ashamed of what they are.

Their taste is vulgar and untrained and they haven't intelligence enough or courage enough to form opinions of their own. They are afraid of making themselves ridiculous by cheering the wrong thing. So in order to play safe they "high hat" everything and sniff at the universe.

Their punishment is swift and sure. Posing becomes a habit, and they lose the ability to be sincere. Pretense becomes second nature to them, so that in the course of time they lose faith in thir own emotions and can no longer tell how much of their love or grief or joy is real and how much is sham.

Be real, dear. If you like ham and eggs better than caviar, say so and let the heavens fall.

Love, DAD.

ANDERSON INDUCTED AS HEAD OF WESLEYAN

alma maters, the great colleges of the country, marched next, resplendent in solemn black robes decked with appointments of scarlet, blue, purple, gold and other colors designating the scholastic rank of the academicians.

The climax of the parade was the presidential party, whose color and dignity bespoke the grandeur and importance of education through the ages. Dr. Anderson was the center of this group.

Speakers were seated on the stage. Bishop William N. Ainsworth, in academic black with red appointments for his three doctors' degrees, presented Bishop Henry Judah Mikell. Bishop Mikell gave the invocation. Mayor Glenn Toole extended welcome to the guests and to Dr. Anderson from the city of Macon.

Bishop Ainsworth reviewed the history of Wesleyan from its modest beginning nearly a century ago under the presidency of Rev. George M. Pierce up to the times recalled by alumnae.

Bishop Ainsworth reviewed the "even greater enrichment and enlargement of scholastic opportunities," the realization of $1,000,000 of the $2,500,000 expansion fund and the development of greater Wesleyan in Rivoli under Dr. W. F. Quillian.

"And in this hour of unusual history when Wesleyan's doors are open wide to a larger field of usefulness," Bishop Ainsworth said, "the faculty and the trustees felt that Dr. Anderson is peculiarly endowed to lead our institutions."

Dr. William Preston Few, president of Duke University, delivered the main address preceding Dr. Anderson's inaugural speech. Dr. Few spoke for creative work in education.

"I want to emphasize one idea," he said. "Let us try to make education more creative—creative of scholarship, of culture and of public spirited people.

"There is nothing more thrilling in our world than creating, for the teacher, the writer, the painter and the builder who builds in an institution like Wesleyan."

"All greatness is based upon a true view of life," he declared. "There can be nothing great or beautiful—and if you believe what I am about to say and carry it out I don't much care what else you do—in life or character that it is not ultimately based on truth. The beautiful is the true made perfect."

Dr. Few praised the worth of all art, scholarship and achievement in history that have come from a foundation of truth and beauty. Greetings were extended to Dr. Anderson and to Wesleyan by Dr. David Alla Robertson, president of Goucher College, on behalf of the women's colleges of the nation; by Dr. Charles M. Snelling, chancellor of the University of Georgia system, on behalf of the state educational institutions; by Mrs. Charles Crawford Hinton, of Macon, for the National Alumnae Association of Wesleyan, and by others on behalf of the faculty and students.

In his inaugural address, Dr. Anderson discussed his ambition to become the ideal college president, "educator and scholar, intellectual and spiritual force to my people and my girls."

It is his desire, he said, for Wesleyan, the oldest chartered college for women in the world, to produce the finest type of cultured, fearless and capable women who will be fully fitted for life.

Of the inauguration and those participating he said:

"I would be false to my deepest feelings if I did not express my gratitude to you for your gracious words and to the members of the board of trustees for the confidence reposed in me."

Dr. Anderson was elected president of Wesleyan on April 6, 1931. He is a noted authority on southern history and contributes frequently to historical publications. He is one of the few laymen who have headed Wesleyan. He was president of Randolph-Macon for 11 years.

ATTEMPT TO KILL U. S. FARM BOARD BEATEN IN HOUSE

Co-operative Association, and his annual pay of $75,000, and said:

"It takes 250 farmers working from January to December to earn the salary of Mr. Creekmore. It takes 2,500 bales of cotton to equal his salary."

Jones warned that if the board were abolished, "it would produce wreckage, not only of agriculture but of the rest of the country as well."

A vigorous opponent of the board when congress passed the law to establish it, Jones reiterated today he was not defending its as economically sound but as necessary because of the fact that it has been in operation.

The board now owns 1,250,000 bales of cotton and 148,000,000 bushels of wheat which would be dumped on the market if it were abolished and further harm the farmer, he said.

SMITH REITERATES HE IS CANDIDATE

Roosevelt has started a quiet discussion among his friends looking to the abrogation of the time-worn two-thirds rule if that is necessary to effect his nomination. Though convinced that their candidate will go to the Chicago convention with the necessary two-thirds majority, they nevertheless are turning over in their minds a proposal for doing away with the ancient tradition and placing the nomination on a simple majority basis as a guarantee against any possible repetition of the 100-ballot deadlock which brought disaster to the party in the famous Madison Square Garden convention of eight years ago. Already the Georgia democratic state convention is on record as approving the abolition of the two-thirds rule.

While it requires a two-thirds majority to nominate democratic candidates for president and vice president, the rule can be abrogated by a simple majority of the convention. Roosevelt-leaders are now certain they will go to Chicago with a majority as a minimum, even allowing for the most hopeful expectations of the opposition camp. With nearly 150 delegates already actually instructed for the New York governor, together with the all but uncontested prospects in such states as Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Michigan, Nebraska, West Virginia, plus the 94 votes of New York and the more than 60 to be picked up in Pennsylvania, a majority of the convention, they say, is easily in sight.

Having demonstrated his popularity by attracting unprecedented democratic support in such normally republican states as Wisconsin, North Dakota and New Hampshire, which usually vote republican three or four to one, Governor Roosevelt, his friends assert, would be taking less chance of disrupting party harmony by agreeing tacitly to the abrogation of the two-thirds rule than by allowing the convention to go into a prolonged deadlock, if his opponents should prove strong enough to deny him the nomination under the old system.

WILL ACCEPT NOMINATION, AL SMITH DECLARES

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith stated vigorously today he will accept the democratic presidential nomination if it is tendered to him.

In equally emphatic terms he denied what he called a "whispering campaign" that he is being used as a "stalking horse" to help or hinder some other candidate.

"That is a role I never played and never will," he said.

He also made it clear he "certainly welcomes" the support of his friends and called it an "absurdity" for anyone to state he would repudiate the action of those seeking convention delegates pledged to him.

Replying to what he termed "whispers among the rank and file of our democrats that I am not available," the 1928 democratic standard bearer said he was at a loss to know what was meant and added:

No Difference.

"There is no difference between me today and four years ago when I was nominated . . . on the first ballot and secured for the party the largest popular vote ever polled by a defeated candidate."

PITTMAN SAYS FRIENDS ARE UNFAIR TO SMITH

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—A statement that supporters of Alfred E. Smith were being unfair to him in pressing his presidential candidacy when he "is not a candidate for the nomination and will make no campaign" was made in an interview today by Senator Pittman, of Nevada.

The interview was granted before publication of letters by Smith to Connecticut, Pennsylvania and California supporters reiterating he would accept the nomination and denying he was a "stalking horse" in the interest of another candidate.

But in expressing his views, Pittman described the 1928 standard-bearer, of whom he is a great admirer, as a man "who loves and is loyal to his friends" and said "you cannot expect him to do anything that will interfere with them using his name for any democratic purpose."

MUST SUPPORT VICTOR FOR SUCCESS—RITCHIE

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Governor Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland himself a favorite son candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, today called for unified support of the man who emerges strongest at the time of the convention.

Ritchie disclaimed any knowledge of a "Stop Roosevelt" movement among the favorite sons and predicted an harmonious convention.

"The will to win and the opportunity to succeed this year," he said in an interview, "will keep all the democrats in line and avoid any breaks."

Describing all those available for the nomination as "able men, Ritchie said:

"I don't see why the man who appears to be strongest at the time of the convention should not be named."

Then, he said, all the other candidates should rally behind the chosen one and support him conscientiously.

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY

THE COLDS OF ST. KILDA.

The inhabitants of St. Kilda, says the writer of a communication in The Atlanta Constitution, believed that strangers landing on the island caused the colds which invariably followed the arrival of a ship. Neither Dr. Johnson nor Boswell could ferret out the reason for the predicament in which St. Kildans found themselves, a situation so serious that at one time they thought of interdicting the landing of strangers. Fortunately, shortly after Boswell recorded the coincidence of ships and colds, an English pastor solved the mystery. Here is his explanation:

> The cause is a natural one. The situation of St. Kilda renders a northeast wind necessary before a stranger can land. The wind, not the stranger, occasions an epidemic cold.

Now wouldn't that please some of those old fogies who held jobs as health commissioners around this wiseacre country? The mystery of the thing, to my mind, is that Dr. Johnson muffed it. I am not at all astonished that a pastor and especially an English one, hopped right in where Johnson feared to tread, and gave the commoners the rights of it.

Whatever "colds" were in those days.

Today everybody knows what a "cold" or "the common cold" is, yet nobody with any professional standing has the courage to define it.

In spite of everything, though, I think we have advanced intellectually since Dr. Johnson's day, for even the health commissioners who still issue bulletins about the cause and prevention of "colds" now concede that when the disease is epidemic it is due to infection from someone else who has it, be he friend or stranger. The old-timers no longer have the temerity to tell the dumb public that northeast winds cause epidemics. That line of buncombe passed into history along with the good old shotgun quarantine against yellow fever.

"4. The names of clients for whom such stock was sold, the numbers of such shares sold for each client in excess of 200 shares.

55. A list of all persons from whom such stock or stocks were borrowed and the amount or amounts so borrowed in numbers of shares."

On the senate floor, Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, in arguing against the Reed resolution to order a tariff commission inquiry into the effect of depreciated currencies abroad upon American imports expressed concern that this might be interpreted by foreign nations as a move by the United States to go off the gold standard.

MISQUOTED, SAYS MURRAY ABOUT ROOSEVELT FUNDS

HASTINGS, Neb., April 8.—(AP)—Governor William "Alfalfa Bill" Murray said at a political rally today he had been misquoted at Norfolk concerning a charge that $50,000 in eastern money had been sent into Nebraska to get delegates for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"I was misquoted," Murray said when asked about the report he had charged Arthur Mullen, of Omaha, democratic national committeeman, with having $50,000 to spend in support of Governor Roosevelt's nomination.

"I intended to convey that Mullen had $50,000 for the Al Smith campaign and I was wondering if he had the same amount for Roosevelt," the Oklahoma governor said.

CHARGES OF MURRAY ARE DENIED BY MULLEN

LINCOLN, Neb., April 8.—(AP)—Charges of Governor William (Alfalfa Bill) Murray, of Oklahoma, that $50,000 in eastern money had been sent into Nebraska to buy delegates for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt have brought a back-fire of rapid and indignant denials.

Arthur Mullen, democratic national committeeman from Nebraska, at his Omaha home last night termed the charges untrue and declared the total expense of Roosevelt work done in Nebraska amounted to less than $200 and he (Mullen) has paid that personally.

ASPIRANTS NOT TO ATTEND JEFFERSON DAY RALLY

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Four democratic presidential possibilities, including Franklin D. Roosevelt, will be absent from the party's Jefferson Day rally here next Wednesday.

The others who have declined invitations include Melvin Traylor, of Chicago, and Governor Murray, of Oklahoma, who said they had prior engagements. Murray is campaigning in the west. Former Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, is recovering from an operation, but will be unable to attend.

CONSERVATIVES TO SOUND G. O. P. NOTE FOR WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 8.—(AP)—A conservative delegation will sound the dominant note for Wisconsin from the floor of the republican national convention at Chicago this June.

Wisconsin's voters decreed this at the polls and as late returns rolled in from last Tuesday's delegate primary, it became almost a certainty today the conservatives had captured 15 and the progressives only 12 of the state's votes for the presidential nominee.

In the democratic primary, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, made almost a clean sweep, an unusually large vote giving him 25 of the 26 delegates who were in the lead. The 26th was an independent whose campaign cry was "Smith and prosperity."

FORMER LEGISLATOR INDICTED FOR SLAYING

OPELOUSAS, La., April 8.—(AP)—Judge Gilbert L. Dupre, aged former legislator and once bitter critic of the gubernatorial policies of former Governor Huey P. Long today was indicted for manslaughter by the grand jury for the shooting and killing of Charlie Dejean, a local salesman, on the street here last Thanksgiving Day

Wall Street Bankers Seek To Protect American Dollar

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Wall Street international bankers said today that they would leave no stone unturned in their effort to protect the American dollar in foreign money markets against the insidious spread of false rumors, such as the rumor published yesterday in Paris that a large American bank had suspended payments.

While they were not prepared to say that an organized attack had been instituted against the dollar, using false propaganda for its ammunition, they did not hesitate to express their irritation over the Paris article which coincided with other specially written articles purporting to show that the dollar is in weak position.

They expressed their gratification, however, that the French government was reported to have taken prompt action designed to set the French public straight on the falsity of rumors now afloat in that and other countries.

Bankers also said that the publication of the false bank report had some reassuring aspects. For one thing, they said, it showed that part of the recent selling of the dollar which had come from France was based on misinformation, and not fact. They reasoned that this selling was largely speculative, and with the true facts once placed before the public, that it would dry up.

An ironic touch was given to the French episode because, in the past several weeks when considerable mystery has shrouded persistent selling of the dollar, some of the leading New York bankers strongly defended the French against charges of engineering a bear drive against this country's currency. Also, it was pointed out, it was through J. P. Morgan & Co. and American banking associates that France obtained needed assistance several years ago when a world-wide drive on the French franc brought the financial structure of the European republic close to the brink of destruction.

A spokesman for the American bank which had been maligned in the Paris article said that his institution was making no statement of any kind. It was pointed out that a public apology had been made and that so far as the bank was concerned, the matter was now closed.

In other banking quarters, it was pointed out that the position of the American dollar had been strengthened recently as a result of the Glass-Steagall act. Moreover, the French franc, it was said, had been comparatively weak in terms of dollar transactions for a few weeks, until recently, due largely to the gradual decline of France's export trade. The favorable French position in world trade was particularly hard hit as a result of the British tariffs.

ATTACK ON U. S. DOLLAR HALTED AS PRIC RISES

PARIS, April 8.—(UP)—The violent press attack on the American dollar, launched yesterday on the basis of false rumors, subsided suddenly today under official pressure and the dollar closed above the gold export level.

The collapse of the anti-dollar offensive coincided with action by Premier Andre Tardieu, appeals to the United States embassy to intervene, and with the arrest of Mme. Marthe Hanau, the French "Ponzi," who was imprisoned two years ago in connection with a huge speculative swindle.

The arrest of Mme. Hanau was under rather mysterious circumstances, but of such importance that Tardieu, Chief of Police Jean Chiappe, Minister of Justice Paul Reynaud and experts of the Surete Generale conferred on her case.

Police seized all copies of the financial newspaper La Force, edited by Mme. Hanau, on the grounds that she had participated recently in the international bear campaign to depress the bourse and discredit financial institutions. Her paper also had violently attacked the dollar.

But Mme. Hanau, when arrested, said, "I've been taken for obtaining documents." Police then admitted that she had been involved in the publication of secret documents alleged to have been stolen from the office of Finance Minister Pierre Etienne Flandin and involving her with diplomats of Germany and Russia.

The theft of these papers was the subject of Tardieu's conference with Reynaud and Chiappe.

Except for the fact that La Force had published attacks on the dollar, there was no indication of the extent of Mme. Hanau's connection with the anti-dollar campaign.

Officials of the National City bank branch in Paris conferred with American Ambassador Walter E. Edge and urged that the United States authorities act to check foreign attacks on American financial institutions. Edge promised to watch developments and to forward a complete account of yesterday's press attack to the state department.

Meanwhile, the newspaper L'Ordre, which had falsely reported that a large New York bank had ceased payments, retracted its statement, which it attributed to an erroneous message from New York.

The dollar rallied and closed at 25.34 as compared to 25.32 at the opening.

TEN AND HALF MILLION IN GOLD EXPORTED

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—The first sizeable outflow of monetary gold from this country in recent weeks occurred today as $10,400,000 of the metal was withdrawn from the vaults of the federal reserve bank and placed abroad two trans-Atlantic liners, largely destined for France.

A relatively small increase, amounting to $915,000, was reported in gold held here for foreign account, which is equivalent to a decrease in the American stock. Losses were moderately offset, however, by imports of $2,112,800 received here from Canada, Mexico and Uruguay, and in addition, $1,493,000 was received in San Francisco from the orient.

At least part of the strength of the French franc as against the American dollar, making the gold shipment profitable, was attributed to bear propaganda on the dollar in Paris, together with publication yesterday of a fallacious report in a minor Parisian publication that a large American bank had suspended payments.

PAPER APOLOGIZES FOR BEAR RUMOR

PARIS, April 8.—(AP)—The small nationalist newspaper L'Ordre extended "most sincere apologies" today to the National City Bank of New York and its readers for a statement printed in it yesterday to the effect that the National City had suspended payments.

There was no evidence today of any concerted attack on the dollar, which opened at 25.33 on the bourse, and closed at 25.34. The unit was firm one point under yesterday's close.

that Davis had lowered his influence in Georgia politics as well as politics of other states by his actions Milton warned that Davis' appeals as a stump speaker in the middle west will go unheeded unl the fifth dist ict sends a negro to the convention.

J. T. Rose, collector of internal revenue nd chairman of the state central committee, denied that any promises had been made to Davis, J. W. Arnold, o Athens, national committeeman, who has been indorsed by the state convention for re-election, urged the fifth district republicans to put out a candidate for congress and to carry the district for Hoover. He suggested th ward and precinct committees be appointed, and that literature be distributed in reply charges "which will be made in the democratic press."

Group Is Warned.

A warning that negro voters of Georgia may vote the democratic ticket because of treatment accorded them at the state convention and the meeting of the state central committee was given by Dr. L. M. Hill, Atlanta negro.

The fifth district meeting was called to order by Wilson Williams, secretary of the state central committee. Officers were elected as follows, with Ed L. Humphreys, of East Point, presiding: E. C. Talbot, of Avondale Estates, district chairman; R. A. Waters, of Alpharetta, first vice chairman; J. B. McCollum, of Conyers, second vice chairman; Ed N. Claughton, treasurer, and M. C. Bishop, of East Point, secretary. The following district executive committee was named: J. B. McCollum, of Rockdale county; J. J. Griffin and C. F. Harrison, of DeKalb county; and W. H. Parrish, T. B. Harper and A. T. Walden, of Fulton county. Walden was the only negro elected for the district organization.

14 Delegates Selected.

Fourteen of the 16 delegates selected for the convention under supervision of the state central committee are white men. Two delegates at large, Davis and Dr. W. H. Harris, of Athens, are negroes.

The first district convention Friday appointed Lemon chairman of a committee to consider calling a new state convention after several delegates had said that there is discord over the state as a result of the membership of the state central committee set up at the state convention here on March 26.

Mamie Williams, Savannah negress, republican national committeewoman, is a candidate for another term, but the state convention did not indorse her. She has expressed determination to carry her fight to the convention at Chicago. She is allied with the Lemon faction, which passed a resolution indorsing her for re-election. In response, she said, "I will never betray you." It is understood that a white woman will be named by the lily-white faction now in control of the state.

STIMSON CONFIDENT OF GENEVA SUCCESS

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Optimism over the possibility of "limiting the chances of war" was expressed tonight by Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, as he sailed for Geneva to attend the disarmament conference.

Optimism over the possibility of a world economic recovery was expressed by Secretary Stimson's predecessor, former Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, who sailed on the same liner for the spring session of the World Court.

By coincidence they both sailed on the Ile De France, as did Thomas W. Lamont, financier, who is going abroad for a vacation, and Norman H. Davis, a member of the American delegation to the disarmament conference

Ecuador Will Use Bombs on Mutineers

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, April 8.—(AP)—Federal troops sent up yesterday to Fort Punta Piedra, still in the hands of rebels, were withdrawn today and it appeared that the army was getting ready to blast the mutineers out with airplane bombs.

Meantime the authorities ordered the port closed to all marine traffic in an effort to starve out the mutinous navy which seized Ecuador's two gunboats yesterday and steamed up the river in front of the forts.

Although the fort is only a few miles from Guayaquil this city was entirely normal today with business going on as usual. General Leonidas Plaza Gutierrez, the former president whose reappearance in Ecuador after a long absence was believed to have caused the rebellion, was on his way up to Quito by rail today.

announcement off the floor that he would support it.

The democratic leader, a prohibitionist from Arkansas, said:

"It's all right so long as reductions were made in other provisions. We ordered the ten per cent cut in appropriations and I will stand by it."

President Hoover, meanwhile, busied himself at the White House preparing recommendations for retrenchments to be suggested to the economy committee.

At the semi-weekly meeting with his cabinet, the chief executive extracted fresh ideas from the department heads on economy and confined discussion to that major issue. Still convinced that a joint congressional-executive committee should do the work, President Hoover indicated, however, that he wants reductions made at this session to reflect in the 1933 zudget.

Yardsticks.

When the cabinet members emerged from the prolonged session they carried with the t "economy yardsticks" showing in a diagram form costs of operating the government this year as compared with the revenue and indicating a deficit of about $2,200,000,000. They withheld comment.

J. C. Roop, budget director, conferred twice with Mr. Hoover and other activities t the White House led to the conviction that a well-rounded, specific curtailment program would be ready for submission to the economy committee.

Chairman McDuffie told newspapermen that the economy group was considering chan s in government setups estimated to save from $175,000,000 to $200,000,000 and that its program would be ready for the White House conference.

"We recognize that this is no time to play partisan politics with a matter so vital to the people and that concerns so seriously the funds of the public treasury," McDuffie said.

"We will be pleased to have President Hoover's suggestions as to each item on the program now under consideration as well as any other suggestion on retrenchment for the fiscal year 1933."

McDuffie said:

"The economy committee will lay its program before the president. It involves between 55 and 60 proposals to eliminate duplications of activities without injuring the efficiency of the government.

"We do not desire to withhold anything from the public, but whether the details of the program will be made known will depend upon the attitude of the president."

He added he expected to obtain Mr. Hoover's full views on a proposal before the committee to cut salaries 11 per cent, allowing for a $1,000 exemption.

FIRST DISTRICT SEEKS STATE G. O. P. MEETING

Negro Lawyer Named Chairman of Committee on Convention Need.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—J. G. Lemon, negro lawyer, was appointed chairman of a committee to consider the advisability of urging a new state convention of the republican party in Georgia at the organization of the first congressional convention here today.

It was stated at the organization session by many of the delegates that there was discord all over the state as to the set-up of the state central committee. It is claimed that as many as 30 alterations have been made illegally in the personnel of this body.

Lemon was also named as delegate from this district to the national convention in the fall. Charles E. Donnelly, of Savannah, was named as alternate. Convention officers were W. S. Scott, chairman; W. G. Bryan, vice chairman; James L. Grant, secretary; J. W. Powell, assistant secretary, and B. H. Deloach, treasurer.

Donnelly, in a talk, hinted that there would be a call for a new state convention. The session went on record as indorsing Herbert Hoover and the republican administration.

Three Minute Relief From Periodical Pains

It is so unnecessary to suffer month after month from inorganic pains, because "B. C." will bring soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, used by many physicians, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B. C." shou'd also be used for the relief of common colds, h adaches and neuralgia, muscular aches and pains, reducing fever and for quieting a distressed nervous system witho.t opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

Huge Distillery Hidden in Underground Pit, Yields 15,000 Gallons Beer, 350 of Whisky

MARIETTA, Ga., April 8.—More than 15,000 gallons of beer and 350 gallons of whisky were destroyed and two men were jailed by Sheriff Tom Sanders and his deputies this afternoon in a raid on the largest and most complete distilling plant ever found in Cobb county. One other man and a woman fled from the still and escaped as the officers approached.

The giant plant was located near Floyd's station, about nine miles from Marietta, on the Concord road, between Atlanta and Austell. It was concealed in an underground room 40 feet long, 20 feet wide and 8 feet deep. It was covered with pine boards which were concealed with dead leaves and brush. Pine saplings were stuck in the dirt over the board to conceal the plant.

The two men arrested and held in the Cobb county jail gave their names as Pete Smith and Homer Gamlin. They moved to Cobb county about two years ago from Milton county.

The raiding party, composed of Sheriff Sanders and Deputies J. R. Miller, John Hood and Kermit Sanders, went to the house, which is within 100 yards of the still, this afternoon to search the place after they had received information that liquor was being made there. After an unsuccessful search of the premises around the house, the officers saw a smokestack in a grove near the house and investigation revealed the huge underground distilling plant. The still was in full operation when the officers located it and Smith and Gamlin were caught while at work. An electric signal bell which was operated from the house was discovered to be out of commission and the men were given no warning by the lookout.

Water for the distillery was pumped from a well at the house and three pumps were found in the underground room. A large steam furnace and boiler was used to distill the beer.

Thirty 500-gallon hogsheads were filled with the beer and 350 gallons of whisky were found in one-gallon cans. The cans were packed in sacks ready for delivery.

A new truck and a late model sedan were found at the house and were taken in possession by the officers.

The plant was so large and complicated that several hours were required for dismantling the pipes, boilers and condensers before setting fire to the barrels of beer and whisky.

Democrats Find Party Nominee Is Republican, Call New Primary

SANDERSVILLE, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—Indignant democrats of Washington county Friday barred from the party J. Frank Jackson, lawyer, who was nominated for solicitor of the city court in the democratic primary last month.

Jackson was barred on evidence at he is a member of the republican party, and a new nominee for the solicitorship will be chosen by the democratic party in the regular state primary.

The action was taken in a meeting of the county democratic executive committee Friday at the courthouse. Twelve of the 21 committee members were present and they voted unanimously to declare the nomination of Jackson void.

Affidavits were presented to the committee asserting that Jackson, a few days after the democratic primary, attended a republican county republican meeting and took active part in the proceedings, voting 11 times on republican party matters.

A. R. Wright, Sandersville attorney, represented Jackson at the committee meeting and made a speech contending that Jackson's democratic nomination could not be voided because he had taken part in a republican rally.

J. Dewey Godfrey, present solicitor of the city court, and C. E. Mayo, were unsuccessful candidates in the primary race won by Jackson. One other is expected to seek office in the new contest.

State Deaths and Funerals

A. A. LOCKETT.

Charley Mitchell Hurls One-Hit Game as Petrels Beat Jackets, 8-0; Carlyle's Home Run With Bases Full Helps Crackers Stop Hartford

It's Just Natural, I Suppose, for Folks To Love Their Dogs

They all love their dogs, I suppose. I watched a young woman at the show Friday morning. She was industriously spraying a haughty looking little peke with an atomizer.

It was rude, perhaps, but I walked over close by and sniffed. It was perfume all right. And the peke was standing there taking it with an ease and a nonchalance that was just too much for me. So I went over and stared at the Great Danes, who could take a peke in one mouthful, and no doubt would be very glad to, Danes being very sensible dogs.

Every time the dog show comes around, I recall the speech that the late George Graham Vest, United States senator from Missouri, made when he was a young lawyer starting out. He took a damage suit based on the killing of a hound named "Old Drum," and his plea to the jury on behalf of the plaintiff has become one of the great classics of the dog world. His historic plea follows:

"Gentlemen of the Jury: The best friend a man has in the world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps, when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads. The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog. A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and poverty, in health and sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens.

"If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him, to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace, and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by the graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad, but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even in death."

And that is about how the dog people feel about their dogs. And so, I suppose I must forgive the people who spray their dogs with perfume from atomizers and let them sit around on silk cushions. It's just that I don't care for it.

MAX SCHMELING RETURNS.

Max Schmeling, champion of the world so far as fistiana is concerned, docked yesterday at New York. The early copy, which I saw before checking out for the dog show, did not say if Max brought any more daschunds with him.

There are some at the show, funny, cute little fellows. They got a bad break during the war when the big hate for the Germans was on. The daschunds and link sausage and sauerkraut became one with the hate. Actually, they are great dogs.

They take the show rather calmly. They don't get excited about it. Neither do the pointers or setters, the wire-haired dogs and other small ones are the ones who give the real noise to a dog show.

THINGS SHOULD PICK UP.

Mr. Joe (Yussel) Jacobs, the manager of the champion, no doubt had his store teeth all polished up and clamped tight against one of his own special perfectos when his meal ticket arrived.

There are to be exhibition matches in the east before the Sharkey fight in June. And from those will come a nice sum of money for the champion and the shareholders in the champion.

The champion will look bad in the exhibitions, as he did before the Stribling fight. And will likely make Sharkey leap out of the ring when they meet. Some of the boys argue that he purposely looked bad in his workouts before the Stribling fight last July. I don't think so. Any careless work would have had a bad effect. The champion simply doesn't look good in training. But in the ring—he's there.

BEJIN GOES ALONG.

There seems to have been some sort of unintentional campaign to make Hal Bejin, the Cracker first baseman, think that he cannot hit. Practically every story written about the fielding flash refers to his impotency with the bat.

I am inclined to think that Hal Bejin can hit. There is no reason why he can't. He has a couple of arms and an equal number of eyes. And he is very active and agile.

Hal Bejin may not become a slugger, but I think he will likely hit .300 in this league with its lively ball. And pitchers that aren't as good as Southern league pitchers 10 years ago. And he will field better than the others who play first base. If the boys will cease insisting that Hal Bejin can't hit he might feel encouraged enough to start trying.

PETRELS BEAT JACKETS, 8 TO 0, IN OPENER HERE

Charlie Mitchell Pitches One-Hit Game for Oglethorpe.

By Jack Troy.

Tall Charley Mitchell, veteran Oglethorpe right-hander, stood out there in the center of the Rose Bowl diamond and pitched no-hit baseball for seven innings Friday afternoon in the opening game of the Dixie league here against Tech. But in the eighth Johnny Ferguson spoiled what would have been a perfect pitching performance when he drove a hard bounder to deep short and beat the throw to first. Oglethorpe won, 8 to 0.

Only five Jackets reached first base, as Mitchell, in brilliant form, kept that fast ball and those "curves" shooting past the hapless Jackets. Three of these were gifts, Mitchell walking them to the initial bag. Only one Jacket reached second.

The game put Oglethorpe back in the running in the Dixie league race. The Petrels lost both opening games last week to the University of Florida at Gainesville.

CLEAN FIELDING.

The signs pointed to a revival of interest in college baseball as some four or five hundred students of Tech and Oglethorpe filled the air from start to finish with a raucous din. Tech had a couple of cheer leaders out doing their stuff and there was a feeling of better days ahead. The Dixie league is responsible for this revival of interest. Frank Anderson and the other sportsmen who have fought tooth and nail to keep the young collegiate circuit in operation are now being paid dividends. There were a number of townspeople there, too. It was a very happy situation to those who have been pulling to keep the collegiate game out of a rut.

Both teams fielded cleanly and the biggest feature next to Mitchell's pitching was Tommy Spradlin's diving catch of Moore's line drive to center in the fourth.

Munford Whitley, who hit a triple, scored from second on an infield hit in the first inning.

The hitting was led by Hal (Red Pepper) Martin, diminutive shortstop sensation of the Oglethorpe club. Martin got two hits, one a triple, in three times up.

Sam Baker, fleet-footed Petrel center fielder, secured two hits, of which one was a double, in three times up, and stole a couple of bases. Craven hit a pair of singles in four trips to the plate.

MITCHUM OUT.

Coach Bobby Dodd took Mitchum out of the box after the fifth and sent Slocum in to pitch. The Petrels touched their collective deliveries for nine hits.

Oglethorpe scored a run in each of the first three innings and rode the merry-go-round in the ninth, batting all the way around to score four runs.

A no-hit, no-run game seemed assured for Mitchell as the game drew to a close. There were two out in the eighth when Ferguson connected. The bounder was out of the reach of Frank Anderson, playing third, and Martin dashed over and fielded the ball and threw to first on the hop. It was a clean hit.

Coach Frank Anderson will pitch Lefty Dixon in the closing game of the series this afternoon at the same diamond, beginning at 4 o'clock. Bobby Dodd plans to use two pitchers, starting Stribling and finishing with Everett.

Friday's game was the best the Dixie league has seen this season. And today's battle promises to contain fully as much action and color. Oglethorpe by winning took the lead in the annual series determining the city college diamond championship.

AUBURN BEATS GEORGIA, 3 TO 1

Tigers Take Dixie League Opener From Bulldog Nine.

AUBURN, Ala., April 8.—Backed by perfect and at times sensational fielding, Captain Clifford Smith hurled the Auburn Tigers to a 3-1 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs here Friday afternoon in the first of a two-game series. The game was the first of the season for both teams in the Dixie league and proved that Coach Sam McAllister's Plainsmen are going to be tough to hurdle before they relinquish their 1931 Dixie league and Southern Conference championships. However, the Tigers are not as strong offensively as they were last season.

A steady wind made the weather unsuitable for baseball but a hard-fought contest was staged that would be a credit to professional players.

Both Captain Smith and Spurgeon Chandler looked good on the mound, each giving up only eight hits. The only miscue of the afternoon was made by Webb, youthful and inexperienced Georgia shortstop.

Captain Smith, All-American pitcher, struck out three and walked two, while his rival boxman whiffed four and issued free transportation to three. However Chandler's wildness figured in the scoring in the sixth.

It was a hard one for either of the superb twirlers to lose. After five scoreless innings for both participants the Bulldogs came across in the sixth when Kendrick singled and Buster Mott sent him home with a long double. Mott was out trying to stretch his hit into a three-bagger. Georgia filled the sacks in the eighth on a double and two bases on balls, one an intentional one to Mott, but Smith squeezed out without a score being made.

Ike Lewis who is setting a fast pace for Dixie league hot corner artists to follow, began Auburn's big frame in the sixth with a triple to center. Hitchcock and Mason walked and Charles Kaley sent Lewis and Hitchcock across the plate with a single. The Tigers tallied again in the eighth on a single by Kaley, who took second on a fielders choice and scored on Porter Grant's timely double.

The fielding honors of the afternoon went to Juicy Wood and Sam Mason, Auburn outfielders, and Catfish Smith, Georgia left fielder, each of whom turned in brilliant catches. Jimmie Hitchcock also looked good at short for Auburn.

Ike Lewis, Tally and Grant, each with two for four, led the swatting brigade. Georgia's eight safeties were distributed to as many players.

It was Smith's third straight win over Georgia and Chandler's third straight loss to the Plainsmen. Smith was victor over Chandler twice last year.

Hamilton or Nicholson will pitch for Georgia Saturday with Williams twirling for the Tigers.

Spanish Dancer Reigns At Kennel Club Show

By Ralph McGill.

Spanish Dancer of Audlon, a pert and saucy-looking female wire-haired terrier, was the reigning sensation of the first day's showing of the Atlanta Kennel Club show Friday.

The young lady is still a puppy but the victory in the wire-haired class completed her championship. She is probably the youngest dog ever to complete a championship in America.

The old, old adage to the effect that blood will tell, was brought sharply to the forefront with the victory of Spanish Dancer and by two other firsts scored. Spanish Dancer was best of breed, Hallwyre Hi-Hat was winners' dog and Hetherington's Teetotaler was reserve winner.

All three of these winners were sired by Champion Westbourne Teetotaler, who won best of breed at the Atlanta show last year.

Spanish Dancer, who is owned by Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Wallace, of St. Louis, is practically perfect so far as points go. She is a beautiful animal and her victory was a popular one.

HANDLED BY DAVIS.

Spanish Dancer made her victory all the more complete by winning in competition with the winning smooth-haired fox terrier. She was handled by Dick Davis, well-known Kentucky handler.

Several Atlanta dogs won firsts in the various classes of wire-haired terriers. The Idlewood Kennels and Mike Thomas, of Atlanta, were among those winning.

WIDE APPEAL.

The wide appeal of the Atlanta show was shown by the victories won by dogs from Florida, Louisiana, Missouri and other states. The New Orleans entries almost swept the field in the Pomeranian class.

Coach W. A. Alexander, of Georgia Tech, won a ribbon when his scottie was judged among the best in his breed.

The show was largely attended all day. The 271 entries, a new record, filled the great building at 419 Peachtree street where the show is being held. The rows of stalls were thronged with visitors all day.

INTERESTING SHOW.

Today's showings will be equally as interesting as those of Friday. The evening, of course, will see the best in show chosen.

The program today will bring the shepherds, always an interesting breed, to the ring. The Great Danes, Schnauzers, Bostons and other breeds are to be shown today.

FINALS REACHED IN NORTH-SOUTH

PINEHURST, N. C., April 8.—(AP)—A veteran of the amateur links and a youthful university golfer today won their way to the finals of the annual north and south amateur tournament. The two, neither rated among the favorites at the start, will meet in a 36-hole match tomorrow for the title.

M. P. Warner, Pine Orchard, Conn., 21-year-old Yale junior who was not good enough last year to make the Eli team, came through in fine style today to down J. M. Robbins, Merion, Pa., former Princeton linksman, 2 and 1.

In the other semi-final, J. B. Ryerson, Cooperstown, N. Y., who has participated in many tournaments since he played for Yale in 1921, had his putter working like magic to defeat Halbert J. Blue, Aberdeen, N. C., another veteran, 3 and 2.

The first 18 holes of the final round will be played tomorrow morning and the second 18 in the afternoon.

Warner obtained a two-hole lead on the outward nine, and held to it tenaciously. He dropped one on the tenth, but regained it on the 12th and held it to the end.

Ryerson and Blue were all square at the turn, but the New Yorker forged into the lead on the 12th. He saved the 10th and 11th for halves by sinking putts of about 14 feet on each.

Georgia Trackmen To Meet P.C. Today

ATHENS, Ga., April 8.—The Georgia track team will meet Presbyterian College at Clinton, S. C., Saturday afternoon in its second dual meet of the year.

The Bulldog team left Athens this afternoon for Greenwood, S. C., where they spent the night. Men making the trip are Captain Ralph Owens, Stoinoff, Sands, Williams, Schubler, T. David, Still, W. Baker, Barham, Barnhardt, Hughes, Arrendale, Jones, Crenshaw, Powers, B. Baker, Maddox, Crouch, Batchellor, Dickens, B. David and Towns.

Georgia opened its track season by defeating Clemson, 105 to 29, here last Saturday.

Tech Gridmen Honored At Splendid Dinner

Georgia Tech's football, basketball, and swimming teams were the guests of Coach W. A. Alexander Friday night at a speechless dinner at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

In addition to the athletes and coaches there were faculty representatives and newspapermen present.

Football players who were on the squad which met California here last December received gold medals. Similar medals were sent the California players to commemorate the game which was for charity. Players who won contests in the last field day were also given medals.

Coach Alexander urged the athletes to attend strictly to their studies and report in condition next fall.

MADDOX LOSES IN FINAL ROUND

Atlanta Girl Fights Hard Against Brilliant Golf of Victor.

SEDGEFIELD COUNTRY CLUB, GREENSBORO, N. C., April 8.—(AP) Mrs. Opal S. Hill, of Kansas City, the western champion, routed Miss Margaret Maddox, of Atlanta, the Georgia champion, 7 and 5, today to win the Sedgefield Country Club's dogwood golf tournament for the second successive year.

Only one over fours when the match ended on the 13th green, Mrs. Hill decided to play out the round in a try for the course record and established a new mark of 75.

The former women's mark of 76 was set by Mrs. Marion Turpie Lake, of New York, in the 1930 women's southern tournament. Women's par for the long course is 81.

Miss Maddox never had a chance against the fine golf Mrs. Hill was shooting. She halved the first hole with a five, but lost the second to Mrs. Hill's birdie four and was four down after eight holes.

The Atlanta girl captured the ninth where Mrs. Hill had a six, the worst hole on her card, but the western champion won four successive holes on the inward nine and closed out the match.

Miss Bea Gottlieb, of New York, defeated Mrs. Bernard Cone, of Greensboro, in the finals of the slight flight, 3 and 2.

Miss Maddox managed to halve the first hole in 5 after her third shot landed in a trap off the green.

Mrs. Hill was first off the green in 2 but chipped beyond the cup and needed two putts.

Mrs. Hill went 1 up with a man's par 4 on the second when Miss Maddox missed her second and third shots, taking a 6.

They halved the short part 3 third, each reaching the green with one and taking two putts.

HILL 2 UP.

Mrs. Hill went 2 up by taking the men's par 4 4th with a 4 to Miss Maddox's 5.

They halved the 5th, each getting a 5 on the men's par 5 hole.

They halved the 6th with 4s.

Mrs. Hill won the 7th with a par 3 and the 8th with a 4, but lost the ninth to Miss Maddox's 5 and made the turn 3 up.

Mrs. Hill won the 10th, 11th and 12th holes to go 6 up. She had 4s on the 10th and 11th, where Miss Maddox had 5s and a par 3 on the 12th to a 4 for Miss Maddox.

MATCH ENDS.

The match ended on the 13th green, where Mrs. Hill took a 4 to Miss Maddox's 5 and won, 7 and 5.

Mrs. Hill finished out her round and set a new women's course record with a 75. The old mark was 76 and was set by Mrs. Marion Turpie Lake in 1930.

In the finals of the first flight, Miss Bea Gottlieb, of New York, defeated Mrs. Bernard Cone, of Greensboro, 3 and 2.

The cards:

Women's par out	553	555	354—40
Mrs. Hill out	543	454	346—38
Miss Maddox out	563	554	555—43

Skeeters Invite Atlantans to Shoot

The Skeet shooters will hold open house Saturday afternoon and extend a special invitation to all shooters to take part in the shoot at 2:30 o'clock and take home a prize. The club is on the Adamsville road.

The novelty shoots which have been staged each week have proved very amusing to those who were lucky and won hams or other prizes.

HAL BEJIN GETS THREE SAFETIES IN 13-7 VICTORY

Hearn Pitches Full Nine-Inning Game for Atlanta.

By Jimmy Jones.

The Crackers mustered 13 hits and as many runs off four young Hartford pitchers who had good intentions but uncertain execution yesterday and captured their second straight victory over the Eastern leaguers. The score was 13 to 7.

The clubs meet in the third contest of the three-game stand today. It bids fair to be a better contest, as Charley Moore, the Hartford skipper, will pitch Johnny Krider, one of his aces last year and who has just been returned to his club by Brooklyn.

BLETHEN TODAY.

Manager Barron, of the Crackers, in an effort to make a clean sweep of the week's games, will allow Climax Blethen and Andy Messenger to split the work with Johnny O'Connell again catching. O'Connell pegged out two would-be stealers at second base yesterday and his arm looked better.

Bunny Hearn, the short-pint left-hander, went nine innings for Atlanta and outside of a rocky fourth inning, finished strongly enough. Hartford hit on even terms with the Crackers numerically but little Hearn always tightened up at the crucial juncture.

Highlight of the game from a batting standpoint was Roy Carlyle's tremendous clout over the new centerfielder bleachers in the first inning with a trio of Crackers perched on the bases. It was one of the longest licks Carlyle has turned in this spring and it is a rare day when the big slugger does not get at least one round tripper.

TWO MORE HOMERS.

Norman Sitts, first baseman, and Johnny Mann, second sacker, connected for homers for Hartford, the former getting his in the first inning with one on and the latter placing one in the left field stands in the sixth.

Hal Bejin, the Cracker first baseman, continued his sensational hitting streak with two singles and a double yesterday. Red Barron's move in shifting Bejin to second place hitter in the lineup seems to have inspired the slender first sacker to keep building his batting average.

The game was a little slow, as Charley Moore tried out all his rookies. Hardaway, Henry and Engle all did a stretch on the mound, and Tom Harper, Atlanta sandlotter, finished up. Engle's wildness gave the Crackers five runs in the fifth.

FLORIDA TO PLAY EMORY AND TECH

A tennis match between Emory's varsity net squad and Florida, which was scheduled for 2 o'clock Friday afternoon on Dobbs courts at Emory, was called off because of wet grounds. The match will be played at 9 oclock this morning. Both Dobbs and Dewey courts at Emory will be utilized, since the 'Gators have a match at 2 o'clock with Georgia Tech's team.

Five singles matches and two doubles matches comprise the program. Jack Boykin, Fincher McDaniel, Nick Polites, John Mullin and Eugene Griffin will represent Emory in the singles in the order named. Jack Boykin will team with S. R. Bridges in the first doubles match, and Ed Jones and John Mullin will complete the second doubles team.

With Boykin, McDaniel and Polites, three extra-caliber players, leading the team, Emory is expected to win handily. Emory has the strongest team this year that she has been able to boast in many years.

VIRGINIA WINS.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 8.—(UP)—The score was tied, 4-4. Two were down and Roger Charles, University of Virginia, was on first. Sam Lee drove a triple to the right field bleachers to score Charles and give Virginia a 5-to-4 victory over North Carolina today.

GRID BAN OFF.

MARSHALL, N. C., April 8.—(AP) The recently imposed ban on football in Madison county high schools was lifted today when Jasper Ebbs, chairman of the county board of education, announced the board, in response to public clamor, had reversed its decision.

Triple Play Aids Norman in 8-7 Win

GAINESVILLE, Fla., April 8.—(AP) Norman Park College, of Georgia, smashed through the University of Florida defense here today and gave the 'Gators their first diamond licking of the season in a 10-inning game, 8 to 7.

The feature of the game was in the eighth when Florida had three on and none out and Norman Park executed a triple play.

CHAMPIONS.

R. L. Hope won the city grammar school basketball championship Friday afternoon at the E. Rivers school by defeating Bolton, 7-3. The winning team was awarded a silver loving cup.

Proteus Is Favored In Handicap Today

BOWIE, Md., April 8.—(UP)—Headed by Albert C. Bostwick's Proteus, 20 of the best 3-year-olds in training have been named for the $5,000 added Rowe Memorial handicap here Saturday. The distance was recently abbreviated from a mile and 70 yards to six furlongs because of the various eligibles not being far enough advanced in their training to travel the longer distance.

Proteus, assigned topweight of 126 pounds, was installed the favorite in pre-race betting with the Mereworth stud entry of Air Pilot and Hatteras attracting considerable support.

Freyer, Tech Boxer, Qualifies for Olympic

JACKET FIGHTS IN SEMI-FINALS AT PENN STATE

Freyer Qualifies For Olympic Test

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., April 8.—Elmo Freyer, Georgia Tech welterweight, tonight joined the formidable southern delegation in the semi-finals of the national collegiate boxing championships by outpointing John Gallo, of West Virginia, in three rounds of slugging. By his victory he earned the right to go to San Francisco in July.

By Edward J. Neil,

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., April 8.—(AP)—Thirty-two college warriors proved their right tonight to places in the Olympic boxing tryout lists by reaching the semi-final round of the first national collegiate boxing championship tournament.

A crowd of 5,000, jamming the big Penn State gymnasium, saw a field of 66 boxers from 33 universities, who started in the preliminaries this afternoon, whittled down tonight to 32 finalists in eight classes.

By the rules of the tournament, all semi-finalists qualify automatically for the Olympic tryouts in San Francisco, July 20, 21 and 23, but the national collegiate committee, meeting tomorrow, may decide to choose 32 qualifiers for the tryouts without strict adherence to the original plan.

In all, 20 colleges and universities qualified men for the semi-finals in probably the greatest collection of college boxers ever brought together for a single tournament. Penn State led the list with five men in the semi-finals to be staged tomorrow afternoon. The finals are listed for tomorrow night.

Army qualified three cadets, Syracuse, Tulane, Washington State and Columbus University, Washington, D. C., two each. Single survivors lasted through the 32 battles of the day for Loyola, of Baltimore; Loyola, of New Orleans; Temple, West Virginia, Florida, Virginia, Yale, Georgia Tech, Catholic University, Cornell, New Hampshire, Duquesne, Western Maryland and Princeton.

Eight of the 32 bouts ended in knockouts. Only one accident marred the program. After winning his preliminary match from Ed Collins, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, by decision, Cecil Hawkins, West Virginia 175-pounder, was found to have suffered a broken jaw.

Because of scarcity of 112-pound entries, two bouts this afternoon brought that class to the final round.

LOU WINS.

BOSTON, April 8.—(AP)—Lou Brouillard, of Worcester, former welterweight champion, won a decision tonight over Johnny Indrisano, Boston, in the Boston garden's 10-round feature bout. Brouillard won with a heavy right to the jaw that dropped Indrisano for a nine count late in the second round. Brouillard weighed 148 and Indrisano scaled 148 1-4.

Sixth Cavalry Plays Fort Sunday

Sixth cavalry squad from Fort Oglethorpe will cross mallets with the Fort McPherson team Sunday afternono at 2:30 o'clock at the Fort Mac polo field in the third of a three-game series. Colonel Lewis Brown, well known sportsman, and Lieutenant T. L. Br[illegible]n will referee the six chuckkers.

Lineup for the cavalry squad will include Lieutenant [illegible]ary C. Hutchinson at 1, Captain Thomas Herren at 2, Lieutenant Zack Moores at 3, and Colonel Gordan Johnston at back. Captain Wilkie Burt will alternate at 3.

Fort Mac will mount Captain Albert G. Wing at 1, Major Reese M. Howell at 2, O. A. Shubert at 3 and Lieutenant J. K. Baker at back. Lieutenant Douglas McNair will alternate at 1.

Parking space has been arranged and benches will accomodate the hundreds of spectators. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, the proceeds to defray the expenses of the game.

CHAMP ARRIVES IN GREAT SHAPE

Schmeling Believes Self Much Better Than Two Years Ago.

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, German holder of the world's heavyweight boxing championship, arrived today to begin an exhibition tour and training grind which will fit him for a title defense against Jack Sharkey in New York June 16.

The Black Uhlan looked as fit and said his weight was only 194 pounds, within three or four of his best fighting weight.

Schmeling indicated he believes himself a much better fighter than he was two years ago when he took a terrific beating from Sharkey before being fouled into the title in the fourth round.

"Those two years," he explained, "will be a plus for me."

Schmeling said his exhibition tour of last year and his winning 15-round fight with W. L. (Young) Stribling, in Cleveland, last July, had given him just the sort of experience he needed. Sharkey has had but one fight since, being held to a draw in a 15-round contest last summer by Mickey Walker.

The champion's trainer, Max Machon, said he did not believe there was a man living who could stand up against Schmeling for 15 rounds, the scheduled distance of the June bout.

Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, attempted to head off financial inquiries but he was not quick enough to sidetrack one relating to the champion's financial standing.

Schmeling said he would have enough money after the Sharkey fight to retire and never work again if he so desired, but that he did not intend to do that.

Schmeling will begin an exhibition tour next week which will keep him busy until April 28. On May 10 he will start serious training near Kingston, N. Y.

TILDEN TO PLAY NUSSLEIN TODAY ON CLUB COURT

Pro Stars To Appear in Three Matches; Time Is 2:30 O'Clock.

On the pro tennis horizon has appeared a player who is a distinct threat to Big Bill Tilden, who, in tennis, is like the after-dinner speaker who prefaces his remarks with that old familiar "unaccustomed as I am"—to losing.

He is Hans Nusslein, German champion, and he plays Tilden in a feature exhibition singles match on the Atlanta Tennis Club courts this afternoon. Tilden and his troupe will play three matches, two singles and one doubles, this afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. There will be seating accommodations for at least 2,000. Admission to the seats facing east is $1.50 and general admission $1.

When Tilden played here before he was somewhat handicapped by an indoor court, but today he will be out in all his glory on the No. 1 outdoor court on Argonne avenue, just off Ponce de Leon.

Twice within two weeks Nusslein has handed Big Bill a drubbing in singles matches. The German pro champion, who uses one definite method of play, worked in straight sets at Memphis and yesterday at Columbus, Ga., he beat the elongated Tilden, 2-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Today's matches will be played in the event that there is rain this morning, for the court drains quickly.

First on the program will be a singles match between Albert Burke, the Irish pro, and Roman Najuch, who is the best professional in all France.

Tilden and Nusslein will take the courts next, while the third event will be a doubles match between Tilden and Burke and Nusslein and Najuch.

Nusslein, in downing the more versatile Tilden recently, has raked the back court with deep drives.

In virtually every town in which Tilden and his troupe have played society has turned out en masse to see him play. The entire program will be a rare treat for tennis lovers.

BOYS' HIGH WINS AT GRANT FIELD

Beats Tech High by Lone Point; Record Beaten.

By Mongin Brumby.

One record fell in the G. I. A. A. track meet held Friday afternoon at Grant field, which was won by Boys' High, with Tech High trailing by a lone point. The winning team scored 31 points to 30 by their traditional rivals.

Walker, of G. M. A., smashed the interscholastic record for the 220 dash when he covered the distance in 21.4 seconds. The former mark was 22.5 seconds. The cadet, with his long, effortless strides, made the shattering of the old record seem easy.

Flatau, of Tech High, won the 100-yard dash, and at the finish line had gained a convincing margin over Ward, of Boys' High, who placed second. Fergerson, of Lanier High, Macon, placed third in the dash.

Walker again stole the show in the shot put, when he tossed the 12-pound weight a distance of 47 feet, 11 inches. Morris, of Tech High, was second, and Wrotan, of Lanier, third, in the poundage event.

In the broad jump, Perkins, of Tech High, won by spanning 21 1-8 feet of Mother Earth. Wallace, Boys' High, placed second, with Bruce, of Lanier, third.

Hays, of Boys' High, by a splendid spurt near the finish line, won the 120-yard low hurdles. Townley, of Tech High, who placed second, set the pace at the start, but failed to hold the lead. Farren, of Lanier, finished third.

Pendelton, of G. M. A., won the high jump when he topped the bar at 5 feet, 8 inches. Valentine, Boys' High, was second, with Cocking, of Tech High, third.

Puliston led the pack in the 440-yard dash, covering the killing distance in 52.5 seconds. Barron, of Lanier, placed second, and Oakes, Tech High, third. In the pole vault Pendelton, of G. M. A., hoisted himself to a height of 11 feet, 4 inches to win, with Hilley, of Tech High, second, and Wallis, Boys' High, third.

Stacy, of Boys' High, threw the discus 112 feet, 8 inches, to win. Eaves, Tech High, placed second with a toss of 109 feet, 6 1-2 inches. Padgett, of G. M. A., was third with a throw of 109 feet, 2 1-2 inches.

Boys' High clinched the title by placing second in the half-mile relay, which event was won by Tech High. Tech High's winning team was composed of Flatau, Jarrell, Morrison and Oakes. G. M. A. finished third.

THE SUMMARY:

200-Yard Dash—Won by Flateau, Tech High (Atlanta); second, Ward, Boys' High (Atlanta); third, Ferguson, Lanier High (Macon). Time, 10.5 seconds.

CRACKER HEADS CONFER TODAY WITH HARTFORD

Max Rosenfeld Sought by Atlanta To Strengthen Club.

By Jimmy Jones.

The first official conference between heads of the Atlanta and Hartford baseball clubs will be held at 10 o'clock this morning over the possibilities of a deal between the two teams.

Nap Rucker, representing the Hartford club, will meet with Chick Roos and Red Barron, of the Crackers, and it is possible that something may be done whereby the local team will obtain some badly needed help at second base and on the catching staff.

Max Rosenfeld, who is still a great Class A ball player in either outfield or infield, is well liked by the Crackers and is the main man sought. Rosenfeld cannot be sent to the minors again and neither can he play for Hartford. He is merely making the trip north with the club until Denny Southern recovers from a leg injury.

Rosenfeld has written Judge K. M. Landis asking that he be allowed to play for Hartford again, but he would not be averse to coming here if a deal is swung, it is believed. He played part of one season for the Crackers when Brooklyn had a working agreement with the Cracker club. Brooklyn has notified Rosenfeld to make a deal for himself.

The Hartford team could use some pitchers. The Senators' fine staff of last season was raided by the Brooklyn Club. It seems now that the Dodgers will keep at least four of these men or send them to "AA" ball.

There is a report that one or two of them will go to Minneapolis in the George Kelly deal. John Krider, Buck Greene and Higgins are the only experienced pitchers on Moore's staff.

Cracker Rookies Agree to Terms.

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 8.—Final arrangements for the Columbus club of the Southeastern league to receive five rookies from Atlanta on option and to take over the contracts of two class men and another rookie were made here Friday at a conference between President T. G. Reeves, of the Foxes, and F. H. "Chick" Roos, of the Crackers.

Columbus received Russell Maxcy, Cliff McGaughey, Tommy Rich and Claude Herrin, infielders, and Freddy Sington, outfielder, on option. Hoke Beasley, outfielder, and Fred Polvogt, catcher, Leo Bader, infielder, the latter two Class A men, were released to the Foxes outright.

At the conclusion of the conference, which lasted well into the night, President Reeves announced that all the players from Atlanta had agreed to terms and had been signed by the Foxes. The five men released on option may be recalled by Atlanta at the end of the season, should the Crackers need them.

It was not definitely decided what other players the Reynards would get from Atlanta. Roos stated that Manager "Red" Barron would not release any more players until after the opening of the season. Ultimately, however, Columbus expects to get Hugh Starling, pitcher, and hopes to get either Duck McKee or Johnny Cummings, outfielders.

CALLED OFF.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—(AP)—Promoter Ed Lynch announced the 10-round boxing match between Paulie Walker, Trenton, N. J., and Gaston Lecadre, French welterweight, scheduled for tonight, had been called off. Lynch said he received word from Walker in Los Angeles that he is sick. The entire card will be cancelled.

Course at East Lake 'Dressed Up' for Match

By Jack Troy.

The picturesque No. 2 course at East Lake, where Bobby Jones and George Sargent play Charlie Yates and Errie Ball Sunday in an exhibition foursome for the benefit of the Olympic fund, is especially beautiful at this season of the year.

The dogwood is in bloom and there are other flowers and shrubs of indescribable beauty. The course is laid out in a veritable forest and the fairways wind through towering trees that cast shade in profusion across the 18-hole layout.

Yates and Ball have been putting in many earnest practice licks in preparation for the sternest test of their young lives.

Yates, state and city amateur champion, is taking lessons from Sargent, against whom he plays Sunday. It will mean a lot to the 17-year-old star to make a great showing against his teacher. Then, too, Ball is assistant to Sargent at East Lake, and he, too, is anxious to make a close match of it. They are two of the most promising young golfers in the south.

It is not at all far-fetched to say that the youngsters' best ball likely will rival or excel that of their opponents of long experience.

The youths face tremendous odds on the face of it, but they are equal to the occasion.

The name of Bobby Jones still has that certain appeal to the golfing patrons and it is expected that a large number will join the gallery following the match just to see the greatest of them all in action.

There will be a brilliant display of shot-making by all concerned. And the match, of course, is worth many more times the $1.50 admission price to be charged to aid in sending American athletic teams to the Olympics.

Al Doonan, head of the committee in charge, and the Junior Leaguers are working hard to insure one of the greatest golfing events in the history of Atlanta and their intensive efforts are bringing results.

Savannah Shooters Fight Tax on Shells

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—Sentiment against the proposed increased tax of a penny a shell on ammunition used by trapshooters and hunters has provoked adverse sentiment from the ranks of the local targetbusters.

The Forest City Gun Club this morning sent telegrams to Congressman Parker and Senators George and Harris urging that they block the tax in congressional chambers.

An increase of a cent a shell would boost the price 25 cents a box and would put trapshooters, an already expensive form of sport, out of business it is claimed.

Ray and Bennett; Williams, Mackay and Dozer.

TECH GOLFERS DEFEAT EMORY

Georgia Tech's varsity golf team upset the dope by defeating Emory's previously unbeaten squad, 12-6, Friday afternoon at Druid Hills. Harvey Hill, stellar Emory golfer, was ruled ineligible by the Tech players who insisted on playing under Southern conference rules. Tech and Emory will meet in a return match soon at East Lake.

Bobby Chambers, Emory captain, turned in a 75 for low score honors. Chambers lost a half point on the first nine to Frank Ridley, Tech, but tightened up to win a point for the second nine, another for the eighteen and a half point for halving the round.

Summary—Ridley, Georgia Tech, won 1-2 point and lost 2 1-2 points to Chambers, Emory; Brown, Georgia Tech, won 2 points and lost 1 to Horacek, Emory. Each team won 1 1-2 points on the foursome.

Dannals, Georgia Tech, won 2 points and lost 1 to Stubbs, Emory; Harris, Georgia Tech, won all 3 points from Bridges, Emory. Tech won all 3 points on the foursome.

Madison Aggies Defeat G.M.C., 9-3

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., April 8. Coach Wallace Butts' Madison Aggies won another game from the G. M. C. Cadets here this afternoon, 9 to 3. The visitors took advantage of Stokes' wildness in the first inning and put over two runs, one in the second inning and three in the third inning. Steele was sent in for Stokes in the third and turned in a good game. Schleicher hit a home run in the eighth with one man on.

The Cadets rallied in the eighth inning and drove Homer from the mound, scoring three runs, but were checked by Brammer, who was sent in as relief pitcher.

Extortionist's Finger Laid to 'Med' Student

CLEVELAND, April 8.—(AP)—A weird extortion plot in which a severed human finger was mailed as a "sample" of what might happen to the victim, was seen by police tonight as the gruesome work of some medical student.

Detectives said the finger, sent to John B. Wilberding, Cleveland Heights financier and sportsman, together with a demand for $3,000, has been traced to a northern Ohio medical school which they declined to name.

Police Chief W. G. Barrows, of Cleveland Heights, said the finger was traced to the medical school through an analysis of the preservative used.

He expressed the theory the plot was conceived by a student who had access to the autopsy room of the medical school.

The gruesome plot had its inception a week ago last Tuesday when Wilberding received a note demanding $2,000 under threat of death.

Last week there was a second note. An accompanying envelope bore the finger which the note described as an example of "what happened to the last man."

Japanese Favor Plan For Troop Withdrawal

SHANGHAI, April 8.—(AP)—Japan today accepted provisionally a general plan for withdrawal of troops as suggested yesterday by Sir Miles Lampson, the British ambassador, and one of the neutral negotiators for Sino-Japanese peace.

Although the Chinese objected that the proposal did not set an absolute time limit on Japanese troop withdrawal in the Shanghai area, and characterized the plan as "hardly acceptable," they showed a definite willingness toward conciliation on this point.

As a result the main conference will be called into session tomorrow to discuss Japanese withdrawal.

Memphian Convicted Of Bribe Attempt

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 8.—(AP) Accused of trying to bribe a former city councilman while the council was deliberating on a $1,000,000 bridge project, George M. Anderson, of Memphis, was found guilty here today in criminal court.

The jury recommended a flat two-year penitentiary sentence, but this was not imposed due to the fact that defense counsel served notice that a new trial would be sought. Ten days is allowed in which to file the motion.

A. M. E. BODY SPEEDING CONFERENCE TO CLOSE

HOGANSVILLE, Ga., April 8.—The Rome district conference of the A. M. E. church, with Dr. J. A. Hadley presiding, is speeding the business sessions in order to close by Sunday night.

Rev. W. G. Wilson, the pastor of the church, and his congregation, are having the co-operation of the people in caring for the large delegation.

The following spoke here Friday: "The Financial Ability of the People Throughout the District," by L. C. Curtis; "What the People Are Doing for Missions," by W. G. Wilson; "The Spiritual Condition of the Churches," by J. W. Means; "The Requirement of Sunday Schools," by Dewitt Ealey.

The conference indorsed Dr. R. J. Jefferson for the connectional secretary of the Allen Christian Endeavor League department, and Dr. J. A. Hadley for Episcopal honors for foreign field work. Rev. J. H. Branham, of the M. E. church; Rev. W. C. Amos, pastor of the Baptist church; Rev. G. W. Gates, of the city, addressed the conference.

FARM BOARD ABOLITION URGED AT MELON MEET

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 8.—(AP) H. L. Cartwright, of Tifton, Ga., president of the Melon Distributors' Association, which is meeting here, advocated in his address today abolition of the federal farm board.

It was reported at the meeting today Florida watermelons are in such an advanced stage of development that shipments north may be started by May 1.

HAWKS MAY BE SAVED FACIAL DISFIGUREMENT

WORCESTER, Mass., April 8.—(AP)—Captain Frank M. Hawks' disfigurement from facial injuries received in a crash at the Worcester airport in North Grafton Thursday morning will be negligible, surgeons announced tonight after a consultation at City hospital.

This announcement followed an examination by Dr. Varaztad H. Kazanjian, world-famous plastic surgeon and professor of clinical oral surgery at Harvard Medical school.

REPUBLICANS MEET IN SEVENTH DISTRICT

ROME, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—A. N. Tumlin was elected delegate and A. T. Atwater alternate to the Chicago republican convention at a district meeting of republicans here yesterday. Garnett Andrews Jr. was named delegate at large and C. W. Satterfield alternate at large.

The seventh district convention instructed its delegation to vote for the nomination of Herbert Hoover for president.

GRIFFIN RELIEF BODY QUITS SALVATION ARMY

GRIFFIN, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—The Griffin Relief Association has voted to withdraw support from the local unit of the Salvation Army.

All relief work in the future, the association said, will be handled by a local person to be named by the association. Decision to withdraw support came after a stormy session.

Doctors Thwart Police In Bar on Marathon

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—(AP)—Although state police broke up a "world championship" marathon dance here today, the dance went on tonight without spectators. Physicians told the police the dance must continue for at least two days to save the 26 weary contestants from complete physical and nervous collapse.

Police agreed to let the marathon go on but held the three promoters on charges of violating the penal law. Rest periods will gradually be lengthened, permitting the contestants to recover gradually from fatigue.

Two Developments Indicate Willingness of Russia To Buy in America.

BY EUGENE LYONS.

MOSCOW, April 8.—(UP)—The willingness of the soviet union to establish closer business relations with the United States if reasonable credit terms are available was indicated this week by two developments.

First, a group of 17 American engineers from Ford plants in the United States arrived to aid in solution of the critical situation at the Nishni Novgorod Ford automobile plant, where production has been disrupted.

Second, it was learned that the Russian commission representing the Cheliabinsk tractor factory construction project, which arrived in New York March 24, has been authorized to place orders for machinery and equipment up to $2,500,000.

The arrival of the American engineers at the Ford plant indicated the government's determination to overcome obstacles which last week were laid to incompetent leadership and mismanagement. The plant was scheduled to be producing at full capacity April 1, but so far has not functioned.

The engineers are foremen from American Ford plants and it was understood that Henry Ford himself guaranteed their ability and was instrumental in negotiating their individual contracts with the soviet.

In connection with the tractor factory commission in the United States, it was pointed out that the sum to be invested was relatively small but that, at a time when the question of relations between the soviets and the United States has been brought to the fore again, it indicates the readiness of the Russian government to do business in America.

American business representatives in Moscow generally find a rather favorable atmosphere in recent weeks in connection with Russian trade with the United States. The soviet authorities are interested in watching developments at Washington and, while unwilling to be quoted, they frankly indicate a readiness to meet any practical American proposal at least half way.

It is considered significant that last year the soviet's trade with America showed a decline for the first time since 1926, due chiefly to unfavorable credit conditions, according to the Russian authorities.

Russian statistics showed trade with America totalled almost $139,000,000 in 1930, while it dropped below $117,000,000 last year. Soviet officials say that credit facilities are much more favorable in Europe and have been diverting their business there, much of it to Germany.

Million in Narcotics Seized in New York

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—The seizure of 24,000 ounces of narcotics, with a retail value of $1,000,000, which had been camouflaged as toys, was disclosed today when the contraband was taken from pier 37, North river, to the barge office.

Customs agents seized the five packing cases containing the narcotics yesterday after they had been unloaded from the liner Ile de France. The liner arrived Tuesday from Havre and Cherbourg. Seizure of a vessel containing a huge cargo of whisky was also reported.

Nine New Automobiles In White House Garage

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Nine new automobiles, of the more expensive makes, today rested in the White House garage.

The machines were not purchased outright, but were exchanged for those previously attached to the executive mansion under a contract with various automobile manufacturers that has been in force for many years.

Each of the president's three secretaries is entitled to claim one of the big motor cars, bearing the seal of the United States, for himself. The chief executive has two for his own use, Mrs. Hoover a similar number, while two more are kept for emergency purposes and for the transportation of White House guests.

lease of prisoners by the detective chief when he began to investigate reports that Fred Harrison, an attorney, "had the run of the police station." Harrison recently committed suicide. Among the charges is one which accuses Poole of releasing prisoners on copies of charges in cases in which Harrison was attorney.

"While I was investigating these reports I discovered that Poole had released a number of prisoners who had failed to show up in court," Beavers said.

However, on cross-examination Beavers admitted that the department had no set rule regarding the release on copies and that it was within Poole's discretion and the discretion of other members of the department if they were to issue the copies.

On Stand at Adjournment.

Beavers was on the stand when the session adjourned about 12:30 o'clock this morning to meet again at 7 o'clock Monday night.

Irked by Carpenter's relentless demand for direct answers to questions asked him, and because Carpenter insisted that he not evade the questions, Beavers finally appealed for another attorney to make the examination. Carpenter retired and Branch resumed the questioning.

Beavers exhibited poor memory during the cross-examination of both Carpenter and Branch, and offered many side explanations. At one point when he failed to recall, he facetiously remarked: "You know I have a bad mind. That is what you (speaking to Carpenter) said about me."

Carpenter said he had never said that, but that Poole had.

Branch asked Beavers to take reports from those filed with the chief by Poole and find one which failed to comply with the order Beavers issued regarding filing of daily reports. Beavers approved the reports filed April 29 and 30, 1931, a few days after the order was issued.

Month of Reports Missing.

He then selected May 11 as one which failed to give him required information regarding the activities of certain men in the detective bureau. Branch then called for the reports the detectives were supposed to have filed with Poole, but the entire month was reported missing.

Branch then asked Beavers to pick "another date at random." Beavers selected December 18, 1931, and said the report was unsatisfactory. Branch supplied the reports filed by the detectives to Poole and asked in what respects it failed to provide what was required.

Beavers was considering the two reports, studying them, when Pendley left the rostrum of the police committee to hand a sheet to Beavers. Branch intercepted it, asking what is was.

It developed that it was a report of Detectives Ginn and Ellis, of the homicide squad, and Pendley said he had more than 100 other reports which were not mentioned in the Poole reports.

Defense apparently was preparing to attempt to show that Ginn and Ellis and other members of the department did not file reports with Poole, that Poole did not supervise their activities and knew nothing of them, but that they worked directly under Beavers.

The second session of the actual hearing attracted less attention than the first, held Thursday night, but a large crowd was present.

Westmoreland Claims "Trap."

A highlight of the hearing, in addition to Beavers' testimony, was when Westmoreland claimed he was "trapped" when Mrs. M. Langdon, clerk in Poole's office, whom, it is charged, was granted 13 days off for "good time" by Poole, said she had not told Beavers and Pendley that she was off all the days marked in the time-book of the department.

Another short-lived flurry occurred when Detective Lieutenant T. O. Sturdivant testified he saw Poole enter "good days" on September 3, 4 and 5, 1931, after Mrs. Langdon had been marked present. Mrs. Langdon testified that she never had three days good time off at any one time.

Defense showed that Beavers had access to the daily reports of all detectives, which it claimed were kept in Poole's office on instructions. This was brought out in answer to the complaint that the daily reports Poole was supposed to have filed were not satisfactorily full and detailed.

Prosecution Accepts "Dare."

Accepting a dare of the defense, Attorney Westmoreland departed from his outlined plan and called to the stand Mrs. Langdon, whose 13 days off for "good time" during 1931 are under fire.

Mrs. Langdon's appearance on the stand interrupted a line of testimony by which the prosecution sought to develop its charges involving copies of charges given to prisoners by Poole. Counsel for Poole won an appreciable point when it was permitted by City Attorney Mayson to go into the custom of the department in the matter of "good days," the prosecution contending that the unwritten rule allowed "good days" only for extra hours and not extra work during regular hours. Mrs. Langdon testified that she had remained at the department after hours on a number of occasions during the year.

A distinct score for Poole was obtained when Howard drew from Lieutenant W. H. Andrews, of the detective department, the statement that Poole always gave him advice or assistance whenever either was wanted, Andrews having been called by the prosecution.

Saw Poole Write in Book.

Detective Lieutenant Sturdivant, acknowledged as Beavers' choice for his successor if Beavers ever retires, sprang a near sensation when he testified that on September 5, 1931, he saw Poole write into the monthly time book three "G's" over "1" characters around which much of the testimony revolved Thursday night.

During Thursday night's session, Howard apparently tried to develop a charge that the time book had been tampered with. Howard brought out that Mrs. Langdon was due to have been paid for the three days in question whether she was present or absent on "good time." At the conclusion of Sturdivant's testimony, Alderman E. A. Gilliam, member of the committee, wanted to know why the committee could not hasten the case by calling Mrs. Langdon, about whom the testimony revolved.

"We'll put her up when our time comes, but the prosecution hasn't called her and doesn't care to do so," Howard said.

"We have not reached the stage of the case where we believe her testimony is needed, but we will accept the dare," Westmoreland replied.

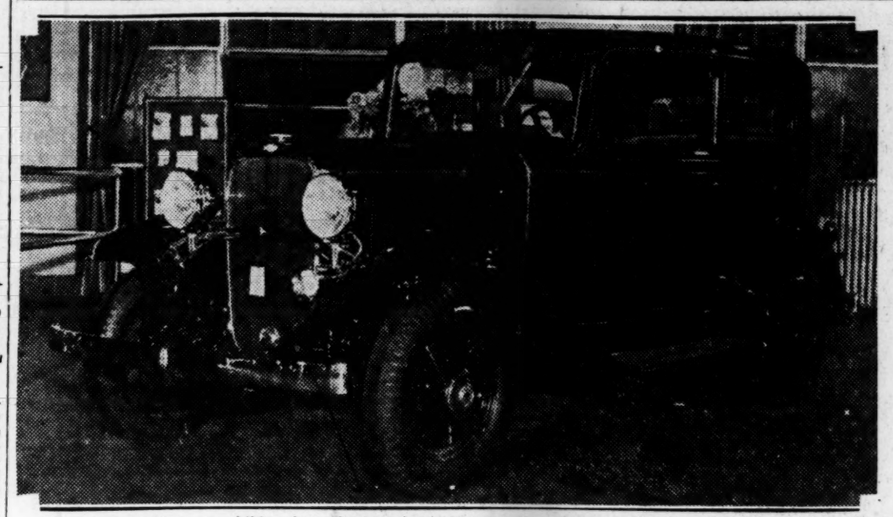

10 Released on "Copies."

I. H. Lindsay, contempt officer, admitted that after searching the records of five years under instructions from Beavers, he was able to find only 10 cases in which Poole had ordered prisoners released on "copies." Of these 10, seven of the defendants failed to appear and one of them subsequently did appear, Lindsay said. Howard brought out that failure of prisoners to appear "happens to all good officers" who give copies of charges.

The first direct effort of the prosecution to link Poole and Fred Harrison, attorney who killed himself recently, came to naught when Lieutenant J. A. Scott said that he had no recollection of any occasion where Chief Poole "came down to the lieutenant's office about letting Fred Harrison see a prisoner."

M. C. Williams, officer on duty in the station lieutenant's office, agreed with Howard that 50 per cent of those arrested are released on copies, and testified that "Chief Beavers has ordered a great many released." Many prisoners who are given copies do not appear for trial, he said.

This Chevrolet To Be Given Away Tonight

The General Motors exhibit of products valued at over $1,000,000 will close Saturday night after a week's successful display at the Palais Peachtree. As a closing event prizes will be given Saturday night at 9 o'clock to those holding lucky cards which will be distributed free at the door Saturday. The prizes are a Chevrolet two-door sedan, shown above; a Frigidaire electric refrigerator, a Delco vacuum cleaner, and an A. C. motorist's kit. The show will open at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and close at 10 at night.

Dry Raiders 'Imprisoned' in Cafe By Irate Patrons, Legionnaires

MIAMI, Fla., April 8.—(AP)—The Miami Daily News said today that five federal prohibition agents defended a hastily barricaded cafe at Miami Beach last night against several score American Legion convention attenders after the agents, with drawn pistols, entered the place to raid it.

The paper quoted witnesses as saying the agents entered the cafe shortly before midnight and took possession, with legionnaires and attendants lined against the walls.

When the patrons objected to breaking of bottles and glasses by the agents, two of the former were handcuffed. Patrons remaining inside hindered progress of the agents toward the door of the cafe, while those who had left the place cut the tires of the raiders' automobile and threatened to overturn it.

During the melee, one pistol shot was fired, the bullet going through a window.

Unable to reach the street, the agents locked themselves in the cafe and telephoned Miami headquarters for reinforcements. A truckload additional agents arrived shortly afterward and evacuated the five agents, with five prisoners, all of whom were said to be cafe employes.

Three of the prisoners were white men and gave the names of B. B. Whitnall, Sol Klein and George Bender. The others were negroes.

Prohibition headquarters here today was silent as to details of the raid. M. J. Gorman, officer in charge, said there had been a "slight disturbance" during the raid and that one person was arrested. He said he knew nothing else about the case.

Early End Predicted For Fortescue Trial

HONOLULU, April 8.—(AP)—A swift conclusion of the trial of Mrs. Granville Fortescue and three navy men accused of lynching Joseph Kahahawai was in prospect tonight as the result of hopes and plans of both prosecution and defense.

Although the possibility that alienists would be brought into the case appeared in the offing, John C. Kelley, public prosecutor, announced he would present his case in three days.

Hopes of the defense for a directed verdict of acquittal were voiced by Montgomery Winn, associate of Clarence Darrow, noted criminal attorney, leading the fight for the society woman and her three co-defendants.

"FRIENDLY DRINKS" DURING CAMPAIGN APPROVED IN COURT

ST. PAUL, April 8.—(AP)—The state supreme court today ruled that C. E. Tuttle, of Hastings, Minn., register of deeds of Dakota county, did not violate the corrupt practices act when he gave away four drinks of liquor to residents of his constituency during the 1930 campaign. His election as register was confirmed.

The evidence showed Tuttle gave away two glasses of wine and two bottles of beer at his home. It was held the drinks were dispensed as acts of hospitality and not to influence voters. There was no talk about Tuttle's candidacy at the time, the court said.

"The weight of authority," said the decision by Chief Justice S. B. Wilson, "seems to be that laws regulating or prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor are aimed at the traffic in liquor, rather than the friendly acts of hospitality with no intent to evade the law.

BACHMANN SUCCEEDS VESTAL AS G. O. P. WHIP

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Representative Carl G. Bachmann, of West Virginia, today was named republican whip of the house to succeed the late Representative Albert H. Vestal, of Indiana.

Bachmann was designated by the republican committee on committees at an executive session in the office of Representative Snell, of New York, party floor leader. He was promoted from first assistant whip. Since Vestal's death last week he has been acting whip.

RECLASSIFICATION BILL VETOED BY ROOSEVELT

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—(UP)—The Hewitt bill, over which proponents and opponents battled furiously, providing reclassification of 13,000 of the state's 30,000 employes as to salaries and titles, was vetoed tonight by Governor Roosevelt.

The measure, which resulted in a division of state employes over its merits, was one of the most controversial passed by the recent legislature.

The legislation provided appointment of a classification director in the civil service commission who would have had powers to determine the classification of the state employes.

DEBT DISCUSSION PLAN IS DENIED BY MELLON

New Ambassador to Britain Tells Newsmen He Won't Touch Financial Problems.

LONDON, April 8.—(AP)—Andrew W. Mellon, new American ambassador to Great Britain, took advantage of the first opportunity that offered itself today to say that he did not come to Europe to solve the reparations and war debts problems.

Hardly were welcoming ceremonies at Southampton and London over before the former secretary of the United States treasury got right to work at the American embassy, and one of his first acts was to receive British and American correspondents there.

When the new ambassador submitted to questions of the correspondents their queries ranged over his social plans and incidental things until a reporter for one of the big London dailies told Mr. Mellon that Europe regarded him as a special ambassador on war debts and reparations.

"Who did you say invented that story?" asked Mr. Mellon quietly. "I have no special instructions to deal with financial questions."

CAPONE LIEUTENANT ENTERS LEAVEWORTH

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 8.—(AP)—Jack Guzik, reputed business manager for Al Capone's Chicago underworld syndicate, entered the federal prison here today to begin serving a five-year sentence for income tax evasion.

He was accompanied by two deputy United States marshals, who rode with him from Chicago to Kansas City in a private railroad coach, which Guzik chartered.

WENDELL WILL RULING SCHEDULED APRIL 25

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Surrogate James A. Foley today set April 25 for a hearing on the preliminary issue of the legal residence of the late Ella V. Von E. Wendel and the question of whether the surrogates court in New York county has jurisdiction in the probate of the will.

Woman Refuses Food In Protest on Arrest

WEST PALM BEACH, April 8.—(AP)—Mrs. John Jansky has been on a hunger strike ever since she was jailed here Wednesday on a charge of arson. The county jailer said she not only had refused nourishment since her arrest but had "fought like a tiger." She and her husband are charged with setting fire to their apartment house here last February.

AGED FARMER SLAIN BY NEGRO EMPLOYE

ABBEVILLE, S. C., April 8.—(AP) Andrew Ferguson, 60-year-old Abbeville county farmer, was slain today by Tom Wardlaw, negro, who threw him to the ground and cut his throat when Ferguson upbraided him for failing to appear for work yesterday.

The negro fled into a woods. A posse with bloodhounds began a search for him.

Chi Omega Sorority Gives Annual Banquet.

Chi Omega sorority held its annual Founders' Day banquet at Nannette's tea room Tuesday, and the table, with covers for eight, was in the shape of an H, extending across three rooms. The decorations featured the Greek letters Chi and Omega, with lighted cardinal candles upon them, placed between green crystal vases of emperor daffodils and cardinal tulips. The place cards and program booklets carried out the sorority colors of cardinal and straw. Light was furnished by the Chi Omega emblem hung over the dining room mantel, and at each guest's plate there was a corsage of flowers.

The retiring president, Miss Virginia Campbell, welcomed and introduced the new officers, Misses Katherine Rogers, Eleanor Pryor, Louise Holst, Jeannie Gulley, Elizabeth Camp, Carrie Cooper and Mary Alice Jester. In accordance with an established custom, the newly elected president, Miss Katherine Rogers, made the response and assumed the duties of toastmistress.

The following toasts were given: "To the Founders," Miss Eleanor Cosgrove; "To the Patronesses," Miss Jeannie Gulley; "To the House Mother, Mrs. Henderson," Miss Carrie Cooper; "To the Alumnae," Madeline Moore; "To the Seniors," Margaret Sparks.

Miss Nancy Napier sang a Chi Omega selection, accompanied at the piano by Miss Jabie Sheffield, who played for the Chi Omega songs which were sung by the members. The banquet marked the tenth anniversary of the local chapter, Mu Beta, and the 37th anniversary of the national Chi Omega.

Culbertson on Contract

Drawing Correct Inferences

BY ELY CULBERTSON.
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

Each step in the bidding of a hand at Contract Bridge should be constructive. Every bid should convey some additional information, either affirmative or negative. It is a corollary of this principle that a player at Contract should not expect his partner to do something that he can do himself.

A very fine example of the drawing of correct inferences and the reaching of the correct final bid was given in a recent team-of-four match between The Bridge World team and the team captained by Mr. P. Hal Sims on the board below:

North—Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable

Mr. von Zedtwitz
♠ 5
♡ J 2
◇ K Q J 10 9 7 5
♣ K 9 6

♠ K 10 9 4 3 ♡ Q 9 8 5 ◇ — ♣ J 7 3 2

♠ A 8 6 ♡ 6 4 3 ◇ 8 4 3 ♣ Q 10 5 4

Mrs. Culbertson
♠ Q J 7 2
♡ A K 10 7
◇ A 6 2

The Bidding:

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1♡	1♠
2◇	Pass	3NT (1)	Pass
6◇ (2)	Pass	Pass	Pass

1—Two no-trump on this hand would show merely a minimum bid. Three no-trump shows a very strong hand and is a mild Slam try.

2—A very beautiful bid, based on knowledge that his partner holds 4 1-2 honor-tricks without valuable distribution. The long, solid diamond suit, with the outside King of clubs and singleton spade, practically assured Mr. von Zedtwitz that the combined hands will produce six-odd.

In the other room, where the positions of the players were reversed, the same final contract was reached, but North only bid five diamonds on the third round of bidding, leaving it to his partner to bid six. As a matter of fact, this bidding required the stretching of South's hand to the utmost in order to justify bidding the Slam.

Obviously, on the bidding, the Slam would appear to rest upon whether or not more than 1 spade trick is to be lost. As to that, South can only guess, but North definitely knows. After two passes, South opened the bidding with one heart. West's Overcall bid of one spade followed, and North made the regular Takeout of two diamonds. South had shown a hand above average strength by opening the bidding Third Hand. She then jumped at once to game at no-trump, and, when West passed, North had an opportunity to correctly picture the hand. All that South had a right to expect in the North hand on the bidding thus far was a five-card, or better, diamond suit and something better than an honor-trick in the hand.

As a matter of fact, North held a hand very rich in playing-tricks, if diamonds were trump, and this had not been shown by his regulation Takeout. South's strong bid showed not only double stoppers in the spade suit, but, by inference, an honor-trick in the unbid club suit as well. The hand, North reasoned, must contain either the Ace of spades or the Ace of clubs. The hearts may even be stronger than was actually the case. It was apparent to North that the hand should be played in diamonds, the abnormal distribution making play at no-trump a doubtful course. The only question was whether North should bid five or six. Mr. von Zedtwitz rightly solved this question by his bid of six. He could reason that South's spade holding might well be something very similar to what it actually was, and if he bid five diamonds, South might quite easily pass that bid. A good Contract player should not ask his partner to make a bid which he is prepared to make, and thus the bid on North's hand was not five diamonds, but six, because the chances of making the Slam were more than even and the additional bonus for that result was well worth the slight risk.

TODAY'S POINTER.

A good Contract player should not ask his partner to make a bid that is justified by his own holding.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Mr. Culbertson will be glad to answer questions on bidding and play of hands sent in by readers. Address him in care of The Atlanta Constitution, enclosing a two-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Lillian Mae Patterns

PRACTICAL SLIP.
Pattern 2256.

You'll need several of these slips under your lovely warm weather frocks, because dress fabrics are very sheer this season and really need a foundation in order to hang gracefully. WIFE TO OPERATE HUBBY'S BUSINESS BY COURT ORDER

CHICAGO, April 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Rose Seefor is going to see for herself if her husband is a fibber.

Judge Joseph Sabath reached the decision for her when her husband, Noah, asked yesterday for a reduction of $15 a week in the alimony he's been paying her pending her suit for divorce.

"I've got a newsstand but am only making $12 a week," he pleaded.

"It isn't so, judge," said Mrs. Seefor. "He's getting at least $75."

"I'd like to see you make $75 a week from it," retaliated Seefor.

"I'll take you up on that," interposed the court. "You give the stand to your wife. And Mrs. Seefor, you give your husband $12 a week and keep the rest."

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE: When Judy Allison had been in Chicago for six months without finding work her father wired her to return to her small-town home. Downcast by her failure, she went to the tea room in her rooming house. Dick Mason, chief radio announcer at WAOA, sat at her table. Impulsively Judy showed Dick her father's telegram. Following Dick's insistence, she reported for a radio tryout the following morning. From all the applicants, she was chosen for the "Beauty Builders'" program. While Judy was talking with Elton Day, writer of script for her programs, Lona Burdette came up and asked why he had thrown her down "for some new kid from the country." Day tells Judy Lona is a trouble-maker. While Judy was rehearsing with Elton, he received a telephone call which greatly disturbed him. When Judy reached home that night she found a telegram from Elton Day which read, "Don't report for work tomorrow. Had to give the part to someone else." Judy was preparing to go home to Kansas when Dick persuaded her to report at the studio the following morning.

CHAPTER XXII.

It wasn't hard after all. It was rather fun, making yourself believe you really meant what somebody else had written. And thinking all this, Judy's voice quickened, she forgot the microphone, she realized only that her voice sounded oddly small in the high room until she heard Dick calling from the door.

"Yes, Dick?"

"You're going a lot too fast. I've been signaling you to slow down."

"Oh. I'm sorry."

He grinned.

"I know, Judy. You got so interested in talking. People always do, first time on the mike. Well, we've got two minutes. Try three things: Breathe more quietly. I could hear your breath. And break oftener."

"Break?"

"Like this." He took the script. Now, standing in front of the microphone, he seemed to change in a moment. His shoulders were held back, his chest seemed to force the words straight into the microphone, he read slowly, easily and somehow he forced a small, intimate chuckle into his voice. Judy understood now why women, listening miles away, were so sure he was talking to them and to them only.

"Right," he said. And again Judy wished the hard line would not show so quickly at the corner of Dick's mouth; wished she knew why his eyes seemed so worried, sometimes, for a second only. But she said nothing.

"They're 10 minutes late now," he said, chuckling. "Ought to be along soon. So I'm leaving you. I'm not supposed to have anything to do with your being here, you see. The client and I will be upstairs, with the salesman—because I'm to announce the program and he wants my advice on the voices. But—"

"But that's hardly right. Dick. Because—"

He chuckled again. "Because I'll vote for you? Oh, but I won't. The minute I get up there I don't even know you. And if some other voice is really better than your's, Judy, then all I can do is—"

"Is say so. Of course," Judy agreed, smiling. But a small jealous voice in her heart insisted that there are moments when too much honesty is hardly kind.

"I will."

He was gone. She could see him talking for a moment with the gold-toothed radio man. Then a third man appeared, a thin, dark man she never had seen before. This man took the place the gold-toothed man had occupied. Some one turned on the lights. The studio glared now, and Judy felt the intense heat of the big clusters of lights overhead.

The big door of the studio opened. A girl appeared. A new girl. Not a girl. A woman. Fifty, at least. Wearing too much rouge. With the remainder of a young beauty that had gone a long time ago. With—Judy saw now—with runover heels and a long run in one stocking, carefully mended. And a coat grown shiny in its desperate effort to go on being smart.

"Oh," the woman said. "I'm not first after all, then?"

She talked like a woman in a play, putting each word by itself. She made a sort of ritual of opening her coat, of sitting down beside Judy. Then she coughed genteely.

"I'm Alicia Renavent. It's French," she said, all in a breath.

"Oh. I'm Judy Allison."

"Indeed?"

"Yes. He had heard about my work. And so he sent for me. And—"

Suddenly, she reeled slightly. She steadied herself with one hand. Then her eyes closed. Her face was stark white.

Judy jumped up, looked around the studio. Water, of course. Water. In the hall she saw a water cooler. She ran into the hall, breathless, soaked her handkerchief in the icy water, ran back, dabbed hurriedly at the woman's face. She did not move. Now Judy waved frantically at the dark man in the control room. He did not seem to see her. She shook the woman, slightly, then harder. The woman's hands fell down at her sides limp and frightening.

"Wait! I'll get somebody!"

Now people appeared. The girl—it had been the blonde girl of yesterday's audition. And two young boys, pages, ushers, messengers by turn. And a man who stared at the unconscious woman, muttered something, suddenly was beside her, ordering the boys to get a doctor, to help him carry the woman to a room where she could lie down, to bring water.

"Better get her over across the hall into that client's room," the blonde girl cut in, practical and unflurried. "She's just fainted, that's all. Done it myself a couple of times. Here, son. You're a good strong boy. Help the lady."

The man and the boys struggled across the hall with the woman. Judy followed, terrified. But the blonde girl stopped her.

"Been living for four months on 30 cents a day, she says. Money ran out a couple of days ago. Got a bad cold. Maybe pneumonia, she thinks. I'm getting a doctor."

"No," the blonde girl said. "She'll be taken care of—now somebody knows she's starving. But it's tough, before you finally have to tell 'em. Yep."

"You mean you—"

"Me?" The girl laughed. "I got pretty hungry trouping, so I came home. I live with the folks now. That makes it all right on the food. But before I got wise to myself and came home—"

Before I got wise to myself! Suppose she, Judy Allison, were that woman across the hall, being taken off to a charity hospital, being fed by the city? Suppose it happened some day? It could.

Girls moved past Judy going into the studio. Some of the same girls she had seen the first time. Some new girls. All of them intent, each of them keeping up her own pretense of success. Girls who came up from this little town or that to be successful in Chicago. Girls who might be hungry tomorrow; who might be living on 30 cents a day right now.

MARSHAL'S OFFICE ABOLITION VOTED

Joint Committee Approves Transfer of Duties to Tax Department.

Abolition of the office of city marshal, effective January 1, 1933, and placing of the duties under the direction of tax receivers and the tax collector, was approved Friday afternoon at a joint meeting of the tax and ordinance committees of council.

Claude L. Barnwell, chairman of the tax group, presided at the meeting and a special committee composed of Councilman John A. White, author of the measure; Alderman Farris A. Mitchell and Councilman J. W. Weaver will wait on members of the city democratic executive committee in an effort to gain assurance that refunds will be made to those qualifying for the position in the event council abolishes the post at its next regular meeting, April 18.

Entry lists in the primary close at noon April 16, and unless the agreement to make the refunds can be obtained, a special meeting of council will be called Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mayor James L. Key has announced.

White told the committee the consolidation would save about $10,000 a year and would react to enhancement of the service rendered to the public. He said other modern cties, which are not involved in financial troubles, are merging departments and eliminating duplications of services.

Committee Near Vote On Heflin, Bankhead

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—The senate elections committee neared a vote today on the Heflin-Bankhead contest, as counsel for former Senator Heflin made their final arguments in an effort to unseat Senator Bankhead, democrat, Alabama.

Counsel for Bankhead will make final arguments tomorrow and a vote is expected within a few days.

In their concluding arguments, Heflin's attorneys reviewed the evidence which was accumulated by a subcommittee in its year-long investigation of the election, but stressed particularly their contention that the primary which nominated Bankhead was illegal.

EXPELLED EDITOR TO SUE COLUMBIA, ATTORNEY REVEALS

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Reed Harris, expelled student-editor of the Columbia University Spectator, plans to sue the institution.

The suit, in the nature of a test of the right of universities to expel students, will demand $100,000, Attorney Raymond L. Wise said.

"We are motivated by the principle of the freedom of the press rather than any desire to get Harris back into the universtiy," the lawyer said.

Harris, whose editorials have aroused bitter controversies, was expelled after he attacked the food and management at John Jay hall dining room. A protest strike of students Wednesday caused a riot.

EX-ATLANTAN ADMITS TENNESSEE BANK RAID

BOLIVAR, Tenn., April 8.—(AP)—O. B. Gordon, 35, surrendered today to Sheriff L. H. Nelms and purportedly confessed he and John Williams, of Haleyville, Ala., held up the Merchants & Planters bank of Toone, Tenn., Tuesday and escaped with approximately $3,600 in cash and bonds.

Sheriff Nelms quoted Gordon as saying he surrendered to gain the release of Charles Wiggins, uncle of John Wiggins, and George Richie, farmers, who were being held for allegedly shielding the participants in the robbery.

Gordon, the sheriff said, told him he and Wiggins moved to Memphis from Atlanta early in January and operated a cafe there until two weeks ago. The sheriff also said Gordon told him that he and Wiggins robbed two banks in Alabama before locating in Memphis, but he declined to name the banks.

The sheriff said Wiggins has a wife and four children at Haleyville.

TEXAS COTTON ACREAGE TO BE CUT 9.8 PER CENT

DALLAS, Texas, April 8.—(UP)—The Dallas News says that Texas cotton acreage will be reduced 9.8 per cent this year from that of last year, if farmers carry out planting intentions reported in the newspaper's first cotton survey of the year.

"Greatest reduction appears to be in the irrigated districts of west Texas, here production costs have been greatly out of line with prices," the News says.

"For the nine Texas geographic divisions the percentage of decrease is shown as follows: Northwest, 4.4; north, 9.5; northeast, 10.7; west 15.7; west central, 11.1; central, 10.6; east, 11.9; south, 13.3; southeast, 11.8; state average, 9.8 per cent."

4 TENNESSEEANS HELD IN NIGHT RIDING QUIZ

DRESDEN, Tenn., April 8.—(AP)—Four farmers were under arrest here today as "night riders."

Sheriff Will Dunn said the men were arrested near Greenfield late yesterday after he investigated reports that a band of "terrorists" was attempting to drive negroes from the Greenfield community to make work for white men. The sheriff predicted other arrests. He is being aided by state fire marshals.

Cross Sections of Life In Gate City of South

Condemnation proceedings by the government of approximately 2,500 acres of land in Union, Fannin and White counties for addition to the Cherokee national forest were under way Friday with papers for service placed in the hands of the United States marshal by Assistant District Attorney Robert M. Cook. Already this week Mr. Cook has finished condemnation of 6,000 acres of land in Murray county for addition to the forest, and within 30 days money for its purchase at $4.25 an acre will be paid into the court to be drawn by the Conasauga River Lumber Company, original owners of the land.

Federal district court will move to Gainesville on April 25 and on the third Monday in May will open a session at Rome as part of the March term of court, it was announced Friday by Harry Moses, clerk of the district attorney's office. The present criminal calendar of the court here is slated to continue through Tuesday, but the March term will not be concluded until the first Monday in October.

Grady Kinsey, jointly indicted in federal court with R. H. ("Red") Wood on a charge of transporting a stolen automobile from Hattiesburg, Miss., to Atlanta on October 15, 1930, entered a plea of guilty before Judge E. Marvin Underwood Friday and was given a year and a day in the federal penitentiary. The sentence is to date from February 1, as he has been in jail since that date. Wood, for whose shooting A. D. Poole, son of A. Lamar Poole, chief of city detectives, was acquitted on charges of assault with intent to murder, has not been tried on the charge.

C. B. Louhon and E. C. Rankin, examiners of the department of justice, with headquarters in Washington, Friday were conducting the routine annual audit of court records of federal district court. Their work will continue for several more weeks, it was said.

Jete Manus, George Parris and Mrs. Minnie Shepard, arrested in a still raid in a home at Buckhead last week, were dismissed by federal authorities when arraigned before United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith Friday. Federal charges were dismissed at request of the district attorney's office when it was shown that the three were indicted and had pleaded guilty in the state courts, it being held that they were suffiicently punished in this court. They were represented by Joe Ewing, attorney.

Old-time revival services will be held at the Second Baptist church at East Point at 8 o'clock Sunday night and continuing through Sunday, April 24. The Rev. Jack L. Waddell, the pastor, will connect the services.

"William Booth's Place in History" will be the subject of the annual cadets' oratorical contest to be held at the Salvation Army Temple auditorium at 8 o'clock Monday night. Four students will participate and the winner of this contest will represent the south in the national finals at San Francisco in May. Preston S. Arkwright will preside, and prominent citizens of Atlanta will serve as judges.

Hugh M. Garrett, of East Point, will conduct revival services at the Grant Park Church of Christ Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of next week, it was announced by the Rev. Lester C. Goodson.

"The Jewish Nation; Its Laws and Courts" will be the subject of an address by Judge John D. Humphries, of Fulton superior court, at the open forum meeting at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the Henry Grady hotel. J. Ira Harrelson, president of the board of education, will preside as chairman.

Business Women's League of the Second Baptist church will meet at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the main Bible school auditorium of the church. The Rev. John Moore Walker, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will speak. A devotional program will follow.

Tax Payers' League's opposition to the proposed increase in the county tax rate; its ward organization plans, and the appeal of H. Y. McCord, chairman of the organization committee, to all members to urge properly qualified candidates to run in the May 25 primary, were principal topics of discussion at the Ninth ward organization meeting of the league, held in Moreland school.

Judge Shepard Bryan will address the Bible class of the Church of the Epiphany at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning, it was announced by the Rev. Russell K. Smith, rector.

Further improvement was noted Friday in the condition of Colonel George M. Napier, attorney-general of Georgia, who became suddenly ill and collapsed during a civic meeting at Gainesville, Ga., last Tuesday evening. At the Napier home it was reported that Colonel Napier was resting comfortably, remaining in bed in compliance with his physician's orders.

F. A. White, who was shot through the eye in an alleged attempt to rob the Rogers store at 201 Marietta street on March 22, Friday was indicted by the Fulton grand jury for robbery. White was shot by Odis Oglesby, city superintendent for Rogers.

Fulton superior court will recess Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 2, 3 and 4, in order to allow Atlanta attorneys and judges to attend the state bar association meeting at Albany, it was announced Friday.

Seventeen additional lottery indictments were returned Friday by the Fulton county grand jury. More than 100 cases have been set for trial this month and others will be added to the calendar soon, it was said.

Advertising of the transfer of Roswell district from Cobb county to Fulton county was ordered Friday by Ordinary Thomas H. Jeffries, of Fulton. The boundary line shift has been approved by the grand juries and county commissions of both counties and will become effective after it is advertised for 30 days.

C. R. Stallings, of 853 Ponce de Leon place, N. E., was slightly injured Friday when he was struck by an automobile as he crossed Peachtree street at Five Points. The car which struck Stallings was driven by H. L. Scott, 591 Fowler street, according to police reports. Stallings was given treatment at Grady hospital and dismissed.

Major B. F. White's Sacred Harp Singers will hold their first all-day singing of the season at 9 o'clock Sunday morning at the West Atlanta Primitive Baptist church, Kennedy and Vine streets, it was announced Friday by R. C. Gloer, secretary. The public is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served on the grounds.

Prominent members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will attend the meeting of the directors of the state Jaycee organization to be held in Columbus today. Atlanta's party will include Dr. Rayford W. Tharpe, president of the local organization; George Yancey, secretary; William Tumlin, Frank Hill, Jack Patterson, Joe Ray, executive vice president of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce, and others.

Increase in the operating expense of the Georgia public service commission, made necessary by the extended supervision of motor carriers, was reflected in an audit filed with Governor Russell Friday. Expenses for 1931 were in excess of $100,000 as compared with a normal operating cost ranging between $60,000 and $70,000.

Eight miles of paving in Toombs county was added to the list of projects which will be awarded April 21, the state highway board announced Friday. A total of 90 miles of paving will be contracted for at a figure estimated between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

Offices of the state department of public welfare were moved Friday from the first floor of the main capitol building to the second floor of the military building. The motor vehicle division, now being housed in the capitol rotunda, will be moved to the offices vacated by the welfare department.

Mrs. E. E. Harris, 148 Harris street, N. W., was seriously injured Friday night when she was struck by an automobile as she stepped into Luckie street between Cain and Hayden. Mrs. Harris suffered a broken pelvis and broken leg. She was taken to Grady hospital. The automobile was driven by H. A. Calhoun, 264 Techwood drive, against whom reckless driving charges were booked.

J. T. Laughter, 879 Wylie street, was seriously stabbed Friday night by a negro bootlegger known only as "Brown." Laughter was stabbed in the right side of his chest, the knife penetrating a lung. The knifing occurred on Wylie street near the A. & W. P. railway crossing. The assailant escaped.

Prospect that a new Whitehall street viaduct will be in service by July 1 was seen Friday by Clarke Donaldson, chief of construction. Donaldson said efforts are being made to expedite work so that the bridge probably will be ready for travel by June 1, but that the program is still embryonic.

Monthly instead of semi-monthly meetings of Mayor James L. Key's traffic commission were voted Friday at a meeting of that body at the city hall.

Recorder John L. Cone Friday urged higher traffic fines and stockade sentences for hit-and-run drivers at a luncheon of operators of fleets of trucks sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He asserted that school children should be educated as to proper conduct in the streets.

Atlanta chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants gave a dinner and smoker Friday night at the Atlanta Athletic Club. A program of music by Graham Jackson, negro pianist, and a card of boxing and wrestling was arranged by T. J. Doran, of the Davison-Paxon Company. Joe Bean refereed the matches. The president of the Atlanta chapter is Paul Millians.

Mrs. M. H. Margeson announced Friday that the Cameo theater had been obtained for the weekly charity picture show Sunday afternoon. "The Spoilers," with Gary Cooper, Betty Compson, and William Boyd, will be shown, Mrs. Margeson said. Prices will be 10 and 25 cents.

U. S. HALTS ACTIVITIES OF NAVAL RESERVE

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Discontinuance of naval reserve aviators during the next fiscal year was announced Thursday by the navy department.

The navy also said five old ships used for naval reserve training on the Great Lakes would be decommissioned about September 1. The discontinuance of the training and decommissioning of the ships was explained as an economy move. The savings from training discontinuance, it was estimated, will be $516,000. The savings from the decommissioning of the vessels will be approximately $36,000 a year.

SEAFARER VISITS LINDBERGH HOME

HOPEWELL, N. J., April 8.—(UP)—Persistent reports that the kidnaped son of Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh was being held at sea were strengthened today by the appearance at the Lindbergh home of a nautical visitor from the vicinity of Martha's Vineyard.

The caller talked with police at the famous airman's estate on Sourland mountain and was said to have told part of his story to Lindbergh. One version of his information was that he had been watching a mysterious ship off the New England coast, presumably a rum runner, and that one day he saw drying on the decks what he believed to be an infant's clothes.

Although they admitted they had talked with a man from New England, police declined to give his name or the nature of the information that he was said to have brought here.

"Contact" Trip.

Last week-end Lindbergh was reported to have made a hasty airplane trip to Martha's Vineyard, supposedly in an attempt to make a contact with those in possession of his 21-month-old son.

Henry (Red) Johnson, sailor sweetheart of Betty Gow, the Lindbergh nurse, was turned over to the immigration authorities today for possible deportation, thus ending his possible connection with the kidnaping.

Questioned repeatedly during the last month, but never placed under formal arrest until his detention for the United States immigration bureau, Johnson will be charged only with having entered the country illegally.

Every development of the day at Hopewell was negative, according to police bulletins, and the usual crop of rumors that the "baby has been returned" were once more denied.

Second Visitor.

Another visitor arrived at the Lindbergh home during the day and was received at the house. He identified himself as Charles Ward, a banker from North Arlington, who was there, he said, "by appointment."

At Norfolk, the three "negotiators" who have believed they were in touch with the kidnapers, remained silent, and the Virginia front apparently had settled down to a period of watchful waiting.

A neighbor of the Lindberghs reported today he saw the colonel leave his home at 9 a. m. in a brown sedan, and drive along the Wertsville road towards Stroudsburg. Lindbergh, he said, was alone.

CHARLES HARTZELL PASSES IN SAN JUAN

SAN JUAN, P. R., April 8.—(AP)—Charles Hartzell, who was secretary of Porto Rico under the McKinley administration, died today after a long illness at the age of 70.

LORD NORTH.

DANBURY, England, April 8.—(AP)—Lord North, Great Britain's oldest peer, died yesterday at 95. He succeeded to the title when his mother died in 1884.

CORNELIUS J. SULLIVAN.

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Cornelius J. Sullivan, noted attorney, died today in Indo, Cal., after a brief illness, his associates were informed tonight. He was 62. He was once a partner in the law firm of Nichol, Anable, Fuller & Sullivan, and included among his clients the American Tobacco Company, the New York Giants baseball club and James A. Stillman, banker.

MARK SUTTON.

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 8.—(AP)—Mark Sutton, 60, a leading cotton goods manufacturer, died today. Mr. Sutton came here from England in 1889. He leaves three sons.

MISSISSIPPI SENATE HITS ADMINISTRATION

JACKSON, Miss., April 8.—(AP)—Forecasts that the present session of the legislature, which has been sitting for 14 weeks, might continue until well into the summer were made today as the senate joined the house in rejecting the administration's proposal for a recess to allow the joint committee on governmental reorganization to work on a full-time basis.

Meanwhile, as the legislators adjourned for the week-end, a conference committee from the house and senate started work on their job of reconciling differences between the two chambers on the sales tax measure, over which the legislature has been deadlocked for weeks. The measure passed the house carrying the administration-indorsed 3 per cent but was practically rewritten in the senate, which made the proposed tax 2 per cent.

JACKSON CONTRACTORS AND LABORERS AGREE

JACKSON, Miss., April 8.—(AP)—Agreement between a group of unemployed laborers and Jackson contractors was reached late today after a threatened disturbance at noon when an assembly of white men forced negro laborers employed on demolishing a building recently damaged by fire, to suspend work.

The white unemployed protested against the 50-cent per day scale being paid for the work and asked that an equal number of white and negro labor be used.

At a conference attended by Mayor Scott, Linn Keys, director of the federal employment bureau, city commissioners and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, it was agreed to raise the wage scale to $2 per day and to employ half white and half negro labor, Keys said.

DECLINE IS SHOWN IN WHEAT ESTIMATE

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Winter wheat production this year was estimated today by the department of agriculture at 458,000,000 bushels as indicated by a condition of 75.8 per cent of a normal on April 1.

Last year 787,465,000 bushels were produced and in 1930 production was 601,840,000 bushels.

The condition of the crop on April 1 last year was 88.8 per cent of a normal and the 10-year April 1 average was 80.9 per cent.

The area sown to winter wheat in the autumn of last year was 38,368,000 acres, or 10.4 per cent less than sown in the autumn of 1930.

The condition of rye on April 1 this year was 79 per cent of a normal, compared with 81.6 per cent a year ago and 85.2 per cent for the 10-year average.

Pastures on April 1 were reported 73.8 per cent of a normal, compared with 76.1 last year and 82.7 per cent the five-year average.

Early potatoes, including all potatoes for harvest before September 1, was 63.4 per cent of a normal, compared with 79.1 per cent a year ago, and 80.8 per cent, the five-year average.

Oats 67.7 per cent as compared with 83.3 and 76.7.

Peaches 33.4 per cent compared with 71.8 and 71.8.

FLETCHER TO SPEAK TO HARD OF HEARING

The Rev. Robert E. Fletcher, of Birmingham, Ala., will preach to the Hard of Hearing League for the Hard of Hearing at the parish house at St. Philips cathedral at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Members of the league and their friends are invited.

Rev. Fletcher.

Mr. Fletcher, himself deaf, is a graduate of the College for the Deaf in Washington, D. C., and fills a regular pastorate in several cities. Through close study and training he has developed his speech until his lips are exceptionally easy to read. He preaches to the deaf in sign language.

CAPONE AIDE SOUGHT IN SALOON SLAYINGS

CHICAGO, April 8.—(AP)—Shotgun slugs, fired at close range, brought death last night to Benjamin Applequist, 43, and his brother, Ernest, 40, apparently while they were tending bar in their small speakeasy. Their slayers ecaped.

Evidently the killers posed as customers, but what their motive was remained a puzzle to police. Labor, politics and beer running were suggested.

The police said they learned that Benjamin Applequist but recently told a friend that "Dago" Lawrence Mangano, a "public enemy" and Capone henchman, had warned him to quit selling beer. He said he quit, but hoped to start up again. Mangano was being sought.

Georgia Getting Dryer, Federal Deputy Asserts

H. P. Wright, deputy prohibition administrator for the United States in this district of Georgia, asserted Friday that day by day Georgia is growing dryer and dryer.

The tendency toward better observance of the prohibition law may be attributed to any number of causes, he asserted, including the fact that distillers are learning that the game doesn't pay, and because of the depression. He stated that there is nothing to the myth that many farmers are becoming distillers in order to drive the wolf from the door, but that as a matter of fact his records show the contrary to be true.

POWERS DISAGREE IN DANUBE CRISIS

London Conference Disrupted by Demands of Germany and Italy.

LONDON, April 8.—(AP)—The "big four"—Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany—ended their conference on southeastern Europe's commercial crisis today in disagreement, but decided to continue the effort through the League of Nations council at Geneva next week.

Thus ended two speedy parleys within the wek to solve the urgent financial impasse among the "little five"—Austria, Hungary, Jugo-Slavia, Czecho-Slovakia and Rumania.

First Premiers Andre Tardieu, of France, and Ramsay MacDonald, of Great Britain, sought the solution on Sunday and Monday. Then Italy and Germany came into the negotiations on Wednesday.

The hitch developed over the refusal of Germany and Italy to waive their rights to most-favored-nation treatment from the little five. France and Great Britain wanted to let the little five make customs and fiscal arrangements among themselves.

It was brought out at the conference that tariff wars in middle Europe in recent months have reduced the exchange of goods in some cases, for example between Czecho-Slovakia and Hungary, to one one-hundredth of normal.

A high British official dealing with the situation tonight said that in his view the Danubian countries were going to "rack and ruin."

After the four-power conference agreed on the nature and urgency of the Danubian problem and adjourned, most of the delegates left for Geneva for the recurrent conferences of the League.

It was expected that the Danubian nations themselves would be represented at the forthcoming meetings in Geneva.

Premier MacDonald said it would be a mistake to call the conference a failure; Dino Grandi, of Italy, said the conferees did the best they could; Herr Von Buelow, of Germany, said three days were not enough for a conference, and Pierre Flandin, of France, continued to pin his faith on a preferential tariff project.

Long's Hospitality Silences Truth As Dunking Gets Technical Victory

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Senator Huey Long entertained a dozen senators today at a "pot likker" lunch prepared in the senate restaurant under his personal direction.

The formal introduction of "pot likker" to that restaurant had been scheduled for next week and Long had sent to Louisiana for the ingredients. But he suddenly became impatient and sent his clerks scurrying around the city for turnip greens and "four bits worth of dry salt meat."

At the outset of the luncheon, a dispute arose over the proper method of eating the bread which goes along with "pot likker." Long is a partisan of the "dunk 'em" plan, which means dipping as contrasted with "crumbling" the bread.

He demonstrated to his guests the way to "dunk 'em" and called for a raising of the hands to decide the issue. Party lines were broken as the "dunk 'em" system won.

Among the senators invited to the repast were Senators Logan, Sheppard, Shipstead, Fletcher, Brookhart, Robinson, of Arkansas; George, Bulow, Neely and Black.

Long was confident that his favorite repast would become popular in senate circles. A great believer in southern cooking, he said:

"The Civil War was caused more by northern cooks down south trying to put sugar in cornbread than from anything else."

Later Long said "everybody was delighted" with the "pot likker."

"Brookhart, who had never eaten it before in his life, ate it all," he said. "The only drawback was that he went Hugo Black's way and crumbled instead of my 'dunk 'em' way.

"It goes to show there is a very evident drift of the people toward dunking of bread. Some of the lower strata like Black and Brookhart crumbled, but Joe Robinson and Morris Sheppard dunked."

GARNER MAY LOSE VOTER ACCOUNT OF TURNIP GREENS

LUBBOCK, Texas, April 8.—(AP)—Speaker Jack Garner's announced intention of eating turnip greens as a side dish with a ham presented him by west Texas admirers threatened today to alienate the electoral support of the donors.

Colonel Clark M. Mullican, judge of the district court and additionally somewhat a judge of culinary punctilio, offered himself as spokesman for the group. The judge said members were considering secession from the local Garner-for-President club and enlistment under Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, of Oklahoma, who eats bacon with his turnip greens.

It is bacon, the judge insisted, that is eaten with turnip greens.

Civil Liberties Union's Rights Challenged by Kentucky Official

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 8.—(AP)—A challenge to the American Civil Liberties Union to carry out its announced intention of sending a delegation to the Bell and Harlan county coal fields in Kentucky was issued today by Walter B. Smith, Bell county attorney, in an open letter to Arthur Garfield Hays, of New York, attorney for the union.

"We dare you to come under the veiled camouflage of your pretense of 'constitutional rights,'" wrote the youthful prosecutor, who two weeks ago directed the ejection of 80 eastern college students from southeastern Kentucky. He termed the union a "meddler" and "un-American."

Smith made public his letter while at the capital to arrange with Governor Ruby Laffoon for the annual mountain laurel and rhododendron festival near Pineville in June. He was a silent observer in the office of the governor's secretary when a delegation of five representatives from Commonwealth College of Mena, Ark., left a statement for the governor outlining their relief mission to Bell and Harlan counties. The governor was ill and the delegation continued its journey without interviewing him. Smith went to Cincinnati for a visit without revealing what his attitude would be toward the Arkansas delegation.

In his letter to Hays, Smith attacked the American Civil Liberties Union as communistic and atheistic.

"You are a Godless, self-appointed, nondescript, iconclastic minority of grandiloquent egotists who arrogate to yourselves the right to meddle in courts, in legislature, in educational institutions and in other people's business everywhere with a pompous air of immunity for your insolent conduct," he wrote Hays.

"Under your high-sounding name, and your play upon the constitutional articles in the bill of rights, you seek to create a smoke-screen behind which to effect your devilish uncivil and un-American designs.

"You now have struck a snag in your hitherto uninterrupted course of deception against the unsuspecting public," he continued. "In choosing Kentucky and Bell county as a ground to test your hypocritical pretenses, you have gotten your foot into it. As American patriots, we are glad that you have chosen our soil as the battleground.

"We will welcome the opportunity to tear off your whitewash and let the American people, the president, the congress now in session and all the reading public understand for once the black alien, treasonous purposes behind 'the American Civil Liberties Union' and all its allied affiliations. . . . Your propagandists have tried to create the impression that the people of the Cumberland mountain are a a set of gun thugs, terrorists and ignoramuses. It ought to be easy for so smart a bunch as the American Civil Liberties Union to match your giant strength against so feeble a peasantry. But, you have picked the ground and have drawn the issue. With your swaggering threats, you have instigated the proceedings. . . . In the language of one of our famous Kentuckians of other days, I say to you, 'It is now time for you to put up or shut up!'"

Reviewing the Shows

"Dancers in the Dark," At Paramount Today

The rejuvenated Paramount offers a fast-moving story of New York night life, with plenty of comedy and breath-taking drama in "Dancers in the Dark," which opens there today. Miriam Hopkins, the vivacious new star, is the principal member of the cast while Jack Oakie and Eugene Pallette are outstanding for their excellent work. It is a story revolving around the love and adventures of a "taxi dancer," one of those girls who make a living as hostess in a dance palace, dancing with anyone for 10 cents a dance.

The program of RKO vaudeville is headed by one of the funniest and most popular of modern acts, "Pop" Cameron and his family, consisting of Ma and the two kids. Their act is fast moving, funny and, above all, clever.

Adolphe Kornspan has another great overture for the Paramount concert orchestra while the program is rounded out with more of the short screen subjects that help make this theater so popular.

Bill Haines Is at Fox In "Are You Listening?"

William Haines in "Are You Listening?" which opens a week's run at the Fox theater today, has a role which shows him in a new type of performance, a highly emotional dramatic story. It is based upon a radio broadcasting station background, with satire, comedy, sex triangle and, finally, a killing, and the tabloid newspaper pursuit of the killer to give the big closing punch. Madge Evans, Karen Morley and Joan Marsh are the chief feminine contributions to the cast.

On the stage the Fox's new bill features the Fanchon and Marco "Black and White" idea. Fast moving and colorful. Enrico Leide conducts the Fox concert orchestra in a production overture, while Al Evans at the organ and short screen subjects round out the entertainment offering.

Sought by Friends.

Will Smith, negro, is being sought by John Williams and others of Madison, Ga., who are completing a real estate deal in which he is interested and has several hundred dollars due him. Smith is asked to get in touch with or go to Madison immediately.

Capitol Has Another "Cohens and Kellys"

Charlie Murray and George Sidney, perennial companions in slapstick humor are back again, this time in a picture entitled "The Cohens and Kellys in Hollywood." It is at the Capitol theater, to run through today and Monday.

If you remember any of the series of "Cohens and Kellys," pictures you know the type of comedy it provides. A type apparently popular with a large proportion of screen audiences. Scenes are laid in Hollywood and quite a number of famous stars are used in the production as "atmosphere" effect.

Jimmy Beers at the organ, a Bing Crosby short and other short subjects, including the newsreel with McNamee comment attached, complete the bill.

RALPH T. JONES.

Buck Jones Rangers At the Georgia at 9

This morning at 9 o'clock at the Georgia theater the Buck Jones Rangers' Club of Atlanta will hold its second meeting.

Aunt Sally of radio fame and Jack Rand, the dancer, will be on hand to assist the children in making their meeting full of pep and fun. In addition there will be held contests in all the arts in which the cowboy of yesterday gloried.

Healthy minds in healthy bodies is the purpose of the Rangers. Everyone remembers and never grows tired of hearing tales of the romantic west. From these lives of the American pioneers, their rules for clean living, thinking and acting were formed the great laws upon which the Buck Jones Rangers Club was founded. This club reaches the children in their impressionistic age. All children between 6 and 14 who are interested and want to become good citizens are asked to meet at the Georgia theater this morning at 9 and have a lot of fun.

New Georgia Feature Is "Five-Star Final"

That picture of tabloid newspaper melodrama, "Five-Star Final," that Atlantans have been asking for for months, is at last here. It will be shown at the Georgia theater today, Monday and Tuesday. It is a powerful drama of the ruthlessness of a tabloid newspaper in its efforts to build circulation by disregarding human sympathy and decency. Edward G. Robinson is magnificent as the managing editor, while the rest of the cast is perfectly suited to the story. Screen shorts complete the bill.

John Barrymore in New Rialto Feature

"The Mad Genius," new feature starting today at the Rialto, gives John Barrymore ample opportunity for the typically splendid Barrymore acting. It is the story of a man with the soul of a great dancer, embittered and twisted because of a lame foot which forever bars him from realization of his dreams. His efforts to mould a young boy into the greatest dancer of the world and how fate foils his ambition forms the theme of the picture.

THE WONDERLAND OF OZ — No. 6 — Based on the stories by L. Frank Baum

Although Tip protested that he had not been making fun of her, old Mombi hushed him. "You get along home," she said. So the three of them set out . . . Mombi holding fast to Tip's ear and Jack Pumpkinhead following them . . . his smile just as jolly as ever. When they reached the farmhouse old Mombi led the Pumpkin man to the stable and shut him in an empty stall, fastening the door securely on the outside. "I've got to attend to you first," she said, nodding at Tip.

Copyrighted 1932, Reilly & Lee Co.

Hearing this, the boy became uneasy, for he knew Mombi had a bad and revengeful heart and would not hesitate to do any evil thing. They entered the house which was dome-shaped like most of the farmhouses in the Land of Oz. Then, while old Mombi was fumbling in her basket, she bade the boy light a candle. This done, she made him build a fire on the hearth. Tip obeyed quickly, for by this time he was heartily afraid of her.

While Tip was building the fire Mombi drew from her basket several mysterious looking packages which she put on the table. Then she went to the cupboard and got some bread and cheese which she proceeded to eat. When the flames began to crackle, the boy went to her and asked for a share of the food. "I'm hungry," he said in a sulky tone. "You won't be hungry long," replied Mombi with a grim look.

The boy didn't like this speech as it sounded like a threat. Old Mombi, her meal finished, hung a black kettle over the fire. Then she measured out equal parts of milk and vinegar and poured them into the kettle. Next she produced several packets of herbs and powders, adding a portion of each to the contents of the kettle. "Is that for me?" asked the boy. "Yes," replied Mombi. "What will it do to me?" he inquired. "If it's properly made," replied Mombi, "it will transform you into a marble statue."

CAPITAL OF FLORIDA WITHOUT PUBLIC CLOCK

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 8.—(AP)—The time-tolling bells in the belfry of the Presbyterian church here were silenced today and Florida's capital was left without a public clock.

The ancient clock had no face and it had no hands, but faithfully for many years it tolled out the hours of day and night, and its ringing bells could be heard for blocks around.

Now the old clock has passed on, removed by workmen engaged in remodeling the church.

JUDGE DEFIES CHIEF, CALLS CAPONE QUIZ

CHICAGO, April 8.—(AP)—Rebellion against his superiors, Circuit Judge Michael Feinberg impaneled a special grand jury today to delve into charges of Capone terrorism in the primary campaign which will end next Tuesday.

This impaneling, in defiance of orders from Chief Justice Harry Fisher, of the criminal court, and the vote of his own colleagues on the circuit bench, created an open rebellion in the Chicago judiciary.

Instead of using regular jury rooms in the criminal courts building, Judge Feinberg ordered the special grand jury to meet in the county building.

Deputy sheriffs sent by Chief Justice Fisher with an order for the special jurors to appear in his courtroom, and not in that of Judge Feinberg, arrived too late.

In addition to alleged terrorist tactics in the campaign, the quiz was directed to include charges made by State's Attorney John Swanson that Feinberg had mishandled receiverships, racketeering in labor unions and vice. Swanson and Feinberg both seek the republican nomination as state's attorney.

GILMER'S QUOTA OF VICTORY FUND PAID BY EDWARDS

Gilmer county's faith in democratic success this fall was substantially established Friday when Watkins Edwards, that county's member of the general assembly, personally subscribed the $200 quota for the victory campaign fund.

Edwards, who was in Atlanta attending federal court, called on Cam D. Dorsey, state victory camp[illegible]n chairman, and made the full subscription. He said that he was confident Gilmer democrats desired to be among the first to raise their quota.

Chairman Dorsey announced Friday that Bobby Jones and L. W. (Chip) Robert have sent out several hundred letters to democratic friends in Georgia asking that contributions be forwarded to state headquarters for the victory drive.

FORGER ACTIVE AGAIN, SOUTHERN RY. WARNS

Warning that the forger passing bogus Southern Railway auditor's checks, whose operations were reported in November, is again on the job, was given Friday by W. L. Eagle, captain of police for the Southern, who stated that two such checks were cashed by merchants in Gainesville, Ga., this week.

Merchants and bankers throughout the south have been warned to be on the lookout for this operator. The two checks cashed in Gainesville were drawn on a Cincinnati bank, made payable to J. A. Martin, signed by R. B. Groves and countersigned by J. H. Converse. The checks used by this forger, says Captain Eagle, are all carefully printed, signed, countersigned, numbered and have the amounts filled in by check-writing machines.

Saturday is the favorite day for operations of this character, Captain Eagle said, as this causes delay in discovery of the fraud. The usual procedure of the forger is to make purchases and then tender the bogus check in payment, calling for a considerable amount of cash in change.

MRS. IDA L. FIELD, 52, DIES IN JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. Ida L. Field, 52, former resident of Atlanta and mother of Mrs. F. H. Carroll, of 1576 West Peachtree street, died Friday in Jacksonville, Fla., where she had made her home for the last year. A native of Adairsville, Ga., Mrs. Field resided for more than 12 years in Atlanta and was a member of the Baptist tabernacle here. She is survived by her daughter and two sons, Howard Field, of Jacksonville, with whom she made her home, and John Field, of New York city. Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Jacksonville.

YOUTH GIVEN TERM IN KIDNAPING CASE

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 8.—(UP)—Fred Howard, 16, of Manitowoc, Wis., today was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment in connection with the kidnaping of 8-year-old Alton Joseph, whom he is said to have held captive for 24 hours in a rooming house.

The youth received maximum punishment for kidnaping in Mississippi. He is said to have attempted to get other small boys to go to his hotel room before the Joseph lad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malick Joseph, was abducted.

MALPRACTICE CHARGED IN DENTISTRY SCHOOL

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 8.—(AP)—The state board of dental examiners is studying a petition received from a group of Memphis dentists charging "illegal practices" at the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry here. Dr. George L. Powers, president of the board, announced that he had received a petition signed by 118 Memphis dentists citing alleged objectionable practices of the dental college faculty including alleged excessive charges for dental practice by college students, organized propaganda in Memphis schools and other sources to secure patients at the dental clinic and private practice by faculty members.

Emory Given Portrait Of Dr. Westmoreland

A portrait of the late Dr. J. D. Westmoreland was presented to the Emory University hospital Friday night at a ceremony held in the hospital auditorium, following the April meeting of the hospital visiting staff.

The portrait was the gift of Mrs. Julius De Give, of Atlanta. Dr. J. L. Campbell made the presentation address, and Dr. R. H. Oppenheimer, superintendent of the hospital and dean of the Emory medical school, accepted on behalf of the hospital.

Several other portraits of prominent physicians who have at one time or another been connected with the Emory medical school or hospital have been acquired recently by the hospital. The painting of Dr. Westmoreland, who was a distinguished Atlanta physician, was added to this gallery.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY.

Short covering rippled over the market shortly after noon and again toward the close, but neither flurry carried conviction and in the last few minutes quotations slumped to within fractional distance of the earlier lows.

As for bonds, few but United States governments could withstand the prevailing desire for liquidity. Wheat tumbled 2 to 3 cents. Volume of stock sales expanded to 2,145,680 shares, the largest total since February 19.

Dispatches from Washington mentioned increasing senatorial resistance to the stock transfer tax idea and also told of progress toward cutting government expenses. Abroad, the Reichsbank found itself able to cut the discount rate to 5 1-2 per cent from 6 per cent because of more favorable position in bills and circulation. But none of these mildly encouraging symptoms could arrest the pressure against shares.

Utilities again made a dismal showing, but some of the industrial leaders fared no better. Preferred stocks were offered for what buyers would pay and that, in many instances, was 3 to 10 points below previous quotations. Several rails which had been selling well above current averages had their market adjusted to prevailing conditions.

United States Steel, American Tobacco "B" and Sears-Roebuck lost a couple of points or more. General Motors was heavily sold.

In the preferreds, Norfolk & Western lost 4. Pennsylvania closed at 12 5-8, off 1 3-8.

Oils were soggy on news that differences of opinion over crude prices had had an effect on quotations.

Wall Street banks were disturbed by the new crop of propaganda in France against the dollar, and welcomed the prompt repudiation which the most serious of those rumors received. Nevertheless, francs continued firm and arrangements were made for shipments of over $10,000,000 in gold. More extensive repatriation of French balances would cause no concern here; there are, in fact, bankers who would welcome such withdrawals.

Weekly trade reviews tried to be cheerful. Dun's believed the new quarter was already giving promise of "a moderate seasonal expansion."

Foreign Markets

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

LONDON—Prices were depressed and recorded general declines due to the failure of the Danubian conference and the obscure continental outlook. Gilt-edged securities and oil shares rallied later and the market closed irregular. Argentine bond and rail issues were weak.

PARIS—A weak tone prevailed despite the fact that the result of the London conference was well discounted. General declines occurred and the closing tone was heavy.

BERLIN—Prices declined despite the reduction of the Reichsbank rediscount rate to 5½ per cent and private rates to 5½ per cent.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON.

Atlanta spot cotton closed steady, 5 points up at 6.00. Receipts 20; shipments 155; stocks, 166,253.

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—A further decline in cotton attributed to continued liquidation and selling on the weakness of the grain and stock markets was followed by rather sharp rallies on covering in today's late trading.

May contracts closed at 5.99. The general market closed steady, net unchanged to 4 points higher.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 4 points and sold about 3 to 6 points net higher during the early trading.

Trade interests continued to buy on scale down orders, and there was some buying here attributed to houses with Japanese connections. The decline carried October contracts off to 6.31 or into new low ground for the movement and about 10 points net lower.

Offerings tapered off, and prices firmed up sharply in the late trade on covering. October closed at 6.45 with prices for all positions making new highs for the day near the close.

Liverpool cables reported Bombay buying and some buying on easier sterling in that market. Exports today 31,233, making 7,097,147 so far this season. Port receipts 13,760. United States port stocks 4,260,399.

SMALL GAINS SHOWN IN NEW ORLEANS SPOTS

NEW ORLEANS, April 8.—(AP)—The cotton market was quite active today and prices fluctuated more widely than of late. After declining 15 points during the morning in sympathy with weakness in stocks, prices recovered all the decline in the afternoon on heavy short covering, making new highs of 16 to 17 points above the lows. The close was a shade under the best, being called steady. The general market showed net gains for the day of 2 to 5 points.

The market opened about steady as Liverpool cables were about as due. Private cables stated that Bombay bought on easier sterling, but there was also some liquidation. Manchester cabled that there was a moderate demand for cloth from India but that the China demand was poor.

Port receipts 15,894; for week 96,949; for season 9,224,539; last season 8,559,451. Exports 31,614; for week 181,348; for season 6,967,338; last season 5,621,484. Brokers' Views

Stock Letters.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Today marked the eighth consecutive decline in prices on the New York Stock Exchange since the house elected to insert repressive taxes upon securities in its unscientific measures for balancing of budget. It becomes increasingly evident that much of confidence inspired by formation of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been destroyed and that business is again in a frightened mood as a result of apprehension over possibility of final passage of the ill-advised measures at Washington. Inability of the market to hold its late afternoon rally should not be relied upon with too great a confidence as an indication of technical weakness but rather to the apparently incompleted stage of special liquidation which militated against any recovery for several days.

LIVINGSTON & CO.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Heavy selling continued in the early afternoon but in the last half-hour some improvement developed in certain issues. Undoubtedly the continuous decline in the last several weeks has left rather a thin market on the upside and if once a real rally could get under way it might be rapid.

The late rally, however, was quite irregular, with several of the store stocks gaining back 1 to 2 points readily, several of the leaders up about a point but with other issues showing little response. The main factor in the action of the market is this forced selling. Stocks are selling at tremendously deflated figures. If this selling is abating, a sharp rally will be expected. It is anyone's guess as to whether the selling is over, however.

COURTS & CO.

NEW YORK, April 8.—There has again been quite heavy liquidation in the market today, which did not centralize in certain groups of stocks but spread over the entire list. We cannot expect any substantial advance until the problems are straightened out in Washington. It becomes more apparent each day that the most radical measures voted by the house will be changed by the senate and that a compromise will be found between the two houses. The buying of securities today came more from short covering than for investment. Except for the news from Washington there is little outside news of interest. The commodity market as a whole was weak. Wheat was down on the rumor that the government was selling wheat to Germany. The cotton market remained fairly steady.

BEER & CO.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Liquidation today was so steady and insistent that the averages were carried deeply into new low territory, and most stocks declined rather severely.

Just how long this pressure of liquidation will continue is, of course, impossible to ascertain, but in the past it has seldom lasted much longer than has been the case during the last week or two.

The market has declined every day for eight consecutive days, and sometime between now and Monday noon we would look for a decisive turn.

DOBBS & CO.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Steady offerings continued to pour into the market during today's session and resulted in extensions of the downward movement throughout the list. Another long line of new record low levels was recorded and declining tendencies gained momentum following a 2 to 3-cent break in wheat in the afternoon.

After the close the government report on wheat proved to be very bullish. Private estimates of crop damage to April 1, it now appears, were underrated rather than overrated. A sharp rally in the grain market is a possibility, and this might extend to securities. Rumors were current just before the close of a favorable statement from Washington, but has not yet been confirmed.

Cotton Letters.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

NEW YORK, April 8.—After the show of strength in the early trading the market sold off to net losses of 6 to 10 points but in the last few minutes regained all lost ground with final prices unchanged to 4 net higher. There was good buying early by domestic and continental spinners and houses with far eastern connections were also on the buying side. The slight rally, however, brought about a renewal of selling, some of which was inspired by weakness in securities and by sharp decline in grain. Liverpool closed at the lowest of today with liquidation more than offsetting buying by Bombay and other sources. We doubt more than moderate temporary technical rallies for the present.

LIVINGSTON & CO.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Cotton again registered new lows on continued liquidation, local selling and uncovering of shop-loss orders, influenced by the continued weakness in stocks and break in grain, but there were indications of a rather better absorption around the low levels and prices recovered 10 to 14 points from lows toward the close on covering and trade buying inspired by the rally in stocks which reflected a rumor that the Glass bill would be modified. The immediate future will apparently be largely governed by Washington developments and the action of the stock and grain markets.

HUBBARD BROS.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The market seemed to prove today that it was fairly well liquidated because in spite of the easier security markets cotton, under the influence of short covering and trade buying, moved upwards. There was some outside buying influences such as the weather in certain parts of the belt that had a tendency to lend a bullish feeling to the question of crop preparations, also shorts were inclined to cover because the market did not go into as low ground as they expected even in face of the decline in securities. Altogether cotton is in a much better technical position and is bound to rally on the slightest indications of further bullish news.

BEER & CO.

NEW ORLEANS, April 8.—Liverpool cables were about as due to 4 penny points worse. Bombay bought cotton in the Liverpool market against which was considerable long liquidation. The local cotton market opened unchanged from previous closing level, but began to ease off after the call when it became evident that the stock market was continuing its current downward trend. The unsettled stock market is the primary cause of the low level of cotton prices and no improvement can be expected until the stock trend turns upward.

Wheat was very weak today but government report after the close was very bullish. The cotton market staged a rally in the afternoon and closed with net gains for the day of 1 to 2 points.

DOBBS & CO.

NEW YORK, April 8.—New season lows have been recorded during the past week, due primarily to outside influences such as security weakness and excessive tax proposals. Improved demand, however, appeared at previous old lows.

Statistically cotton is improving. With shorter crops, due to acreage reduction of from 5 to 10 per cent, and fertilization of approximately one-third of 1930, increased exports and increasing automobile activity, such that with slight improvement in general conditions, a broad buying power could develop, and also there is little room for a serious decline.

Grain Letters.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

CHICAGO, April 8.—After holding steady during the early part of the day with the help of relatively strong cables and further sensational damage reports from Nebraska, wheat broke badly after the noon hour and showed little rallying power thereafter. Continued weakness in stocks and unfavorable trade reports started a wave of liquidation in corn which spread to wheat and execution of stop orders brought complete demoralization for a few moments in both pits. While the market remains under the domination of the weak securities markets, discouragement will undoubtedly continue but we believe that the world situation is rapidly gaining strength. After an extremely dull period during the greater part of the session, liquidation suddenly broke out in corn and carried prices well below any previous records and down to the low level reached for December and March.

CHICAGO, April 8—(AP)—Jolted by breaks in securities, the grain markets collapsed 3 cents today both for wheat and corn, with corn reaching bottom prices unmatched since 1900.

Wheat closed nervous at the day's lowest level, 2 3-8 to 3 1-8 cents under yesterday's finish, corn 2 1-2 to 3 down, oats 5-8 to 7-8 off, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to 5 cents advance.

The shadow of the stock market darkened the wheat pit from the start, and in the late dealings led to a lively outburst of sales to stop losses. It was at this stage especially that all cereal prices suffered their chief shrinkage.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Bleachable cottonseed oil closed easy at new lows for the season on sales of 15 contracts or 2,250 barrels.

Final prices were 3 to 6 points net lower, influenced by the weakness of grains, easiness of lard, barely steady cotton and lower stock market. Crude oil was 2½ bid in the southeast and the valley and 2½ in Texas.

Bleachable spot closed 3.50, May 3.52, July 3.68, September 3.83, November 3.98. There were no sales in the prime summer yellow contract, with closing prices as follows: Spot 3.50, May 3.45, July 3.50, September 3.65.

Sugar, Coffee, Rice.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Raw sugar was unchanged today at 2.60 for spots. The only sales confirmed were 19,800 bags of Philippines for April arrival and 14,700 bags of Porto Rican for prompt shipment at 2.60.

New low records for the season were established in all positions. May selling down to .61 was at the lowest level ever recorded. Final prices were 3 to 5 points net lower.

Shorts and trade interests bought on the decline. Final prices were at the lowest of the session with considerable stop orders uncovered on the break. Approximate sales 25,650 tons. May closed .61, July .68, September .75, December .80, January .82, March .87.

Refined sugar prices were unchanged at 3.90 for fine granulated.

COFFEE.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Coffee was steady today on local trade buying promoted by firmness of the spot market and higher Brazilian exchange.

No. 7 contracts opened 1 higher to 1 lower and closed 1 higher to 1 lower. Sales 4,000. Santos opened unchanged to 3 higher and closed 1 to 4 higher. Sales 10,000. Closing quotations: No. 7 contracts: May 6.28, July 6.21, September 6.18, December 6.13, March 6.13. Santos: May 8.56, July 8.61, September 8.61, December 8.61, March 8.58.

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Today's bond market developed into a flow of capital into government securities and a desertion of all classes of corporate loans.

While every Liberty and Treasury obligation climbed to new high levels for 1932, in the most active market since January 14, last, the railways, industrials and utilities sank to record depths for the year.

The contradictory movement of the federals and corporation liens was attributed generally to the discouragement of investors with the tax and budget situation at Washington and the fear that the "pick-up" in industry may be delayed much longer than has been expected.

Although the shifting of commitments from preferred stocks and speculative mortgages was quite pronounced, the government list was also aided materially by the steady buying of banks. The federal reserve banks have added some $140,000,000 of treasury issues to their portfolios since February 24.

Some of the railroads tried somewhat feebly to rally at one time, but most of them ended with minus signs.

SHARES ON CURB MEET PRESSURE

Support for some of the Electric Bond & Share stocks was a notable development. Electric Bond common closed at 11, up 3-8, net, after touching 9 7-8.

Oils were under moderate pressure. A number of industrials and specialties broke to new lows in thin trading. Ford of France sagged only 1-8 to 3 7-8 on omission of the dividend.

Highlights of Wall Street

BY CHARLES W. STORM, Editor, the News Service of Wall Street.

NEW YORK, April 8.—After the average price of 30 industrial shares touched the lowest level since 1921, the general stock market displayed a rallying tendency due to short covering precipitated by reports from Washington that the teeth had been withdrawn from the Glass bill.

This measure has been a source of apprehension and undoubtedly has played a prominent part in the unwillingness of the important banking interests to extend support to the market recently.

Rumors also were current that an important conference of banking interests has been held with a view to extending immediate support to the securities markets.

The announcement that world sales by General Motors for March had declined about 50 per cent compared with the same month a year ago had a discouraging effect and was responsible for further selling of the company's shares. In view of the smaller business, it is expected that the dividend on the stock will be further reduced.

Reports that Auburn Auto would show earnings of only 30 cents a share for its stock for the first quarter of this year also contributed to the unfavorable conditions prevailing in the motor industry.

The poor conditions in the motor business naturally found reflection in lower prices for stocks of automobile accessory companies.

The professional bears are not alone in their dissemination of unfavorable reports. It develops that quite a little unfavorable propaganda is coming from Paris, where the names of some of America's largest banking institutions have been circulated in an unfavorable connection to such an extent that the state department at Washington inquired into the matter.

This European bearish propaganda served also to stimulate selling of American securities by foreigners today. Some apologies were reported made by the French but the damage had been done.

Announcement of the resumption of gold exports to France and Belgium were discouraging.

CURTAILMENT ORDERED FOR DIXIE NAVAL BASES

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Secretary Adams, of the navy department, today ordered the naval operating base at Key West, Fla., reduced to a "bare maintenance status" and activities at the New Orleans naval operating base decreased to a minimum.

The Key West activities will be transferred to Charleston, S. C., and combined with operations there.

The radio station will be retained in operation. Fuel facilities will be reduced to a condition where they can be placed in operation at about one month's notice.

TARZAN AND THE ANT MEN No. 66
By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The ugly beast-woman of the caves sniffed the air. MEN! Increasing her gait to a trot she bore down upon them. For some time men had been scarce. Many women of her tribe who had gone into the forest to capture mates had never returned.

But here were men at last, the first she had discovered in two moons. At a turn in the trail she saw them, but to her dismay they were a long way off. One of them was pointing at her. Grasping her cudgel more firmly, she started toward them at a rapid, lumbering run.

Then to her astonishment she saw they actually were advancing to meet her. One young male, who was now running toward her, paused and hurled a long pointed stick which grazed her shoulder. Another also paused and suddenly shot a little stick toward her.

The stick leaped through the air and pierced her arm, drawing blood. Turning, she lumbered away in the direction from which she had come, as fast as her hairy legs could carry her. Nor did she once pause until she sank exhausted at the mouth of her own cave.

BARNWELL QUALIFIES FOR MAY 25 PRIMARY

Councilman Led Fight on Tax Dodgers; Hannah Seeks Almand's Post.

Councilman Claude L. Barnwell, of the sixth ward, qualified Friday to succeed himself in the May 25 primary, and Homer R. Hannah announced for the seat now held by Councilman Ed L. Almand, of the third ward.

Barnwell is chairman of the tax committee of council, the only committee in which Mayor James L. Key made no changes in personnel when council was reorganized the first of the year. He has waged a vigorous drive against tax dodgers, placing about $150,000 in additional funds on the tax digests.

Hannah lives at 623 Cherokee avenue, S. E. He is connected with a large distributing firm, and has been a resident of the third ward practically all of his life. He is a member of the board of stewards of St. Paul's Methodist church, and prominent in fraternal circles.

"I promise the people of Atlanta and the citizens of the sixth ward the same conscientious, equitable and honest service I have rendered in the past," Barnwell said in qualifying. "My record is before the voters of the ward for scrutiny. I earnestly urge citizens of the ward to review it."

Barnwell just recently obtained an appropriation of $5,000 for construction of sidewalks on Luckie street, a project which has been hanging fire since 1927.

"I will endeavor to transact the city's business as economically as is consistently possible, always looking to the best interests of citizens of the ward and all Atlanta," Hannah said. "This is my first venture in politics, but I have lived in the third ward for many years, and invite those who do not know me to inquire as to my character and ability."

B. Graham West, veteran city comptroller, and Charles Markeles, opposing Councilman J. W. Weaver, of the second ward, also were listed Friday as qualified to make the race.

Councilman E. P. Dodd, of the fifth ward, withdrew from the field, and it was rumored that former Alderman J. Allen Couch, of the fifth, will seek the position.

New South Wales Defies Government

SYDNEY, New South Wales, April 8.—(AP)—The state government of Premier J. T. Lang ordered most of the tax records locked up today and in effect defied the commonwealth government to proceed with the seizure of state tax monies to pay foreign obligations of New South Wales.

The counter-thrust was taken by orders of the labor premier himself and follows by less than a month the withdrawal of 1,000,000 pounds (normally about $5,000,000) in state funds from New South Wales banks by the commonwealth authorities under police escort.

A law was passed by the commonwealth parliament on March 3, empowering the commonwealth government to seize the revenue or bank deposits of any state defaulting in debt payments. The measure was immediately challenged by Premier Lang.

The commonwealth has proclaimed New South Wales in default and ordered income tax payers to pay their assessments to the commonwealth, but Premier Lang's order today padlocked the assessment papers, stopped future issue of assessment papers, and sent part of the staff off for a holiday.

Aged Negro Pays Tax With 4,019 Pennies

STAR CITY, Ark., April 8.—(AP) Alex Maddox, 77-year-old negro farmer, used the pennies he had been saving for 50 years to pay this year's taxes.

He made a take-it-or-leave-it proposition to Jason Fish, deputy tax collector, the 4,019 pennies or nothing.

Alex brought them to the collector's office, where they were laboriously counted and received his tax receipt for $40.19.

Vengeance Suspected In Eaglet's Abduction

HOPEWELL, N. J., April 8.—(AP) Vengeance as a possible motive for the kidnaping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr. 38 days ago, was the subject of an investigation tonight by Assistant Chief of Police Charles Williamson, of Hopewell.

While efforts to effect the return of the lone eagle's infant son were apparently at a standstill, Williamson announced his suspicion of the brush fire which on Tuesday swept two square miles on Sourland mountains and crept up to within 20 feet of the Lindberghs' white mansion.
